—The Armstrong county court granted two wholesale and four retail licenses at Parkersburg.
—The School Superintendents of the State, in convention at Altoona, resulted in favor of pensioning the aged teachers.
—Eleven members of the family of Calvin Stephenson of Little Connoquenessing were sick in bed with measles, last week.
—The snappers for the new trolley are surveying around the Fair Grounds and down into the Sullivan run valley, this week.
—The Maccaebas have purchased a 90-acre farm in Berks county for $13,298.90 or $183.25 per acre, and will build a home on it.
—The measuring-worm is due to appear this year according to the State Zoologist, so have your spraying cans and paris-green ready.
—The sugar-snow made the trees look pretty. It was the heaviest of the winter. Spring begins next week sometime, according to the almanac.
—Percy Starr, a farmer of Rayburn township, Armstrong county, found a hollow log filled with opossums, last Saturday. He pulled out and killed 13.
—If the Plank Road Co. will take eight or ten thousand dollars for their road in this county, the wonder is that some trolley company does not buy it.
—M. F. Shaner succeeded to the Insurance and Real Estate business of W. H. Miller, and has opened his office at 508 Butler County National Bank building.
—Last Saturday was a pay-day, and Italy took possession of the P. O. Monday morning. Several thousand dollars started from this town to Europe, that day.
—The Ideal Clothing Parlors changed hands, last week, and are now in charge of Chauncey Thompson. Some dandy new spring suits have lately been received.
—Sheriff Ayres of Lawrence county has received over 600 requests for permits to witness the execution of Frank Johnson on March 19. The sheriff says he will only grant 25 permits.
—The Butler Independents were defeated by the South Side team at Pittsburg, Saturday night, 25 to 14. At Evans City the home team defeated the Sharpshooter team 68 to 4.
—A beauty doctor has published an article on "How to reduce the size of the nose." The best treatment for this nose is to keep it out of other people's affairs. This applies to both sexes.
—D. L. Cleeland was acquitted of stealing C. N. Boyd's Plymouth Rock rooster, but was ordered to return the bird, at the trial in the Majestic theatre, Tuesday evening. The Y. M. C. A. made about $100 out of the show.
—Patterson Bros., the former dealers in wall paper, have purchased the Brown & Co. furniture store at corner Main and Millin Sts. and have ordered a new stock. Their many friends wish them success in their new venture.
—A servant girl in Pennsylvania, who was slicing potatoes for dinner, found one that contained a pearl worth $40. Now it is expected that a load demand will go up to Secretary Wilson for seed potatoes of the pearl-bearing variety.
—Lake men are of the opinion that navigation will open the last week in March or the first week in April. The winter has been a mild one and as a result there is not much ice in the lakes. Reports from upper lake ports say that the ice is breaking up very fast.
—The Ohio two-cent fare law went into effect last Saturday evening, and night all railroads operating in Ohio began the sale of tickets at the new rate. All special rates were abolished. All circulars of instructions announced that pending further instructions old tariffs shall govern for interstate business.

—The Town Council voted each member a telephone, at $10 per year for 15 months or $225 per year for all, and their action met with a storm of disapproval. Some years ago the Council of that time voted away all the streets of the town for trolley purposes for next to nothing, and nothing was said about it, excepting by a few; and if you follow on back for twenty years you will see that nearly all the franchises being taken to the borough have been given away—franchises worth hundreds of thousands of dollars—with protest by but a few people. Men who are making a fuss over this little, open public "steal" or "grat" or whatever you may call it, would serve on the Council for $10 a month with a free telephone thrown in.

Letter to Schaul & Levy, Butler, Pa.
Dear Sirs: When you say a well-dressed man, you like to see "There's a sample of the man that man can't work two of himself as he was when he came to me.
We have the same feeling. Our paint on a house is worth twice as much as old-fashioned painter's paint, lead-and-oil. It looks the same when first put on. In three months it don't. In three years it is decidedly done.
Lead-and-oil chinks off in three years; it is considered a first-rate job that lasts three years.
Devote lead-and-oil is about as good as any paint you can buy. It is the day the painter left it.
Zinc is the secret of it; no secret at all. A good many painters know zinc; some mix it in with their lead. We grind it in; not a little; good deal.
It is the zinc and the grinding that does it. You can't mix zinc by hand. We grind it in by machinery.
Painters are finding us out, though some painters are slow.
You know that it pays a good man to wear good clothes. How many customers have you that know it?
F. W. DEVOE & CO.
P. S. The Butler Decorating Co. sells our paint.

He was taken to jail shortly after, raving about a strange woman clinging to him, and is there yet.
