Pennypacker's Latest.

Our unique Governor is plainly de-ermined that criticism of his remarkable acts shall not be permitted to dwel with the protests of the press and also of the judiciary against bis unrivaled which this exposure leaves the govern use of the appointing power to provide nch he gives the public a new topic of amazement by declaring that "Pennsylvania, of all American Common wealths, was the first to recognize the degeneracy of the press, and she alone has provided a law for the correction

Now the condemnation takes in the whole mass.

The only explanation for this progress to the stage of universal condemnation is that the press has spoken very freely and not flatteringly of the Gubernatorial project to use the appointing power to provide for his own future in a way that shocks every sense of public morality where it exists. But if the press is degenerate for that revulsion there are indications that the degeneracy is contagious. Members of generacy is contagious. Members of the bar appear to be degenerate The occupants of that lofty bench to which the Governor aspires must be getting degenerate since some if not all of them are protesting against the scandal. In-deed, the danger threatens that the deeracy may become epidemic and and over the whole State, excepting, ourse, the political machine which of course, the political machine which trades in offices and turns out legislation r. The real significance to the press of that it was uttered by the Governor who has long taken himself outside th ins of argument. It is that it was streed at a gathering of the political anization that rules Pennsylvania, for the glorification of its active mana ger, who exerted an arbitrary and laws power to force the passage of the lus-Grady job, and that it evoked no t from the political rulers. Unose circumstances there appears vania, and particularly the Republican

There has been an obvious and inevitable disposition among Republican newspapers to speak freely of the amaz-ing Governor. But there is still a dis-position there toward subservience to the political dictators who ordered his pet legislation and hear his fulminations approvingly. If this exhibition of the State are chattels, to be either bought or booted into subjection, does not produce a revolt the Governor's impeachment of degeneracy will have at least a partial verification.—Dispatch.

GOV. PENNYPACKER would, no doubt be "a novelty on the supreme bench. Any man who prates about the deca dence of the press as does Pennypacker must have devoloped processes of ob-servation and reasoning entirely differ-ent from normal. Ordinarily there is a formity and fixedness about the dry opinions of the supreme court that make the reading of opinions a burden to the everage layman. A deliverance on a ypacker defense of the libel bill would command a premium after a few years. The public demand is for novel-The last and best lecture of the course will be given at Troutman M. JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER'S resignation as a Director of the United States Steel Corporation, although his term did not expire until the annual meeting in April, was the sensation of the financial district of New York, Monday. Steel stocks dwindled as a result. Henry Phipps, former partner of Andrew Carnegie, in the Carnegie Steel Company, and a close personal friend of H. C. Frick will succeed Mr. Rockefeller on the board. This means that very shortly Mr. Frick is to appear as the actual dominating man in the great corporation.

Candidate Disqualified.

The unexpected exposure by the Phillelphia Press of the deep scheme of rnor Pennypacker to secure the Republican nomination for the vacancy on the supreme court bench at the comng state convention seems to have ctured the ministure boom of the hief executive. Unless the governor an answer the accusations of the Press -which does not seem possible-the embryo candidate is clearly disqualified. The Press Saturday says editorially. The revelation made by the Press of he astonishing proposal to trade upon the supreme court vacancy and upon It is everywhere recognized as adding a lutter incompetency to run the affairs far deeper dye to what was already regarded as an unworthy and indecent attitude. It is further accepted as enlace he seeks, and as compelling either his voluntary retirement from the field or such a movement through the state the Democratic resolution for any fur as will deepen his humiliation. No right-minded man of bargain, to throw in the attorney generalship of the state as an additional inducement and to undertake this who had the appointment to make is a scandal which needs no characteriza-tion. Simply to describe it is to characterize it. There is no variation in the note of reprobation. The only alternative was an expression of incredulity. Could it be possible that such a disclosure was true? Was there not some Governor Pennypacker no such refuge is open to him. The Press did not speak till it was sure. It holds in its hands indubitable evidence. It has no need to ask as to the verity. It knows.

We do not dwell at this moment on the painful and distressing position in or. The first concern is the honor o the state. The first duty is to save the supreme court from the degradation in which the consummation of this nefarions scheming would place it. That tribunal has a high and just sense of its own honor and dignity. It has recently given renewed evidence of its f that evil."

The fact that the yaunted law added self-respect. How indignant it must ing whatever to the legislation on feel at this attempt to defile its sacre robe and how it must revolt against the threatened dishonor every respecting though restrained, can be heard. It summons the bar and the people to proof the great State of Pennsylvania de-clares that the press not alone of his State but of the entire nation is degen-obeyed. The public appeal has just begun. Unless rendered unnecessary it tion has advanced several points since will ring through the state with irrethe deliverance on the Salus-Grady leg-sistible force.

