H. Kirke Porter of Pittsburg was one of the 17 Congressmen who voted against the Esch-Townsend bill for the regulation of railroad rates. Mr. Porter went to Congress by reason of having bolted from the Republican party. By his vote against legislation of the Republican party and a Republican President, it is apparent that he means to leave Congress under cover of another bolt. Mr. Porter's opposition to laws affecting railroads becomes the more interesting in view of the fact that he is a manufacturer of locomotives—Pittsburg Times.

Simply by talking, a Franklin man whom we know would not cheat the county or anybody else, may have an indictment brought against him by the Grand Jury. Some time ago the gentleman in question bid on a little bridge job out in the country. Shortly afterward he was approached by a representative of a bridge company, who offerred him $25 to know the amount of his bid. This the latter refused to accept and declared he would not change his bid. The price was raised to $50, which was as much as the citizen thought he would make by doing the which was as much as the citizen thought he would make by doing the work. He then decided he would tell the amount of the bid for that sum, which he received and he gave the figures to the representative. He however, handed in his bid without change, but did not get the contract for the work. Thoughtlessly the fellow told several people how he made $50 on bridge work without doing a tap. As a result, he was compelled to tell his story to the Grand Jury.—Franklin News.

Petition in Divorce.
For describin, etc. Z. M. BRYAN. For desertion, etc.

To Z. M. Bryan, respondent:

Two subpoens in the above case having been returned N. E. I., you the said Z. M. Bryan, the above named respondent, are hereby required to appear in said Court of Common Pleas to be held in Butler, Pennsyivania, on Monday, March 27th, 1905, being the fourth Monday of said term, to answer the said complaint of the said libellant, and show cause if any you have, why an absolute divorce from the bonds of matrimony should not be granted to the said Eliza C. Bryan; you are also hereby notified that testimony will be taken in the above case before said Court, on Monday, the 27th day of March, A. D. 1905, at which time and place you are notified to attend, if you see proper.

M. C. THOMPSON, Attorney for Libellant.

Notice.

W. C. THOMPSON, Attorney for Libellant.

WM. H. MILLER,

Notice is hereby given that J. H. Wally, guardian of John Sanderson, a weak-minded person, now deceased, has filed his final account as M. S. D. No. 14, June Term, 1896, book 6, page 282, and that the same will be presented to Court for confirmation on the first Monday of March next.
