A play that has caused a great sentence is alway of the pen of will C. Murphy, appears at the Park Theatre on Thursday October 15.

The play has attracted attention by reason of its unique title, but it may be said with emphasis that the drama is pure in tone and clean in character. It is in fact a great moral lesson put in dramatic form. The story concerns the adventures of Mrs. Dorothy Pemberton, the wife of a New York millionaire.

The first and real original musical comedy "The Hottest Coon in Dixie" returns to Park theatre, Matinee and night next Saturday October 17. It is respendent in cast, costumes and comedy. Its personnel includes forty of the most talented of the colored race, theatrically. Its comedians are clever, its chorus is comely, its singers are superb, its soubrettes are winsome and chic. There are specalities in abundance, drills, ensembles and marches. Matinee 10-25 Night 25-35-50-75