SINCE the beginning of work on th construction of the Wabash line from Toledo. O. to Baltimore, including the extension into Pittsburg, there have been eight successive steps in the progress of the Gould project which have already involved an expenditure of more than $73,000,000. This represents about three-quarters of the total cost of building the road to tidewater and completing the connections of the various links that will give the Gould interests a through route from sea to see.

One of the developments of the week was the possibility that criminal action may be taken against Charles M. Schwab as a result of his methods of handling the Shipbuilding Trust. WASHINGTON NOTES

There was Panama talk in the Sen-tate all last week: the Democrats are de-Jan. 29, 1904, Miss Lizzie Bailey, aged ate all last week; the Democrats are determined to find something to base a Presidential campaign upon. William H. Taft took possession of the war office, Monday, vice Secretary Root, resigned; and Luke E. Wright is now Governor of the Philippines.

The danger to the country from Democratic policies is well illustrated by the obstructive tactics that have been brought to bear against the ratification of the Panama Canal treaty. The country is pretty well convinced that the attorney generalship in order to the President has but done his duty reserve Gov. Pennypacker's desire to go garding the canal, and the time wasted on the supreme bench has produced a under the direction of ill advised Dem profound impression throughout the state, as was inevitable from its nature. gressive Americans as an exhibition of of the nation. There is nothing in the dealings of the administration with Panama and Columbia that is hidden. irely disqualifying the governor for the The President has made public the whole story. The Republicans have accepted and unanimously supported ther information and correspondence that the President has, and the dela nclusion. Unless the statement could in ratifying the treaty and starting the

Without one dissenting vote the House of Representatives, last Satur could justify or defend an act of such day, passed a self-denying ordinance by manifestly flagrant character. To make which the members collectively loss a seat on the supreme bench a matter $180,000 that they never earned. This would not be considered a virtuous act except for the fact that on all previous occasions the House has voted the con trafficking in the interest of the official trary. Horace Greeley spent years in fighting against constructive mileage and. when he got into Congress for the fraction of a term, used all his energies in the way of reform-without much success. The present case was a little different from any that have preceded it. Owing to the stubbornness of Uncle Joe Cannon the special session did not mistake about it? Unfortunately for adjourn after doing its work, but merged into the regular session withou any appreciable moment of time inter Had the wishes of the Senat been complied with there would have been an interval of nearly two weeks, and then there would have been no complaint about paying the extra mile age, even if most of the members had remained in Washingtion. The humorous feature of the action of Congress is that a number of warm speeches were made in behalf of the appropriation and many ingenious arguments put forth to show that the members were entitled to the gratuity, but when it came to a vote there was not single one who dared to stand up and be counted in favor of it. So far as the bulk of the members in the East are concerned the financial loss is not great. Most of them travel on passes anyway and their mileage is not large even a the liberal rate of twenty cents a mile; but for the members west of the Missis sippi or on the Pacific coast the loss is a very material one. The members from Oregon would have drawn $1200 each. Could there have been some sort of secret ballot there is little doubt that the appropriation would have passed.

A very informal affair took place at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Snyder in Mid-dlesex twp., Thursday evening, Jan. 28th.

The occasion was a party held in honor of Miss Lyda's sixteenth birthday. Miss Lyda was requested by her mother and sister to make a friendly call upon one of her neighbors that evening and upon her return home she was surprised to find a lot of her old friends and school mates gathered to pay her their respects.

After the guests got fairly well acquainted they began to play some very interesting games.

HUSELTON'S

The Biggest Thing in Shoe Selling

We are pretty tired so we won't write a long "ad." but let the goods and prices do the talking this time.

Shoes from 50c to $1.50 taken off the price-nothing off the value.

Shoes 57c, 98c, $1. 57c, 98c, $1. Twins in price and quality. But one looks like a little gentleman the other like big sister; used to cost like that, too.

We have't heard of any one who hasn't been properly fitted at this sale. Maybe you've had to wait a little, but pity our backs. We are very busy.

At Reduced Prices.

Not the Least Shopworn or Old Style, size of top, 42 inches when closed. First class construction.

$22 Velour Couches for $15.

Your choice of red or green covering; guaranteed construction; new and desirable, but too many of them.

Well made and a very neat golden oak suit. Dresser has a pattern mirror; bed is nicely carved.
