An Inevitable Dilemma.

The passage by the Assembly of Puerto Ricco of a resolution demanding either admission to statehood in the United States or independence gives warning of a trouble that is sure to present itself so long as we maintain dependencies in the anomalous condition of being subject to our authority without representation in the Government. It is inevitable so long as we teach republican principles to our wards that they should become imbued with the idea of the right to representation in the supreme Government; and it is equally certain on the other hand that every such religious properties.

Stang by the righteous criticisms of an aroused public conscience the senior Senator, who is undoubtedly the archeospirator in this attempt, writes a most remarkable letter, in which he casts suspicion on the members of the Supreme court, and the question is how many members of the court have been taken by the cuff of their necks and the seat of their inexpressibles and catapulted over the sacred pale which divides the Supreme court from the common mortals. Shall the Supreme court become the plaything of the senior Senator, a mere bench on which sit the puppets—who do not dare not think or express an apinion of their own!

If so, then we are spaying the wind and shall reap the whirtwind, The voice from Florida is the voice of Jacob, but the bands are those of Esan." Stung by the righteous criticisms

This brought up the question of what the expression "a thousand feet" of gas means, and an employee of the Home Co teils as that it means enough gas to fill a measure ten feet square and ten feet long, which would mean a thousand cubic feet of space—at a pressure of four ounces—four ounces to the square inch, over and above the atmospheric pressure.

Probably there is a great deal of truth in the statement that in the last few years an increasing number of people are using wheat who number of people are using wheat who formerly used tye or rice, particularly the latter. The hope of this continent lies in the education of the people of China and Japan to a wheat stardard of living. This will come in time, but it is too much to hope that it has arrived. As a matter of fact, there is a shortage of spot wheat in this country, so that of spot wheat in this country, so mills have shut down, but it would permature to estimate dollar wheat for he rest of the year.

Manual Manual Manual S Artistic Decorating!

If you only knew how artistically lovely you can paper the simplest home for a little bit of money, you would not live another day in those old rooms. If you are going to fix up the home this season—either papering or painting—let us lay out the whole scheme for you. We offer our advice and experience in helping you to select wall paper and paints that will make any room just what it ought to be.

Come in and see all the new designs and colorings for 1904—ready for your inspection. Mouldings to match all papers.
