Washington Notes.

The delegation in Congress from this tate "did themselves proud" last Friay. Nineteen of them assembled in Committee room and resolved to the Townsend-Esch bill, or at east to delay action upon it. Mr. Sibmber, Mr. Huff, is quoted as saying that he believed the creation of a law that placed in the hands of sever men the right to make railroad rates ould ruin the industries of this

As Mrs S. D. Dodds and son were coming from Butler on Monday the horse ran away, overturned the sleigh and left the drivers. A teamster caught the horse and held it until the drivers caught up.

HARRISBURG.

The most noteworthy incident at Harrisburg last week was the lecture revoting for "Farmer" Creasy's resolution endorsing President Roosevelt. That and the action of our delegation at the Hospital, where he died before Vashington is significant.

tain Judges. Rep. Dunsmore's amend ment changing the age limit from 70 to 00 was adopted by a vote of 91 to 72.

In the Senate, Tuesday, a bill was introduced classifying boroughs, and mak ing High Constables Chief of Police at a fixed salary; and a bill appropriating $16,000 to cover the expenses of a brigade of N. G. P. to Washington for the nauguration, passed finally.

WAR NOTES.

Very little news has come from the two great armies, entrenched along the Sakhe river in Manchuria, during the past few days. The details of the last battle; the attack of the Russian right on the Jap. left were fearful. Blood from the wounded froze as it flowed, and they had to be cared for immediate ly: or they died. There were som slight skirmishes, last Sunday; and there are reports of another battle being im ninent but they are hardly true, fighting in zero weather, with the ground frozen solid is too terrible. The Japs again report that the Russians nutilate the dead and wounded. From Russian sources come reports of a disa-greement between Kuropatkin and rippenberg, the latter reporting to the Czar that his attack on the Japleft was not supported. In St. Petersburg and Moscow the promises made by the Czar seem to have averted revolution, but disturbances continue in Poland and Finland In Poland 400,000 men re on a "strike" with daily riots; and in Finland the Russian Procurator-Gen eral was assasinated, Monday. A general demonstration is reported for March 4th, and American and English resi dents are leaving the country. The police are prohibiting gatherings of nore than twenty, even in dining rooms Nearly all the large towns in Russia are under martial law, and several government factories have been burned. Father Gopon is said to be safe in Switzerland.

At 10 a. m., Friday, fire damaged a house on West Penn St. owned by E. K. Maxwell and occupied by Carl. Broman and his mother, to the extent of $300. The fire started under a sink, where some frozen water pipes were being thawed out and ate its way between the siding and the plaster to the roof. At 3:20 last Friday morning, when the thermometers registered 20 degrees At 3:20 last Friday morning, when the thermometers registered 20 degrees below zero, the local Salvation Army Adjutant was taken ill at his home in the Barracks on West Jefferson St. and fainted. His wife threw water on him and shouted, vainly trying to rouse him. The people next door thought she was shouting fire and the man ran out, telephoned in an alarm which called out the fire department, ran to Campbell's restaurant and secured a fire extinguisher with which he hastened to the room where the sick man lay, awaiting a physician. Then he returned in disgust.

The Union U. P. church in Adams twp., about two miles east of Callery, and built in 1839 was destroyed by fire last Sunday afternoon. The Sunday School had just opened when it was noticed that the roof was burning—the fire probably originating from a defective flue. There was a hasty exit of the scholars, and the organ, carpet and nearly all the furniture were saved.

The building was of brick, and was one of the historic church buildings of the county.
