

THE BUTLER CITIZEN.

THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1906.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE—All advertisers desiring to make changes in their ads, should notify us at the CITIZEN office, and persons making public sales their note books.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Butler and Kittanning now have telephone connection.

—Don't fret—Spring will come to stay in the sweet by and bye.

—The school receptions of last week and this were well attended.

—The snow storms and frosts of this week injured the early fruit.

—The series of snow storms this week day was something unusual for April.

—"Die Deutscher Liederkreis" is the latest society in Butler. No Irish need apply.

—Sprinkling chloride of lime around where rats come, it is said, will drive them away better than cats or dogs.

—Most ill-health in the Spring is caused by over-eating or over-drinking. Watch weather amounts to half a ration.

—Farmers coming to Butler should leave their dogs at home, unless they take out a license here, put a collar and tag on the dog.

—The strike at the Car Works resulted in some violence, last Friday, and eight men were arrested, one of whom escaped from the constable.

—The ladies of the Grace Lutheran church will hold a bazaar and supper in the Y. M. C. A. hall, Thursday evening, April 27, from 5 to 9. Snapper 25 cents.

—Charles Hoesford now has the hand-some home on N. Main street, but Dr. Shover's house will give it a close call. This Broken Ashler stone work is very pretty.

—The miniature lawn yard in the show window of the Parvis Bros. Pharmacy means that though the little chickens are of their natural colors, they would have been prettier had they been dyed.

—The Alumni Association of the High School met in the High School Chapel, Monday evening, and adopted a constitution. They will banquet and be addressed by Prof. E. Mackey, Friday evening, June 24.

—The last ball season opened last Friday, and at Cincinnati the Pittsburgh club won over the local club by a score of 9 to 4. Pittsburgh, Chicago, New York and Philadelphia were the winners on the opening day.

—A handsome new organ is being installed in the Grace Lutheran church, this week, one-half of the price of which is a present from Andrew Carnegie. It is a handsome instrument and will be ready for use on Sunday. It was purchased through W. A. F. Grohman of Butler.

—Last Saturday was a poor day for "making hay." But few people were in town, and the few candidates who stood about the Court House went indoors occasionally to get warmed. Some of them wish the thing was over, so that they could get at their Spring work. Five weeks more of suspense is a dreary outlook for them.

—On Monday last the Postoffice Department issued a grand order against two Boston concerns, called the Ubers Plantation Co. and the Mexican Coffee and Rubber Co., and it is stated that W. D. Owen, a former M. C. from Indiana and other members of the company, have fled the country. Some Butler people were caught in this fraud.

—The entire force of employees of the American Mirror Works, fourteen in number, on Saturday went to Manager John W. Snell with the request that they be given a new foreman. On his refusing they all struck and say they will remain out until their request is complied with. Manager Snell promises to get new hands. Clement A. Sasse is the foreman.

—The old brick building lately occupied by the Koch brothers at the corner of Main and Mifflin Sts., and which has just been demolished, was built just after the war, or about 40 years ago by Henry Wagner. Jacob Keck was its first tenant, with a stock of furniture, and he paid Wagner $5 a month rent for the whole building. Wagner sold to the Burton brothers, they to Duffy and he to the Koch brothers.

—Don't snub a boy because he wears shabby clothes. When Edward, the vendor, first entered Boston, he wore a pair of linen breeches in the depth of winter. Don't snub a boy because his house is plain and unpretending. Abraham Lincoln's early home was in a log cabin. Don't snub a boy because of the ignorance of his parents. Shakespeare was the son of a man who was not able to write his own name. Don't snub a boy because he chooses a humble position. The author of "Pilgrim's Progress" was a tinker. Don't snub a boy of physical disability. Milton was blind. Don't snub a boy because of delinquency in his lessons. Hagarth, the celebrated painter and engraver, was a stunted boy at his books. Don't snub anybody. Not only because some day he may outstrip you in the race of life, but because it is neither kind nor right, nor Christian like.—EX.

—If the townships of Butler county intend taking advantage of the State Road law, it is perfectly proper and natural that Butler township, from its central position, surrounding the county seat and market town of the county, should lead off—to be followed by the other townships as they come in order. Butler township now has some of the worst roads in the county, their improvement would be a benefit to everybody who comes overland, and the cost to the township would be nothing compared to the increase in the value of the land. Four-sixths of the cost is to be borne by the county, one-sixth by the township—what better could be asked for unless it would be some entirely new roads leading around instead of over the hills. We see no reason why the County Commissioners should not approve of the request of the Supervisors of Butler township, and get the thing started as soon as possible, for if this is not done the county's share of the state's appropriation for roads reverts to the general fund.

Ritter & Rockenstein have 65 men's fifteen and eighteen dollar overcoats to sell for $10.

ACCIDENTS.

By a freight wreck on the Pfabe hill, Sunday, a large steam shovel was smashed and some tracks torn up.

Freight Conductor Taylorson of the B. & P. good between two cars of the Work Train, near Limestone, last Saturday, had both legs cut off, and died at the Bradford Hospital.

Joe McCall and Albert Alderson of Clinton twp. were thrown from the latter's wagon by a runaway horse, last Saturday, and badly injured.

Corney McClafferty, an oil well driller formerly of this county, had an arm torn off at a well in Lower Burnham, East India, some weeks ago.

Dick Cronch and a foot crushed at the E. & O. station in Allegheny, Tuesday. He attempted to board an engine, and missed it.

Mrs. Feighl of Adams twp., aged 82 years, was so badly burned at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Clarke, last Wednesday, that she died a few hours after. She was warming a quilt before a gas fire, when it took fire and in trying to extinguish the flames her own clothing took fire and she inhaled the gases. She was the mother of John and Chas. Feighl and Mrs. John Gilbert and Mrs. John Smith of that vicinity, and grandmother of Mrs. Chas. Ralston of Butler. A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralston lost her life by the burning of the house on the site of the present Clarke home about four years ago.

Lester, son of Philip Nagel of Lancaster twp. had a skull fractured by the kick of a colt, a few days ago.

FIRES.

The Enterprise Mirror Works on C. Cunningham St., formerly the stove factory and owned by Dr. Redie, was damaged by fire, Thursday evening, to the extent of $3000.

Fire was discovered under the stairway of the main building of the Slippery Normal, last Saturday noon, but was extinguished before any great damage was done.

The bakery of an Italian on E. Jefferson street was destroyed by fire, Tuesday evening.

The smoke-house of C. E. Stevenson in Connoquenessing twp., near Hays' farm, was destroyed by fire, with considerable meat.

The explosion of a gasoline stove, last Sunday morning, in the overalls and pants factory of Joseph Stiglitz in Waupaca started a fire that destroyed four buildings and threatened to sweep the entire town, which is without fire protection. The loss is over $20,000, with about $20,000 insurance. The other burned buildings were Abraham Wagner and Joseph Stiglitz's store, H. R. Grenen's business building occupied by F. P. Major.

CHURCH NOTES.

At the First English Lutheran church, last Sunday, a class of twenty was confirmed. There will be services every evening this week, except Saturday. Communion will be observed next Sunday.

Communion services will be held in the Grace Lutheran church, next Sunday, when members will be received and the class confirmed. Preparatory service Friday at 2.30 p. m. Sunday evening the Sunday School will render an Easter program.

The new First Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, located on Sixth avenue, next to the McCarty street, was dedicated last Sunday, and Miss Lucille Roesing of Butler, daughter of Wesley Roesing, is one of the four members of the church choir. The lot on which the church stands was donated by the Penns for church purposes and can be used for no other, though the trustees leased a part of the original lot to Harry Oliver for the store building.
