THE NEW YEAR

Years are pretty much alike as they come and go, but it is good for mankind that they come so far apart...

Court House Notes

It cost about $92,000 to run the county last year and $93,000 to run the County Home and provide for the insane and other helpless people of the county.

Accidents

A young stranger who bought a B. & O. P. ticket to Montreal, last Wednesday in Butler, stepped on the train at Silver Springs, N. Y. and shot himself through the head.

Accidents

A. J. Buchanan of Mercer town fell from a bridge into the Beaver river, a few days ago, and was not seriously injured.

Accidents

John Summerville of Worthington, fell from a building and was so badly hurt that he died last Friday.

Accidents

Arthur Hovis, formerly of Butler, was badly hurt by a fall from a car, last week, and was taken to the Hospital.

Accidents

James Quigley, a switchman at the Car Works, fell upon the track and had one arm cut off.

Accidents

The Car Works here doesn't furnish all the fatal accidents. An Italian was killed by a car, a few days ago.

Accidents

A young man named Campbell was caught in the machinery of the flour mill at Parkers Landing, Tuesday morning, and crushed to death.

Accidents

Joe Daugherty, Jr., a brakeman on the P. R. R. got a foot crushed in the Allegheny yards, a few days ago, while being carried for at the Allegheny General.

Accidents

Thomas Porter of W. Clay St. stepped into a pan of hot water, Saturday evening, in his home, and had his foot so badly scalded that the skin peeled off when the woolen sock was removed.

Accidents

A team belonging to Geo. Berkheimer of Newark twp., left standing at Walters' mill, Saturday afternoon, took fright and ran away.

Accidents

Victor O. B. Wise of W. North St., a yard conductor of the Car Works, was instantly killed New Year's morning by the fall of some steel beams upon him.

Accidents

Henry Knecht, a coal miner near Ferris, Venango twp., was found hanging, dead, to a tree near his home, last Friday morning and frozen stiff.

Accidents

The new elected County Council were sworn in last Monday morning, and took possession of their offices.
