Mrs. Edgar A. Hall, president of the council, said: "The idea of dying in the night is horrible, and I never use it."

She submitted this substitute:
Father' we thank the for the night, And for the pleasant morning light;
For rest, and food, and loving care, And all that makes the world so fair.
The council sighed with content when these lines were read. "They are so restful and tranquilizing." said the members.
