The art of talking well-that is, with ease and intelligently-interesting those who listen and, rarest gift of all, leading them to talk their best in reply, is a natural gift. There is no doubt of this. The gift goes with what we call "personal magnetism." Yet one who has not this can learn to talk pleasantly, fluently and agreeably. First let him talk much to himself, not audibly, but forcing himself to formulate his ideas. What a man thinks clearly he should be able to put into words.

Next let him study what will please those with whom he talks rather than what interests himself. Please note that I say "talks with" and not "to." There is a great-an essential-differ Philip Schaul secured all the merchandise which was offered to the public at auction by the Shloss Bros. just revious to time auctioneer was ready to start the sale. All goods have been moved into our store and arranged on our tables and shelves for a grand HALF-PRICE SALE in conjunction with the mammoth stock which we offer to the public at figures which will astonish the most skeptical shopper. LOOK FOR THE YELLOW FRONT.

To those who want to make a glorious start, our great Half-Price Sale will afford such opportunities as you've never before enjoyed. We have decided to make this sale such a clearance as no former sale has been. We shall sacrifice more goods and cut prices deeper than ever before. Your own knowledge of goods in general, and our goods in particular, will enable you to realize as you read these prices, how determined we must be to make this sale one for you long to remember. The half cannot be told in this space, even though you cannot call it brief.
