to give congress and the country some thing more to think about. The ap-pointment of a committee to investigate the business methods of the executive the business methods of the execu departments of the government is significant. The letter of instructions to the chairman of that committee bristles with suggestiveness, though it is dis-tinctly stated there is no purpose to spy upon any part of the government establishment, or to make any charges. The inquiry is simply to determine how the methods of transacting public business may be brought up toward the best standards attained in private business.-Ex.

Peace and War Notes.

On Thursday last Russia and Japan agreed upon Washington as the meet-Ing place for the peace plemipotentiaries. Russia preferr ed The Hague, but Japan refused to go to any point in Europe. The Jap. minister at Washington told President Roosevelt, Monday, that the President Roosevelt, Monday, that the Jap. commissioners could be here by the middle of August, and that informa-tion was given to the Russian ambas-stador.

In St. Petersburg the war party is anxious for Gen. Linevitch to try con-clusions with Marshal Oyama before negotiations for Peace are begun, and it looks as though they would be accom-modated, as the Japs are gradually clos-ing in on the Russians—fighting on both flanks, being reported every day.
Japan's terms for peace are said to be Yory reasonable, but include a guaranty of peace for fifty years.
At the requiem mass at St. Petersburg for the men who perished in the battleship Alexander III, it was stated
