GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury made its final presentment, Saturday, in which they stated they acted on 28 indictments, finding 14 true bills and ignoring 14. County bridges were recommended over Breakneck creek in Adams twp; over Gladernn near McFann; over Muddycreek; over Slipperyrock creek in Cherry twp, at the McMurray bridge, and over Thorn creek in Jefferson twp. The jury said they found need of renovation and repair nearly everywhere in the jail and Court House; that the Court House roof was evidently leaking; that some building stone obstructed the Court House sidewalk; that the Prothonotary's office needed more files; that the County Superintendent needed a more convenient office; the replacing of the Park seats was recommended; the County Home was found in good condition and well conducted, a hospital department was recommended for the Home; and the enforcement of the law requiring supervisors to remove
