LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—The 1904 calendars are on deck.

—Christmas comes on Friday this year.

—John M. Osborne of West street fell on his way to the car and broke his ankle.

—The outlook for a Teachers' Institute in Butler this year is not very bright at present.

—Hobson had a small audience in the court room last Friday night—too many of our people were attending sick folks.

—Gen. Halings will be the speaker at the Elks' memorial in the Court House, Sunday, 2:30 p. m.

Eight-hundred and twenty-four new wells were completed in the Pennsylvania fields, last month, with an alleged slight increase in the production.

—The issue of bonds by the town for the building of a City or Town Hall, will be one of the questions to be decided at the Spring or February election.

—The afternoon R. & P. train now leaves Allegheny at 5:10 p. m., or an hour later, and the night train at 10:00 p. m., half an hour later. See time table.

—That theatre fire in Pittsburgh, turned out to be as bad as was reported in Butler last Wednesday night. "Arson" was on fire but did not burn and the Grand was not touched.

—Geo. B. Turner and Ed. Young, of West Sunbury, were in Butler, last Friday, seeing about a case of smallpox that had developed in that town. Harry Shull came home sick a few before and developed a case.

—Last Friday while a son and daughter of David George were driving home a man stopped them and demanded a ride, and when the boy said "No," the man whipped up the horse, went about him, the ball entering the left shoulder and causing a dangerous wound.

—Carbolic acid is an anti-septic; it is also a poison, and people who use it as a preventive of fever should do so carefully and keep the bottle in their pocket or under lock and key. A few drops in half a tea-cupful of water, taken before each meal or upon an empty stomach, is about what the Pittsburgh physician, quoted by the Dispatch, recommends.

—At the meeting of the Council, Tuesday evening, the assessment ordinances for West Penn street and Ziegler avenue were adopted, also that for the Mifflin street sewer; it was decided to submit the City Hall matter to a vote of the people; the report of Chief Burkholder read and some supplies for the fire department were ordered. Some small matters were disposed of, some bills passed, and Council adjourned for two weeks.

—A young man of Philadelphia, Centre county, made a reckless wager with a charming girl of Oceola. He wagered to give her a box of candy for every 100 votes that Judge Gordon would poll over his opponent, Allison O. Smith, in the election for Judge. He gave her a box of candy for every vote that Gordon won over Smith. She could see no one but Gordon in the race. Well, Smith won by some 2,500 votes. It is estimated that it will occupy the young lady's leisure all winter to make good her bet.

—A well-to-do gentleman farmer recently wrote the editor of this paper giving him permission, for the benefit of his readers, to say in his paper that the aforesaid gentleman farmer had three very fine, new cows for sale. With the copy he sent "kind regards." Now if the editor could pay his printers with kind regards and the printer pay his landlord, groceryman and so on indefinitely with kind regards, what a lovely place this world would be to live in!

The Epidemic.

Some members of the State Board of Health were in Butler, last Saturday, and, after investigation, were unanimously of the opinion that the epidemic of typhoid in Butler is present is due to the pollution of the water supply, from cases of typhoid near the new dam, from which the germs had been washed into the dam.

This being the case—the water in the dam, the reservoir and water-pipes being polluted—the question arises, Who is to blame? But as everyone in Butler is now using boiled water, and, as the same can be had at all the restaurants and hotels in the town, (besides deep-well and mineral water), there is no more danger in coming to Butler at present than there ever was. A farmer who is allowing a rotten cabbage to remain in his cellar, or surface water to drain into his well is taking more chances on typhoid than the people of the town. This disease came to the town from the country. There is no reason whatever, why the people of this vicinity should not attend to their marketing and shopping in Butler.

However, there are a great many cases of distress in Butler, at present, men out of work and out of money, and either down themselves, or members of their families, in the hospitals. The public meeting was held in the Court room, last Sunday, at which relief committees were appointed, and several thousand dollars were subscribed.

The ward committees are to discover and report cases of distress to the Central committee, which will issue orders for groceries, fuel, or whatever is needed; and, if necessary, furnish nurses, who are coming here from all points.

Besides this, the Wagner house, on S. McKean, the Good Will House, on E. Jefferson, some rooms in one of the Duffy buildings, the County Home on the Hill, the new Smith building on Pearce Avenue, and a large frame near the Car Works, have been secured, and fitted up for hospitals, with nurses.
