

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE—All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads should notify the office of the CITIZEN office, and persons making public use of the same should notify the office.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Was it apathy? —Or was it contentment? —And the next day it rained.

—Christmas comes on Sunday, this year.

—Parker only got eight votes in Parker township.

—Parker's landing is up Salt River for sure.

—Butler county now has 71 election precincts.

—Fifty the hobos—the Butler police are after them.

—Megaphone protection against the burglar is something new and its O. K.

—The stock of tin-borns seemed to be equal to the demand Tuesday evening.

—The leaves left the trees early this fall, which is the old German sign of a mild winter.

—Some handsome mums are displayed in Butler. Take a look at the Krut and Holt show windows.

—Flaunts are reported very scarce. The sooner the Legislature passes a three year limit on them the better.

—The Brewster M. E. church will give an aster supper and ice cream festival in the church, tomorrow evening.

—Just about 60 per cent of the registers for the county was polled, which would indicate that it had all had voted.

—Action sale of first night theatre seats in old postoffice building, Main street on Thursday evening, beginning 8:15 p. m.

—C. H. Gels has purchased the lot on East Cunningham street, adjoining the new theatre, and intends building a modern hotel.

—That owl in the show window of the Purvis Bros. pharmacy is a curiosity. It is four years old and has no teeth. It was caught by some boys in the woods near Butler.

—The annual meeting of the Woman's Hospital Association for the election of officers for the coming year, will be held in Y. M. C. A. rooms on Tuesday, Nov. 15, at 8 p. m.

—An auction sale of first night seats will be something new for Butler. Our new Opera House—the Majestic Theatre—will open next week, and there will be a public sale of first night tickets.

—The laying of the W. Clay street sewer is being delayed by a strata of limestone struck near the Kirkpatrick building and requiring blasting. Shaffer has begun work on another sewer from Brady down Monroe and to E. Cunningham.

—At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

—A. O. Ruby, formerly a Franklin township boy, left last week, to his 90 line imported Belgian, English Shire and Percheron stallions which he had been resting for a time at the Butler Fair Grounds after importing them from Europe. Mr. Ruby is taking the horses to Oregon. David West and Thompson McCandless bought one of the best black Percherons, paying about $2000.

—Two old soldiers of Butler started for Soldiers' Home the other day. They went down to Allegheny, changed trains, and then went down the river a few miles. They stopped at a nice looking place, and had supper, and then one of the old soldiers went to bed, while the other slipped off and came home. And when the man who had left at Diamond Creek said where he is he'll make the air blue.

—Two young men went out hunting in Armstrong county, last week; they got down on a log; one of the guns was accidentally discharged, and the charge entered the knee and leg of one of the young men; assistance was promptly summoned but the young man died, shortly after. The other young man, compensation had promptly had a handkerchief around the young man's leg, above the wound, and twisted it tight with a stick, before going for help, the wounded man would yet be living.

ROBBERIES.

An attempt was made to rob the house of Anstey Anthony, of Institute Hill, Monday night.

Scharbach's jewelry store in Chicago was entered by burglars, one night last week, but the burglars were heard and scared off before securing anything. Next night Miss Hoch heard burglars in her home, and by screaming through the megaphone scared them away and awakened the town.

Donation Day, Thursday, November the 17th.

The ladies of the Hospital Association have set this day for the annual donation. It is two years since the people of Butler have been given this opportunity, and we hope for a very liberal response. The following list may help you to decide what to send: Fruit, fresh or canned; jellies, butters, vegetables, all kinds of groceries, ham, bacon, and eggs, soap, starch, etc.; also bedspreads, sheets, towels, pillow cases, night dresses, night shirts, bath robes, slippers, table linen, bath towels, wash cloths, table covers, table cloths, etc.; unbleached muslin, medium weight, old linen or muslin, shaker bands, white, clothes baskets, brushes, brooms, etc. Do not forget November 17th.

Farmers and others from the country will leave their donations at the hardware store of J. G. W. Campbell.

The Butler Business College

is now in session. Step in and see one of the best arranged, finest equipped and most thorough schools in America. Everybody is welcome. Rates and terms liberal, expense moderate, special arrangements for out-of-town students who wish to board at home. Catalogues and circulars free. Six months' night school beginning Nov. 1st, for $20.00.

A. F. REAGAN, Principal, Butler, Pa.

Try the store that places both the price and the quality.

RITTER & ROCKENSTEIN.

Megaphone wanted at 136 W. 17th St.

PERSONAL.

A. J. Daniels and wife have moved to Fifty-second street, Pittsburgh.

Abel Fisher and family have moved to the Miller house on W. Pearl St.

Mrs. L. H. Pfeiffer, of Evans City, did some shopping in Butler, yesterday.

William Gillespie came home from Kansas to visit his brother's funeral.

Engineer Libby of the B. & O. has returned from a visit to his mother in Maine.

John Walker and John Dummelmaier of Clinton town were Butler visitors, Friday.

Wm. M. Campbell, lately of Princeton, Pa., is now with Wm. John Mecon of Worth twp.

Louis Berg has returned from the west, and in the future will be found at the Berg bank.

