THE LOCO WEED.

A True Narcotic-How Animals Ac-The white loco weed is a small pealike plant six inches to a foot high, with conspicuous white or cream col-ored flowers from a thick, woody, persistent root. The white loco is dis-tributed over nearly the whole plains region of the United States from Alberta and Assinibola south into Mexico and from Minnesota and Kansas westward to the Rockies. Extensive osses of stock attributed to this species are reported in Mexico, Colorado and Montana and to a less extent in and Montana and to a less extent in most of the other states embraced in the region mentioned. In southern Cal-ifornia and some other states the loco disease is attributed to other plants and in particular to two species of as-

The loco is a slow poison and appears to affect primarily the nervous system, so that animals addicted to the habit become stupid, wander from the herd, step high, their eyes are glassy, their front teeth grow long and become loose, their coat becomes shaggy, and loose, their coat becomes snaggy, and they seek the loco weed and will eat nothing else if it can be obtained. They not only eat the plant itself, but dig for the roots with their hoofs. They appear to have false ideas of form, size and distance, and horses in partic-plar when they get hot or exhausted ular when they get hot or exhausted are apt to become frantic; whence the term "loco" or "crazy" has been aplied to the disease.

A careful study of the subject seems show that it is the lambs and yearlings that are chiefly affected; old sheep but rarely and then on ranges where the loco is abundant and other forage scant. Also it is usually colts that ac quire the loco habit, and the adult horses are much less apt to become addicted to it. This is due to the fact that the loco plant is in full bloom during May and June when the lambs and colts are just learning to graze, and the conspicuous white flowers and their sweetish taste serve to attract hem, while the intoxicating effects of the poison are more easily fixed in their system.

Its effects and appears to afford ce contracted mainly when stock are earning to graze be correct, then the disease may easily be prevented by grazing lamb bands on ranges free from loco, at least till after the 1st of July, when they will have learned their proper forage and the loce will be out of bloom except in the mountain pastures, where no cases of loco poisoning have been reported, and the same is true of the young colts. It is Bronchitis, Paralysis, Sprains probable that the yearlings affected preceding spring, but in less degree, and that it developed mainly during the second season. It will hence be necessary to look after the lambs and colts during the first two or three months after birth, and future care will not be needed .- J. W. Blankinship

We All Know Her. It pays a woman to be pretty some-times. Being pretty saved a woman's life last week. She was playing whist at an evening party, and it was naturally supposed that she knew how to play or she wouldn't have sat into the game. She was so distractingly pretty that every man there wanted to be her partner. Her first remark was that she just loved whist. "Let me see. Is this strict whist or just a little social game?" Then came the inevitable question, "What is

"Hearts."

"Oh, do you lead trumps?"
"Lead from your long suit." "But I haven't any. There isn't a long suit in my hand. Oh, is a king worth more than an ace in whist? How much do spades count? I've got the right bower; is it any good? How do you signal? By opening and closing your hand? Oh, what a goose! I forgot I was playing whist. Partner, take that trick; I haven't any more trumps. Oh, I mustn't talk; you'll think I don't know how to play. What's that? Trumped my partner's ace? I always do. Why, I've nigged again. I'm such on properly nourished blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and thereby all the organs of the body are run smoothly, like the machinery which runs in oil. In this way you feel clean, strong and strenuous—you feel braced up, and you are good for a whole lot of physical or mental work. Best of all, the strength and increase in vitality and health are lasting. The trouble with most tonics and medicines which have a large sale for a short time is that they are largely composed of alcohol holding the drugs in solution. This alcohol fairly shrinks up the red blood corpuscles, and so one may feel exhiliarated and better for the time being, yet in the end weakened and with vitality decreased. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery bears the stamp of public approval. For the druggist to offer you something he claims is 'just as good' is to insult your intelligence. What you want is a remedy without alcohol, and one which has stood the test of time.

"It is with pleasure that I give my hearty endorsement to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery,' writes Hon. E. E. Willard, Judge of 11th District, Duval Co., Florida. "It is the most successful remedy that I know of for the weakened condition of the digestive organs which excessive heat or overwork sometimes brings, causing indigestion, sick headacine, a disagreeable or bitter taste in the month, sleepless ing indigestion, sick headacine, a disagreeable or bitter taste in the month, sleepless and well calculated to renovate the entire system, cleansing and vitalitying the wood and assisting the stomach to perfect assimilation of food, which will soon restore health and harmony."

The dealer who tries to palm off a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," does so in order to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious preparations. Insist on having Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The best guide to health and happiness is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. In the scope of its roo8 large pages there are discu
