Robert Blumberg, a German, was desirous of becoming a citizen of the United States. He could not answer the questions of the igovernment of this country. When asked if he was aware that this is a republic, his reply was: "The only thing that I know is that I am a good Demonater." The other applicant was an Italian, named Vincent Galli. He went through the quizzing school all right until one of his witnesses was asked if Galli was an anarchist. "He is-sa sura dat," responded the witness. "He is good anarchsta." The Judge dismissed both the Italian and the German, and thus two potential citizens were lost to the Nation.
