LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—This is Grand-Opera week in Pittsburg.

—The new theatre will not have a pillar in it.

—Butler is to have a fancy train to the lake, this summer.

—The P. O. will close tomorrow—Good Friday—at noon.

—Tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow is the day—to get a move on.

—Friday, April 29th, will be appeal-day from the Mercantile appraisment.

—A few flies have already made their appearance; one dead fly now is worth a million in August.

—Now that Pittsburgers have settled their music problem, they will resume their interest in the Eastern war.

—You will wear flowers in your Spring hat, and the Misses Rockenstein have them in great profusion—see adv.

—After Easter we shall have a chance to see how the Leap Year has improved her opportunities during the past quarter.

—The party who took a parcel by mistake from the Doutt dry goods store a few days ago, will please return it to the store.

—Mrs. J. M. Guskey, (Guskey's Department Store), Pittsburg, filed a petition in bankruptcy, yesterday, liabilities over $300,000.

—L. C. Wick has sold his planing mill to the Iceless Refrigerater Co., in which he has an interest, and there is now no "union" planing mill in Butler.

—Anent the tariff discussions now agitating the people of England, they are asking each other whether they are "little piggers" or "whole hoggers."

—Robins seem to be unusually numerous this Spring, which makes us think that that three-year-limit in some of the Southern states did not run out last fall.

—Eugene Pape has had the rooms over the G.W. Miller grocery, handsomely refitted for a billiard hall, has ordered new tables; and expects to open next Monday.

—Owing to our columns being crowded, this week, (and they also will be next), we have omitted some of our "standing ads," but will make up in the future.

—A large number of men have been applying at the Car Works, lately, for work. It is said that the Works will start up, next Monday, with two-thousand men, and has orders in for four-teen-hundred cars.

—A young man named Thos. Price, who lives with his uncle, John Price, near Millerstown, came home from the coal mines near DuBois, a few days ago, and has developed a case of smallpox. His aunt is also reported to have.

—The crocus is springing, the robin is singing, the stores are advertising moth balls and cedar chests, the weekly papers are telling how to plant sweet peas, and it is time your Congressman was sending you "them seeds."

—The liabilities in the Shloss bankruptcy case are about seventeen thousand and the assets about eighteen thousand—including his life insurance policies. It may be news to some people to know that when one goes into bankruptcy he must part with his life insurance policies.

—Butler oil men and lodge men are preparing to hold a clam bake at which plates will cost $5. Great Belshazzar! Are they goin' to have attar of roses and red radium slits on the side? Why, this thing is going to make that clam bake at the Frank Sallinger place look like a porridge party.—Spectator.

—The Springdale W. C. T. U. will hold a parlor meeting and birthday anniversary service for "Neal Dow," and Miss Francis Williard, on next Tuesday evening, April 5th, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Forsythe, on Brown avenue. An interesting program is expected, and a full attendance is desired. Refreshments will be served.

—P. E. Cronenwett, Butler, Pa., is now prepared to fill orders for eggs from his prize-winning, single-comb, brown Leghorns. His pen No. 1 is headed by a cockerel scoring 94 points, and a dozen pullets all scoring over 93. From this pen he will sell a limited number of eggs at $1.50 per setting, and from four other pens of prize-winners at $1.00 per setting eggs shipped safely any distance.

You will always find the new styles in Men's and Boy's clothing at Ritter & Rockenstein's.

Any farmer desiring one of Armour's fine Almanacs can get it for the asking at J. G. & W. Campbell's, Butler, Pa.

"All on account of Eliza"—Next Week.

A comedy entirely different from anything in which the Stock Company has appeared this season will be the bill at the Grand, Easter week, when "All On Account of Eliza" will be presented.

A Desirable Hand Book on the World's Fair.

Perhaps the best treatise on the World's Fair at St. Louis, is that published by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, in an illuminated folder of eighty-four pages, setting forth the attractions of the great fair in a most admirable and complete manner. It contains some sixty views of buildings, including maps of St. Louis, the original Louisiana purchase, and the World's Fair Grounds. It may be had free on application to any of the Baltimore & Ohio Ticket Agents, or by addressing B. N. Austin, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, or D. B. Martin, Manager P. T., Baltimore.

John A. McCandless of Centre, R. S. Hindman of W. Sunbury, E. M. Dunn of Franklin were among our callers Saturday.

Rev. J. W. Schwartz of Worthington, married A. T. Flick of Nichola and Miss D. V. Snyder of Coylesville, last Wednesday.

George P. Harvey of Clinton twp., Mercantile Appraiser for this year, finished his work, last week, and his report appears in our columns this week.

John E. Muder, Jr., attended the Republican Convention, Monday, as delegate from Saxonburg. Mr. Muder has lately rented and refitted the frame hotel of the town—the old Laube house—now the "Hotel Central" and is prepared to give the guests of the new Summer Resort the best and most modern of accomodations.

