

THE BUTLER CITIZEN.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1905.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE—All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads should notify us of their intention to do so not later than Monday morning.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Any color so its red.
—Alas, the poor Turk!
—We are not fashionable this fall.

—We go to press a day earlier than usual this week, on account of Thanksgiving Day.

—The fog of last Thursday night put out all the street lights, excepting the one you were standing under.

—The red flag is up in Russia; and the Sultan is thinking of putting up the green, or holy war, flag in Turkey.

—Citizens of West Wayne street will petition for the paving of that thoroughfare at the next meeting of Council.

—A drunken Slav, employed on the new trolley line, rode from Allegheny to Butler, last Saturday evening, on top of a passenger car.

—A Canadian member of Parliament has been unseated in the House of Commons for hiring conveyances to take voters to the polls.

—The residents of North Butler are kicking on a storage of dynamite nearby. The "Bessie" is preparing to widen its track around the hill, and the dynamite is intended for blasting purposes.

—The work of laying the track for the trolley was resumed at Marx, Monday, and D. J. Roberts drove the first spike. In Butler the concrete piers for the long viaduct over the railroad tracks are being built.

—The barn of Sherman C. Humphrey, on his farm in North W. twp., near Jacksonville, was destroyed by fire with all its contents—two horses, fifteen head of cattle, farm machinery, hay, grain, etc.—Monday night.

—A clergyman who resigned his pastorate to take up the practice of law at Allegheny, has recently been changed to keep out of jail for one day than he would pay to be kept out of hell for eternity.

—The late decision of the Superior Court allowing the Sheriff of the state to take in taking prisoners to the penitentiary, all expenses, will be quite a nice thing for the Sheriff.

—Five hundred citizens of Allegheny have petitioned the County Commissioners to condemn and build the bridges between that town and Pittsburgh, and make them free.

—Some slight changes have been made on the P. R. schedule. Trains leave Butler and also Allegheny and Pittsburgh for Butler at the same times, but they do not run on exactly the same schedule, and there are some changes on the main line, and Allegheny division.

—The foot ball game between the teams of Yale and Harvard colleges at Cambridge, Mass., was the leading event of the Sunday papers. Harvard lost to Yale by an eyelash, and won a "sober defeat." The Blues scored by a solitary kick. There was a record breaking crowd, etc. Yale 6, Harvard 0.

—With Thanksgiving not yet over, it may seem somewhat early to speak of Christmas shopping, that necessary preliminary to the season known as "the great annual swap," but it is really not a bit too soon for the beginning of its important and by no means unpleasant duty. Considerations of prudence, in view of the inevitable rush which will set in two or three weeks later, should impel shoppers to early action, but there are additional reasons why the matter should not be delayed. All the buying of presents which can be done now as well as later should take place in order to lighten the burdens of the store employees. Despite the additional help employed by the shops during the last two weeks of the Christmas rush, the energies of each individual clerk are strained to the utmost. A little unselfish planning now on the part of patrons will appreciably alleviate the Christmas week troubles of the men and women behind the counter.—Ex.

LEGAL NOTES.

NEW SUITS.
H. C. Litzinger and Mary Litzinger vs. Edward O'Donnell, bill in equity, filed in the court of common pleas, at Butler, Pa., on the 23rd inst., for restraining from operating a bowling alley on a lot adjoining the Litzinger residence in Millintown, while the plaintiff's claim is kept open day and night, making great deal of noise, and working special injury to Mrs. Litzinger who is an invalid. Litzingers state they offered O'Donnell $1000 if he would not locate the bowling alley where he did. A summary judgment was granted and final hearing fixed for Dec. 3.

Mrs. Katharine Pfeifer vs. E. & O. R. R. Co., bill in equity filed by defendant company to indemnify the plaintiff for loss of her baggage, $1000, on the 23rd inst. Mrs. Ellen Elliott vs. E. & O. R. R. Co., bill in equity filed by the railroad company to indemnify Mrs. Elliott for loss of her baggage, $1000, on the 23rd inst.

Wm. L. Ballis vs. Southern Oil Co., assumpsit for $375.54. Ballis claims the defendant company induced him to move from Parker twp. to the Camp farm in Fairview twp. to pump for them, and to repair a brick house on the Campbell farm at an expense of $190, the defendant company refused to pay for the same, and he has lost four months' time and the $190 repairs, which with interest from Dec. 1, 1904, amounts to $375.54.

George White of Quarry St. was placed in jail, Tuesday night, on a charge of felonious assault and surety bond, for crossing the tracks of the E. & O. at the mouth of the Glade Run tunnel to reach another school, and that the school had been maintained for 14 years past and should be continued, and that the directors have been negligent in not providing adequate facilities for the school. Following the report of D. Brandon, for the citizens agitating the matter, had a rule granted, on the 23rd inst. to show cause why they should not be removed from office. The judge returned the first Monday of December.

By report of viewers filed a new bridge is recommended over the north branch of Slippery Rock creek on the Harvillville road, in Mercer twp.

Beef and Iron Wine.

Extract of Beef, Citrate of Iron and Sherry Wine.
This preparation is famous as a system builder and general tonic. Our preparation differs from all others of the same name, because we use predigested beef, the best sherry wine, and the iron in such form that it is quickly taken into the system. It is pleasant to take and prompt in action, making rich, red blood.

Do You Require a Tonic?
Are you weak, worn out, run down and nervous? Is your blood thin and impure? Are you pale and haggard, like white? Do you become exhausted from very little effort, your sleep restless, your appetite poor? If you have any of these symptoms use our Beef and Iron Wine.

How's Your Towel Supply?

Towels have a curious way of getting lost—where they go to is an unanswerable problem. But towels there must be and good housewives appreciate a plentiful supply.

We are just at this moment ready to supply the towel want at mighty reasonable prices. As a general rule prices on this class of merchandise remain about the same from season to season—no more, or less. But this occasion is an exception and as such you should realize. Here are the prices:

Good hook towels, 17 by 33 in., at 10c each.
All linen hook towels, 16 by 32 in., worth 20c at 15c.
Extra fine and large hook towels, 30 by 40 in., worth 35c at 30c.
Turkish towels, special values at 5c, 7c, 10c, 15c.
Fine damask towels, two specials at 25c and 50c.

THE Thanksgiving Dinner.
Wouldn't a new table cloth and a set of napkins add a great deal to the enjoyment of the feast?
