GREAT CONVENIENCE.

Nothing like a Telephone in the House to Reach Your Neighbors. "Yes," he said to the friend who was enjoying a cigar with him in the library, "I've had a telephone put in."

"Oh, a very great convenience." Just then the telephone bell rang, and he went to see what was wanted. Presently his head appeared in the library doorway.

"Excuse me a moment," he said. "I've got to run next door and tell Mrs. Brown that some one wants to speak to her. In her pride over the possession of a telephone my wife foolishly told the Browns to use it whenever they wished, and they've told all their friends."

He came back with Mrs. Brown, who devoted several minutes to telling some one at the other end of the line that she was "so sorry baby had a cough."

"Nevertheless," he said when Mrs. Brown had departed, "it is a great convenience. Pardon me! There it goes again."

A minute or two later he glanced into the room again to say: "Got to run over and tell Mrs. Jones that her husband can't get home to dinner. Be right back."

He came back accompanied by a man who wanted to call up somebody at the club to tell him he couldn't be over that evening.

"Sure," said the man when he was through, "my friend isn't there yet, but I left a message for him. If he calls up later will you be good enough to send up and let me know what he says?"

"Just then a child appeared at the door with a piece of paper in her hand. "Mamma, dressing to go out and can't come herself," he explained, "so she wanted to know if you wouldn't please call up Jensen's grocery and tell them to send up the things on this list the first thing in the morning."

When this was done the host made himself comfortable in the library again.

"As I was saying," he remarked, "the telephone is a great convenience—for the neighbors."—Brooklyn Eagle.

He Appreciated. A new picture of some old ruins had been hung on the wall recently.

Jonathan—What is that picture, mamma?

Delighted Mamma (to herself)—Children see and appreciate more than we think they do. I will tell Jonathan all about the picture (aloud) That is a picture of some old ruins in Greece. The figures holding up the roof are carved out of stone and are considered very beautiful.

Jonathan (thinking deeply, with a faraway look in his eyes)—Mm! What was the grease for?—Brooklyn Life.

Amalgam. Among a number of notes received by a teacher in excuse for the absence of children was the following:

"Dear Teacher—Kindly excuse Minnie for having been absent yesterday, as she fell in the mud on her way to school. By doing the same you will oblige her mother."—New York Times.

Not a Leader. "Do you think your friend would lend himself to a shady political transaction?"

"No," answered Senator Sorghum. "He might lease himself or rent himself or sell himself outright, but he wouldn't stand as friendly borrowing."—Washington Star.

A Dampener to Genius. "Alas!" exclaimed the despairing poet. "For three hours I have sat here, but haven't written a line!"

"I'm sorry for you, dear," said his wife, "but what you need is exercise. Come and help me with the week's washing."—Atlanta Constitution.

Flattery. Nell—I consider that he paid a flattering compliment to my good sense. Belle—In what way?

Nell—He didn't attempt to say anything flattering to me.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Quite True. "D'you believe that he who hesitates is lost?"

"Yes," he hesitates in front of a automobile."—San Francisco Examiner.

Behind the Scenes. "Help! The prompter has killed the leading woman!"

"What did she do to him?"

"She called him a stagecoach."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

COLD WEATHER GIRLS. It's nice to meet, in store or street, a pretty, white, and weather.

Her smile so sweet, Her form so erect, Induce the man to wonder whether The faded days Of lives and days Have passed or still are here among us. The illusion stays. Though many ways Some other maiden may have strung us. But yet— 'Tis the frosty morning beauty as to which I now would speak. When each blessed, blooming maiden has a rose in either cheek.

Her eyes a gleam, Her breath a steam, Her lips as red as finest coral; Her form so erect, Of peach and cream, Such ravings can't be quite immoral. Her form erect, Air crisp and sweet, And yet her flesh and blood, they tell us, You'd not suspect The least defect; Her clinging neck fur make you jealous. Ah, yes— 'Tis the frosty morning beauty in whose praise I faint would speak. When each blessed, blooming maiden wears its winter crown. —S. W. Gilliam in Baltimore American.

The Rude Boy. What Willie really lacked was tact, or else he never would have said that two times three was equal to the hairs upon his teacher's head.

The Taffy Pull

Karo CORN SYRUP for Daily Bread. The Great Spread. It is superior to any other syrup for making taffy or candy of any kind. Try the following recipe. It is convincing. Pour a small tin of Karo Corn Syrup into a kettle holding four times the amount of syrup used and boil over a slow fire for half an hour, stirring all the time to prevent boiling over and burning. When little drops in the water become hard, stoppage, then pour on ground peanuts, soda, stir quickly and thoroughly, then pour on ground peanuts. This batter rubbed on the hands will keep it from sticking. The more it is pulled the whiter it becomes. Favor to all.

Karo Corn Syrup is good for all home uses from griddle cakes to candy. Sold in airtight, friction-top tins, 10c, 25c, 50c. All grocers. CORN PRODUCTS CO., New York and Chicago.

TYPHOID GERMS.

The Little Bacteria Which Breed The Epidemic of Typhoid.

THE microscope shows that in the blood of every person suffering from typhoid the little germs can be found as shown above.

This disease has almost become epidemic in many cities and towns of the United States this season. They are supposed to get into the water or milk we drink. The germs multiply by growing long and dividing into two. This happens every half hour, so that one germ is capable of producing about one hundred trillion germs in twenty-four hours. That is why if they ever get into the water supply of a town they multiply so fast that nearly everybody drinking the water comes down with the disease. These are exceptions, however, and they are the persons whose health is perfect, whose blood is pure, and liver active. When the germs get into a healthy body they are thrown off with the other poisons. Recent Chicago statistics show that eight of all the deaths in the past two years in that city have resulted from pneumonia.

PNEUMONIA AND GRIP. These two diseases, together with typhoid, chiefly engross the attention of our people just now. The best advice we can give is to put the body into a perfectly sound, healthy condition. Be assured that you have rich, red blood and an active liver. Occasionally take a good vegetable laxative, such as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, to rid the body of the poisons clogging the canals.

These poisons, extreme weakness, feelings of nervous exhaustion, coughs and colds are the warning signals which should be heeded. Keep the stomach healthy, the bowels regulated and the blood pure and rich, and your body is a stronghold against which the germs of these diseases cannot make a successful attack. When you are pale and feel that you are not getting on, eat a good vegetable laxative, such as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. "Nature is the real physician in such cases," says Dr. R. V. Pierce in his book, "Exercise in the fresh air and sunlight is of great assistance in keeping the system healthy. Many years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, who is consulting surgeon to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y., found certain herbs and roots which when made into an alterative extract (without the use of alcohol), seemed to be the very best means of putting the stomach, blood and vital organs into proper condition.

Men can hardly be made to realize that a little sputtering spark of disease which might be stamped out in an instant, might mean death if it is allowed to keep on. Dyspepsia, constipation and liver complaint seem like trifling matters, but they will eventually wreck the constitution as surely as a spark will blow up a keg of powder.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is acknowledged as the most wonderful medicine ever devised for those diseases which are caused by imperfect action of the liver and digestive organs.

If your health is not strong and vigorous it is a simple and sensible thing to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., and obtain from him and his staff of eminent specialists, without charge, professional advice which will enable you to put your constitution on a solid basis of health and strength forthwith, before these ailments have a chance to reduce you to a physical wreck.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