This week witnesses a general change in the Western Union telegraph office. At their own request, Manager Harry A. Whetzel is transferred to the Pittsburg office, where he was located before coming to Butler, and night operator William B. Edmunds is transferred to Phillipsburg, Pa., where his family is living and where he worked before coming to Butler. Miss Josephine Smith, who has been in the Butler office for several years past, goes to a better position in the Pittsburg office. Geo. Morris of Pittsburg succeeds Mr. Wetzel. The latter moved his family to Pittsburg yesterday. Mr. Whetzel and family and Mr. Edmunds have made hosts of friends during their comparatively brief stay in Butler, and Miss Smith and they will be sadly missed by their acquaintances and associates.

John Kerr of Harmony, who, with a party of seven, went to Borneo, to drill for oil in July of 1902, returned home a few days ago. Wm. Redic of Harmony and H. P. George of Evans City, died on the island; and William Harde of Harmony, Andrew Rspe of Evans City and Richard Smith of Coraopolis are there yet. C. A. Steinberger, formerly of Zelienople, now in Kansas, returned some time ago. Mr. Kerr came home by way of Honolula and San Francisco, and was about two months on the way. He says that he had perfect health one year after landing on the island. There are now only 42 Americans in all Borneo. He describes the country as one continued dense jungle full of all sorts of wild animals. The temperature ranges from 100 in the shade to 150 in the sun. Fever is prevalent and the uncivilized natives succumb to it in large numbers. Those of the original party remaining there have had the fever but are at present in fair health. There are now some sixty oil wells in that section of Borneo, the latest producer making about 170 tons or 23 barrels a day.

Letter to Rev. Mr. Mountz, Butler, Pa.

Dear Sir: Three churches in Baldwinsville, N Y, have had their first lesson in Devoe.

Messrs. Osterhout & Lockwood painted the Presbyterian parsonage; estimated 30 gallons; took 22.

Messrs. Slingerland & Shutter painted the Episcopal church; estimated 40 gallons; took 38.

Same painters painted the Catholic church; estimated 50 gallons; took 39.

Of course, they estimated from what they had been using. The saving in paint and work is $4 or $5 a gallon. Total saying on three jobs $125 to $150—the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint, you know.

Yours truly
F W DEVOE & Co

P. S.—Patterson Bros. sell our paint.

ACCIDENTS.

Merle Cruikshanks of Winfield twp. fell from the hay-mow, last Wednesday and and had an arm broken, besides receiving many bruises.

A "Bessie" fireman named Barrett had an almost miraculous escape the other day. His engine and tender parted company and he fell between them, but caught the brake-beam as he fell and held on till the tender came to a stand-still.

Harry Patterson was struck on the head by a falling smokestack, on the Dodds farm in Penn twp., Monday, and severely injured. He was brought to his home in the Flick building in Butler where his wound was sewed up and is doing nicely.

Henry Danbenspeck of Parker twp. fell backwards upon a slippery plank a few mornings ago and hurt himself so badly that he has been bedfast ever since. Henry's bad and good luck came together, as a nice well has been struck on his place.

Addison Canning of West Deer twp. Allegheny Co, (near the Butler Co. line) met with an instantaneous death last Thursday afternoon. He was dynamiting stumps in a field at the time, carried the sticks of dynamite in a basket, and the caps in his pocket. What caused the explosion no one can know, but Mr. Canning was cut in two by it, his head and shoulders being thrown over the fence, while his legs were thrown fifty feet in the opposite direction. His funeral at Deer Creek U. P. church was largely attended. He was 51 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

A Remarkable Record.

The affliction known as chronic Catarrh (Rhinitis) of the nose has been one of the most difficult problems in Medicine, first, because nearly every other person is afflicted with this trouble and second, because only few physicians possess the necessary skill, patience and experience to successfully treat this malady which so frequently is the forerunner of bronchial and lung-diseases. The physician who wishes tocure catarrh must be able to treat not only the seat of the affliction but also the cause which lies invariably in the general condition of the patient and requires at least the same attention as the local trouble.

Dr. A. Sigmann, the Pittsburg Eye-Ear-Nose-and-Throat Specialist seems to be in possession of the essential requirements for the cure of Catarrh, a claim which he can substantiate by scores of testimonials: "I never thought that I could be cured," writes Mr. Henry Schilling, Manager of the Prudential Life Insurance Co., 5 Watson St., Carnegie, Pa., as my case had had baffled the skill of several of the best doctors and specialists. My general health had greatly suffered so that I had to resign my position. In less than 6 months Dr. A. Sigmann of 804 Penn ave., Pittsburg, succeeded in curing me of all my troubles."

Otto E. Heinemann, 435 E. Ohio St., Allegheny, certifies that he was cured of ulcerated rhinitis by the doctor, after all other remedies and doctors had failed to give relief.

Dr. A. Sigmann may be consulted free until April 1st, at 804 Penn ave.; thereafter at Suite 405 Home Trust Bldg., 541 Wood St., Pittsburg, Pa.