Judge Story and R. P. Scott attended the funeral of John Kelly, Esq., at Brno, Tuesday.

John T. Atkinson of Buffalo twp., attended the school directors Convention in Butler, Friday.

W. H. Carson of Buffalo twp. and A. A. McNeess of Worth were among our callers, yesterday.

Joe Crawford of Allegheny twp. brought in the returns of that twp., and visited friends here.

Tom Alexander came home from W. Va. to vote, and says he will again be a candidate for Treasurer.

Harry Pior has rented his farm in Worth twp., and will move to Slippery Rock borough, next month.

Miss Catherine Thompson of Tarentum was the guest of Miss Florence Morris, Clinton township, over Sunday.

Mrs. Eleanor Graham and daughters of the Diamond returned, yesterday, from a month's visit with Mrs. J. H. Coulter at Crawford Corners.

Miss Hoch of Chicago yelled Hoch der Burglars through her megaphone, the other night, and awakened the whole town, but the burglars escaped.

C. E. Donaldson is visiting his parents, J. C. Donaldson and wife of Washington twp., after a six year's absence in West Virginia oil fields.

John H. Negley attended the Republican meeting in Pittsburgh, Saturday, to hear Senator P. C. Knox speak, and spent Sunday with his son, J. P. Negley.

W. H. Witte has sold his store at Sarverville station to Slangenbush & Co., and will hereafter live with his father, Fred Witte, in Winfield township.

W. J. Bartley and John McCardy of Buffalo twp. were in Butler, Friday. Mr. McCardy lately returned from the World's Fair and a visit to his mother in Iowa.

Eliza Wolf came from Washington, where for the past 7 years she has been employed in the Government machine shops, to vote, but was disappointed as she had not been assessed for taxes.

George Bradley, of John Gillespie returned from the Kentucky oil fields last Saturday. They were in the employ of the New Domain, a branch of the Standard Oil Co., and drilled a well across Johnson county.

Ezra Brugh, of the Register & Recorder's office, is back from St. Louis and the Fair looking at least a quarter of a century younger. Some fairly on the Pike rubbed the top of his head with his fingers and the hair fell out, and he is now balding in the middle age to youth and beauty.

Ralph Campbell is home from Fairmont, W. Va., visiting his parents, Cyrus Campbell and wife, after recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever. Ralph, his brother Bert and wife and brother-in-law, Charles Stewart, all had the fever at the same time. Ralph and Bert were in the Fairmont hospital.

Charles Kennedy, the pop man, lives in the Third ward, and it has been his custom for one man to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

At the Court House polls, Tuesday, one man was bound to vote for all the Butler candidates. In the Presidential election columns he marked the names of John H. Negley, W. T. Meachling and Rev. E. R. Worrell, and setting an "Elmer Young" on the Socialist column, voted for him, too.

LEGAL NEWS.

NEW SUITS.

Eveline Walter vs C. E. L. Walter, petition for divorce. The petition sets forth that the parties were married in 1881 and lived together to August 3, 1904, and that Walter during the last two years struck, beat and abused the petitioner, and that she has been subjected to spells of despondency, but was well thought of. He leaves a wife and children.

Paul Clinton of Slippery Rock got 40 shot in one of his legs, a few days ago, that was intended for a rabbit, and is confined to his home.

Mrs. T. M. Compe, formerly of Oil City, was thrown from a buggy on the road, near Butler, last Thursday evening, and almost instantly killed. Mrs. Compe accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Frederick O. Wright, wife of the district foreman of the National Transit Company, on a trip to a farm in Centre County, on a purchase butter and eggs. Near the John S. Campbell farm, two miles north of Butler, their horse took fright at some holes on the roadside and became unmanageable. Both women were thrown out and Mrs. Compe's head struck a tree, fracturing her skull near the base of the brain. A hemorrhage of the lungs ensued and she died in a few minutes. Her husband, Tyler M. Compe, is well known among oil men.

Paul Gillespie, aged about 20 years, a son of John Gillespie of Institute Hill, was burned to death at an oil well near Barrettstown, Washington Co., Pa., last Friday afternoon. The well had just been struck and was flowing with oil and gas, and the oil ran down the hill and took fire from a pile of ashes, and an explosion followed. Paul was caught on the derrick fork, was enveloped in flames, and was badly burned. His companions rescued him. His body was brought home Saturday and was buried with military honors by Co. L., Tuesday, Saturday morning at the Clearfield, aged 45, was badly burned at same time, but will recover.

A special on the "Bessie," carrying some of the officials of the road, side, was burned to death at an oil well near Barrettstown, Washington Co., Pa., last Thursday. The engine and one coach were derailed, and some employees were hurt.

William Jackson, a farmer, of Bethel Hill, after ascending a tree, tied a bag about his neck into which to drop apples. He fell from the tree, and his body, while he was hanging, was cut by the trunk of the tree.

Wm. H. Walker, Levi Boyer and J. J. Barnhart were appointed viewers on petition for divorce, citizens for a new bridge over Glade Run.

G. H. Graham, Robert P. Scott and Wm. Story were appointed viewers on petition for