Physicians generally ascribe the presence of the typhoid germ to impure water, and yet the same germ can and does live in the air, and the excavating spread the disease.

We commend the Board of Health arc some cases of typhoid near the new dam, and also recommend the burning of all decaying vegetable matter about our premises, the spreading of lime on ellar floors, back yards, etc. And another thing, as the small pox will probably spread from the city over body to keep a saucer of cream of tar-tar sitting on your table or sideboard, and for each person take a plach of 16 before each meal.

A Fat Office.

The statement, that appeared in Tues day's dailies, that the office of Prothon otary of the Supreme Court, for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania was worth $15,000 a year was something of surprise. Col. McClure of Phila-elphia has just secured that appoint nt: and Geo. Pearson of Mercer, has Prothonotary for the Western ict for some years. The Eastern listrict, however, takes in nearly th hole state, even Crawford and Erre aty to the south preferring to go to adelphia; and besides this the Prothonotaries of the Supreme Court are also Prothonotaries of the Superior Court. Their fees are $12 on each case on of the canal question.

Panama and the Canal. The Republic of Panama is the solu

The United States of Colombia re padated her treaty or agreement with the U. S. of A. regarding the building of the canal; the people of the state of Panama were induced to declare their independence; the Colombian general and his troops were paid for leaving, a bloodless revolution was thus effected; and a provisional government was organized, with U. S. war-ships at both Panama and Colon to see that it was President Roosevelt promptly recog nized the new government, which has already appointed Commissioners to arrange for the building of the canal; there will be no outside interference, and thus one of the rotten Republics of S. A. has been taught a sharp lesson, and the canal will be built. The new state takes in the Isthm and a part of the coast, west of th

Exercises in honor of the first class of nurses to graduate from the Butler County General Hospital were held in Y. M. C. A. Hall, last Thursday evening. The graduates were but two in number, Misses Mary Luella Donaldson and Elizabeth Perry Amon. Eight other young ladies have matriculated at the Hospital and will graduate next, and the following year. The program was as follows:

Mad the following year. The program was as follows:
Piano solo, Mrs. J. M. Correy; invocation, Rev. A. R. Robinson; solo, Miss Garnet Anderson; address, Rev. Maitland Alexander, D. D.; bass solo, Geo.

Garnet Anderson; address, Rev. Maitland Alexander, D. D.; bass solo. Geo. Cronenwett; address to nurses, Dr. J. C. Boyle; solo, Miss Charlotte Heiner; presentation of diplomas and pins, A. E. Reiber; benediction.

Dr. Alexander is pastor of the 1st Presbyterian church of Pittsburg and president of the Allegheny General Hospital. He is a very pleasant and winning speaknr. He said Christianity and medical science were in the van of civilization and that the hospital was the advance school of the physician. He urged more liberal giving to all hospital work.

Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montgomery. of Flick, Butler county. Pa., celebrated their twenty-fifth marriage anniversary, Saturday, Oct. 31st.

Robert Montgomery is a son of Archie Montgomery and a brother of Rey. S. P. Montgomery of Gill Hall, Pa. Invitations, neatly designed, were issued to a large number of friends, relatives and acquaintances. It was estimated that there were at least two hundred guests present. The yard, orchard and road were well bordered with horses and buggies.

She is survived by four sons, Cyrus of Rochelle, Ill. Arch of Colo., Thomas A. of New Castle and Samuel of Butler, and four daughters, Laura of Seattle. Wash, Clara at home. Mrs. Mattie Steele of Avalon and Mrs. Ida Hervey of Butler.

She was a member of the United Presbyterian church and her remains were buried in the South cemetery, day, to consider the Cuban reciprocity treaty. "Uncle Joe" Canuon of Illinois was elected Speaker of the House, and Alex McDowell of Sharon was retained as Clerk.

One hundred and twenty-nine new members and re-elected members were sworn in, among them Geo. F. Huff of this district—Westmoreland and Butler. Dalzell of Pittsburg began his ninth term, and will be the Republican leader; E. F. Acheson of Washington county began his fifth, Joe Sibley his fourth, and W. O. Smith of Punxsutawney, editor of the Spirit, his first.

Mr. Hill of Illinois offered a resolution calling upon the President for all the official correspondence in the Panamar revolution matter, and it was agreed to. Several hundred bills were introduced, and the House adjourned for the day.

The Senate, being already organized, had but little, to do, but smell the posies, which arrived by the cart load. Senator Hanna getting more than his share; though some changes were made in the Committees.

At Tuesday's session, the President's message to Congress, explaining the Cuban Reciprocity treaty as adopted by the Senate and Cuban legislature, and urging its adoption by the House, and the nassage of legislation carrying it into

The older married folks were served of first and then the younger people, just like youngsters would, all ate up the scraps, no, there was an abundance left. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery sat at the head of the table on one side and Mr. and Mrs. Gibson next to them to a see that they did not overdo their capacity and Uncle Hughey Hamilton, and Rev. Cooper of Clinton U. P. church and pastor of the venerable grandfather Montgomery sat at the head on the other side of table. Rev. Cooper lead in invoking God's blessing. Mr. Robt. Anderson acted as toast master.

ry at Staten Island. While attending school she became acquainted with Captain Edward H. Schenley, an officer in the British army. The captain was 45 years years of age and twice a widower. Their marriage was an elopement due to the objection raised by Mr. Croghan to his daughter's union with an English army officer. They went to England, where they made their home and did not return to America for about 10 years. Mr, and Mrs. Schenley then went to the old homestead in Pittsburg and secured the forgiveness of her father so far as he would give it. Fred Gore, and the fifth is Mrs. Randolph, wife of Capt Randolph. The son is Capt Edward W. H. Schenley of the English army.

Mrs. Schenley for 40 years occupied the handsome house in Prince's Gate. Hyde Park. She had been a widow for many years, and was a handsome woman. Her late residence is a tall, substantial structure, facing Hyde Park at its most fashionable side. Mrs. Schenley always left London at the approach of winter going to her beautiful villa, Mont Fleury, at Cannes, in the south of France. Here she was often visited by Andrew Carnegie and other Americans.

A popular feature of the through trains of the P. R. R. which leave New York daily for the West at 7.55 A. M. and 1.55 P. M., and leave Pittsburg consists of keeping the and rendering whatever services of train porter serves the ordinary coach passenger in the same capacity as the Pullman porter serves those who ride in parior and sleeping cars.

The day coaches on the above-mentioned trains, as well as those on trains leaving New York at 5.55 P. M. daily for the West and leaving Pittsburg 7.10 P. M. daily for the East, are equipped with lavatories, in connection with which the services of train porters are especially convenient.
