CURRENT EVENTS.

As all the foreign newspaper corresondents have been denied permission o accompany the Japanese army on its march northward in Corea, war news eedingly scarce. The situation, however, has not undergone any material change, and the Japs say that nothing

The weather and the roads are bad in Corea, and the Japs are advancing slowly, but they seem to be flanking the Russian positions, and the latter are retreating, burning the towns as escaped from Vladivostok.

The terrible earnestness of the Japs in this war is illustrated in a late dispatch from Tokio, which read as follows:—"A woman at Takaski, on learning that her only son was exempted from active service on the ground that she was dependent on his earnings, immadiately committed suicide by plunging a dagger into her heart. Before her last breath she handed the weapon to her son, making signs that she expected him to use it against the enemy. Pocketing the dagger the son hurried away and volunteered for active service."

The Russians are said to be assembling an army of three hundred thousand men near Laio-Tung, north of Port Arthur.

There was "something doing" at both ends of the National Capitol, last week. The Senate Committee continued to probe into the secrets of the Mormon church, and the facts brought out were that the governing board of the church, of which Senator Smoot is a member, practices polygamy in spite of law, although Mr. Smoot personally is an exception; that the church still believes in placel marriages as a cardinal doctrine, although the "revelation" concerning them has been suspended for the present. It is the claim of the prosecution that Mr. Smoot cannot be a good citizen while he is in sympathy with the apostles who rule the church and defty the laws of Utah.

The evidence ought to convince everybody that an amendment to the Constitution, placing the marriage and divorce laws in the hands of the National legislature, is called for, and while the amendment machinery is in operation another, making the election of President and United States Senators by the oppular vote, should go with it. There should also be a national charter law governing all interstate corporations.

For three days of last week the House at Washington, was in an uproar over the Bristow report. It was a case of "much ado about nothing," and it came about over a resolution offered by Representative Hay calling for an investigation of the connection of Congressmen with the postal scandals. From Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow came a mass of stuff which the Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads passed along into the House.

Whoever it was that got up this report in the Postoffice Department was certainly an artist. He connected about one hundred and fifty Representatives and some Senators with the department in one way or another as asking favors for constituents, and the manner in which the story was sent out to the country made it appear that all of these members of Congress were "grafters," which was unfair, and which was vigorously resented. For three days of last week the House

Report of the County Auditors

Though the County Auditors finished their work by Saturday, the 5th, their report has become such a ponderous matter that none of the printing of fices here could put it in type in time for last week's papers, and it appears in our columns, this week.

The warrants redeemed by the County Treasurer, last year, aggregated $97,059 32; the state tax forwarded to the State Treasurer amounted to $18,980.81; sinking fund, treasurer's percentage and balance due, makes a grand total of $136,837.93.

The largest items of axpense are those saintes, dockets, repairs, and boarding prisoners.

The county is in good shape, financially, as it has about $13,000 in its treasury, and three times as much more due from collectors, etc., while its outstanding bonds and other debts amount to but $16,000. Patsy O'Neil came near being crushed by his engine at the Bickel No. 3, a few days ago. He slipped and fell into it while olling, and had his right arm crushed, but saved himself by pulling the links Rigs are up on Henry Kulm; two on the Henry Donaldson one on the Eli. Camberland, one on the Al Starr; one drilling on the Jas Thompson, one on the Bickel, one on the Jno Thompson, one on the Elmer Graham, one on the Dr. McKee, and one on the J S. Camp-bell.

The warrants redeemed by the County Treasurer for maintaining the County Home and the poor, aggregate $24,862.59, and these with the amounts set aside for the sinking fund, the Treasurer's percentage and balance on hand amount to $41,103.05. The largest items of expense were salaries, insane and hospital accounts, out-door expenses, provisions, out-door relief and insurance. $112000 in Poor-district bonds are yet outstanding, and deducting amounts due from collectors and balance in treasury, the county yet owes $86,000 for its poor house and farm.

"Peter Men."

While five strangers were eating their supper at a vacant house formerly occupied by S. Mong. in Forward township, a mile east of Evans City, on Wednesday evening of last week the house was suddenly surrounded and entered by a lot of P. R. R. police; the strangers were covered with guns, arrested, handcuffed and taken to Allegheny, where they were held for a hearing, and next day were committed to jail for trial. The charges against them will consist of a long list of burglaries and robberies of railroad stations, including some cases in this county.

The leader of the gang is said to be an old criminal named "Peter," who has served zeyeral terms, the R. R. police have been after him for sometime, and but lately learned that he and his gang called "Peter Men" were living in an abandoned coal mine near Evans City.

