Judge John Stewart, of Franklin Co. one of the best men and best lawyers in the state, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Supreme Judge.

Last Thursday was the last day for the candidates to certify to the County Chairman, and A. T. Scott of Butler for Delegate to the State Convention, and A. H. Starr of Penn township and J. H. Pisor of Worth township for Clerk of Courts, did not certify, and though George E. Robinson for Dis-trict Attorney certified, he has since drawn from the contest.

The lawyers of the state are receiving the following circular-letter from the Lawyers' Committee of Philadelphia.

HON. JOSEPH HARTMAN.

One of the best known and most respected citizens of Butler, departed this life on Monday night, February 29. 1904, in his 77th year.
Mr. Hartman had been in poor health for some months, but the immediate cause of his death was dropsy superiuduced by a weakened heart.

He was born in Armstrong county, near the Butler county line, October 18, 1827. His father was a farmer and the largest an blacksmith, and in his early years he helped on the farm and in the shop, and afterwards worked in the Brady's Bend iron works. He saved money and with it purchased a farm in Donegal twp... to prepare against possible attack, he is hopeless. Mr. Burton was supported by the usual Democratic minority, but 1862 he enlisted with the Pennsylvania Volunteers and served for some months in the army—which probably accounts for his Republicanism.

In 1864 he became interested in the production of oil, followed the developments to nearly all the new fields, was ments to nearly all the new fields, was unusually lucky or successful and became very weathly. He took an interest in public affairs, served on the School Board of his township for many years, and also served one term in the Legislature. He removed to Butler about 1890; helped to organize "The Butler County National Bank," was elected its President a few months later, and has held the position ever since. His wife died some years ago, and he is survived by two sons and four daughters. His son, Joseph, and his son-inters. His son, Joseph, and his son-in-law, Mr. Gallagher, have. of late years, been his partners in the oil producing business, and hold large interests in the West Virginia fields.

SINCE 1893

I began business in 1893. Who would then have predicted the great advance in wealth that has great advance in weath that has since taken place?

But I tell you, the coming years will beat it out of sight.

Get into the push with those who are going to reap the fatness of the country's advance.

I will carry you on 5 per cent.

SPRING CLOTHING.

We are now showing our new styles in Clothing.

They are certainly beautiful. The famous "Hamburger & Sons" clothing for spring far excels anything we have ever shown. They all have padded shoulders, firm fronts, and hand worked button holes, and are fully equal to the very best custom made suit. See our window display of new goods. Do not buy old styles in when you can step into our store and get the 1904 goods for the same price. We have a few odds and ends on sale at a great

Artistic Decorating!

If you only knew how artistically lovely you can paper the simplest home for a little bit of money, you would not live another day in those old rooms. If you are going to fix up the home this season—either papering or painting—let us lay out the whole scheme for you. We offer our advice and experience in helping you to select wall paper and paints that will make any room just what it ought to be.

Come in and see all the new designs and colorings for 1904—realy for your inspection. Mouldings to match all papers.
