LOCAL AND GENERAL.

TERMS: $1.50 Per Year. If paid in advance, 1.00 " Each subscriber, by consulting the title tab on his paper, can tell the date to which his subscription is paid.

—This is flag day. —June is day on legal holidays. —This is School Day at the Park. —The country is beautiful just now. —Next Thursday will be the longest day.

—Phillips & Co.'s new electric sign is a beauty. —Our flag was adopted 100 years ago, June 14, 1777. —Greater Pittsburg will be the 6th city in the union.

—Butler Schools will have sixty-nine teachers, next winter. —Wool is bringing in the neighborhood of 30 cents per pound. —We are now enjoying one of the most pleasant months on the year.

—The colored gentlemen who secured the job, are catching dogs these days. —Our local industries are all in operation, and times locally are very good. —To the farmer and gardener—tickle the earth with a hoe and make things grow.

—The outlook for a heavy fruit crop, of all kinds, in the county, is said to be bright. —The Western Allegheny is to have passenger trains running in about a month. —Gasoline engines can use alcohol instead of gasoline with no material change.

—Fine home-grown strawberries are in market this week. The crop is said to be good. —Two teamsters were fined ten dollars each, Monday, for not taking out licenses. —Laws about town present a beautiful appearance since the rains freshened up the grass.

—A local grocer, recently married, inserted the following adv. in a paper: "Wanted, a boy." —George Mardorf has moved his repair shop to the old postoffice building, next door to Ely's book store.

—According to a Chicago physician strawberries cause insanity. We have observed the crazy for them. —Walking on the railroad tracks is always dangerous, as was again illustrated at Gallery, last Saturday night. —The newest shirt-waist, said to be a bunch of holes surrounded by embroidery, is called the "Swiss Cheese."

—The farmers of Clinton, Jefferson and adjoining townships are now shipping milk to East Pittsburg on the "Bessie." —The trans-Atlantic steamships have become so infested with gamblers that all the companies have had to post warnings against them. —It is an ill-wind that blows nobody good—the Car Works was full of water last Thursday, and the bar-room was full of car workers.

—A city woman who took the "silence cure" for her nervous colic in a rash but her husband who suffered from headache, recovered. —Grass and fall grain in this section look good, but corn, oats, potatoes, etc., were badly washed out in many places by the late heavy rains. —Iron beams in a porch roof is a novelty for Butler. John S. Campbell uses them in his new front porch, to support a new second-story bay window.

—In Washington county, last week, a girl was saved from a mad dog by a cow, which charged the dog, tossed it with her horns and trampled it to death. —Fishermen claim that Lake Erie has become a vast breeding ground for the obnoxious German carp and in a few years all the food fish may be killed out. —On Saturday last, by a vote of 14 to 8, the Grand Jury of Butler county agreed to the plans for remodeling the Court House—the cost not to exceed $45,000.

—Railroad officials who saved $75,000 a year on a salary of $130 a month, exhibited the same "remarkable economy" possessed by a late State Senator from Crawford county. —Even in England they have their beef scandals that make veterinarians a butcher in Farrington road, London, advertises: "Wanted, a respectable boy for beef packages." —During a row between the Italians and Turks working on the new trolley near Bakerstown, Monday, an Italian shot and killed a Turk named Rustem Semer and wounded one named Eusef Feto. —The vaccination act has been declared constitutional, and Chief Justice Mitchell in handing down his opinion also stated that the teacher has a right to send home all unvaccinated pupils, and should do so.

—Benson creek, Kentucky, was full of fish, last week, but is not so now. Fifteen thousand gallons of whiskey, from a collapsed warehouse, ran into it; the fish got drunk and the people drank them out and took them home by the basketful. —The dates set for the musical concerts and recitals by the Davies of Pittsburg are as follows: Saxton Station M. E. church, Thursday, June 28; Fisk M. E. church, Friday, June 29. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Epworth leagues at these points. —A man named Spicher slipped up to a man named Spicher, Thursday evening, and swatted him in the face with a heavy boot—and Spicher sank unconscious to the side walk with a bad wound above his eye. Spicher was arrested and fined by the Burgess for disorderly conduct and was again arrested by the County Detective, but he settled the matter with Spicher by paying $125 and costs.

A Difference in Dollars isn't the first thing to be considered in buying a piano. There is more than just money value in musical quality. The BEHR Piano would be a good investment at twice its cost. Real wear, worth, durability and distinctiveness, — these are essentially BEHR qualities. To be sure, call and examine. W. B. McCANDLESS, W. R. F. D. 45, Euclid, Pa.