The young people at Troutman will give an Easter service, Sunday. April 3cd. at 3 o'clock p. m.

The Magic Giee Club had an enjoyable time at the home of Elias King on Friday night.

Charlie Byers was severely burned about the bands and face one day last week while engaged in thawing out a gas line that connected with a boiler.

Ethel, the three year old daughter of Lewis Lorimer, was severely injured on Thursday, by falling on a sharp pocket knife she held, in her band. A deep, long gash was made just below the pit of her stomach which required a number of stitches to close up. The child has passed the danger point and soon will recover from the wound.

It is expected that many new wells will be drilled in the Speeckley field this spring.

I was a pupil in the first free school In 1813 a law was passed by the State stablished in our neighborhood, in Legislature making the Connoquenes October, 1887. the board for employment, having with him the certificate of the committee, it was the duty of the board, before employing him, to have him submit to a literary examination. He would usually be sent to some clergyman or other literary person of the neighborhood for examination; the certificate that he would bring back was always honored. It was quite probable that some of our early teachers were somewhat limited in their culture. An intelligent farmer would frequently take charge of his home school, as it was usually open only a few months. If he could maintain good discipline and could retain possession of a good pocket-knife, having one small blade, kept sharp, with which to "make" pens for the students, who would always furnish the goose-quills, could write a plain hand—as he had to write copies in their "copy" books—could use a good switch, three feet long or more, he was regarded a good teacher. The last lecture of the Karns City E.
League course will take place March 24th, when Dr. E. L. Eaton, a very talented gentleman will deliver his entertaining and instructive lecture, a rare treat which no one should miss.

Negotiations were concluded in Pitt burg, last Friday, for the sale of the property of the Second Presbyterian church, at Penn avenue and Seventh street, to Herbert H. DuPuy for $600,-000 0000 and the purchase by the Second or more, he was regarded a good teacher.

At this early period there were more in the spelling classes than in others. The "United States Spelling Book" was then used. In reading there was one class in the Bible, another in the New Testament; beyond this any one could bring whatever reader he pleased, historical or biographical. A reading class would not infrequently have one pupil in it.

At this early stage of school development six days in the week were taken up in the school room. It required little time to arrange for the next week's work. I recall that on Saturday afternoon an esteemed neighbor—a farmer, a justice of the peace and an elder in the United Presbyterian church—would put in his appearance, and by permission of the teacher would take charge of the school. He required all of sufficient age to commit to memory the Ten Commandments, the shorter catechism, with selections from the Psalms and other Scripture lessons, not forgetting the Lord's Prayer.

All this was in an early stage of our street, to Herbert H. DuPuy for $600,-000 and the purchase by the Second church congregation of the Hotel Boyer property, Seventh street and Duquesne way, from Mr. DuPuy for $250,000. These two sales are a part of a deal reaching $1,600,000, one of the largest realty transactions handled in Pittsburg for many months.

ments, the snorter catendary, and selections from the Psalms and other Scripture lessons, not forgetting the Lord's Prayer.

All this was in an early stage of our public school system. This religious training would not be allowed at this more advanced period; and yet, in looking back over that primary period, I cannot see where any harm grew from this training of the young minds on these moral lines.

Several years had passed before a grammar class was introduced in our school. I recall the incident; a class of two was started, and we all thought it singular that it was necessary to teach people how to use the language to which they had been reared. I recall noticing them at their grammar (Kirkham's), and it seems to me I can yet see the teacher as he is walking back and forth across the room with his hands behind his back, under his coat-tails; and as he looks over towards the grammar class. extemporizing, "John—his book." with a generous smile.

It may be a surprise to some of our present teachers to know that not only late in the 30's, but early in the 50's male teachers received as low as $16 a month, and females from $10 to $12 a month. These figures would not do now: everything in the business line has changed. Verly little money was needed then; many of the teachers lived at their homes while teaching.

The most direct and radical change that took place in the development of the public school system was caused by The following resolutions on the death of the late Hon. Joseph Hartman. President of the Butler County National Bank, Butler, Pa., were unanimously adopted at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors held March 11, 1904. an insult to the legislature that had passed the law. The mover of the resolution replied that such was his purpose in offering the resolution as he felt that the legislature had insulted the school directors of the whole State by provided for the selection of an agent to look after their official conduct.

The salary was finally fixed at $300 s apprintendent of later years discharged the duties of the office with greater fieldlity than did Mr. Black, traveling, as he did, on foot from one section of the country to the other as his official duties required.
