

THE BUTLER CITIZEN.

THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1906.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE—All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads should notify us of their intention to do so not later than Monday morning.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

TERMS: ... $1.50 Per Year

Each subscriber, by consulting the little tab on his paper, can tell the date to which his subscription is paid.

No Paper Next Week.

This office will be closed next week, and no paper will be issued from it.

—1776-1906.

—Come to Butler for the Fourth.

—Next Wednesday is the Glorious.

—Dance at Enclid, tomorrow evening.

—Is extortion being practiced in Lyndora?

—The floods left some deep holes in the creek.

—This is Donation Day at the Zellen-orphan home.

—The picnic at the Park, yesterday, was the biggest ever.

—The Valvulin Oil Works at E.

Butler, are taking shape.

—The Spanish-War veterans will reunite at DuBois, July 27-28.

—The township school boards are offering $10 and $45 per month.

—The hot bath cure for spinal meningitis is the only one yet known.

—This fireman promises a good time to all who come to Butler for the 4th.

—Old fashioned 4th of July celebrations all around, and races at the lake.

—The Court House will be closed Saturday afternoons during July and August.

—The exposures in the meat-packing business ought to encourage home production.

—The Duxton farm in Middlesex is reported to have changed hands for $30,000.

—The ball-teams and several hundred common people went to the lake, yesterday.

—The Power House of the P. H. N. C.

& B. trolley line will be located at Evans City.

—Two important Japanese gentlemen, inspected the Plate Glass works in Butler yesterday.

—Three games of ball and several of tennis, on the 4th, besides the parade and fireworks.

—There will be a special Council meeting, this evening, to open revised bids on paving.

—If your kid is wounded, next week wash the wound in hot water, and then send for the doctor.

—Lightning struck the new Court House at Greensburg, last Friday, and damaged the dome.

—An eighteen-pound turtle, left, by the flood, was caught on the ball grounds, last week.

—The buy-at-home business policy is sound, especially when your home merchants sell just as cheap.

—The latest fad is the conundrum supper. You are required to guess what you are eating.—Ex.

—Dairymen are being advised to sow a few acres in corn for fall feeding, also to sow their fresh cows now.

—The Car Works Auditors have a ball team that have beaten the merchants, lawyers and printers.

—A good way to strengthen the integration is to acquire a piece of real estate and then offer it for sale.

—A series of hall storms have injured the crops of Berks and Lehigh counties. Hall to the depth of from 5 to 8 inches fell last Saturday.

—Hereafter young men and women caught swimming in the Slippercock, near Muddybrook Falls, will be arrested—particularly on Sunday.

—Butler, West Sunbury, Farmington and perhaps other towns in the county that we have not heard of, will have 4th of July celebrations.

—Last Thursday and Friday were the longest days of the year, and if you planted your cucumber seed on those days no matter what variety of seed, the product is liable to be a foot long.

—A fifty-eight pound sturgeon was caught in the river at Allegheny last Saturday. The sturgeon comes up from the sea and has been caught in the Allegheny as far north as the mouth of the Clarion.

—All the bids handed in at Council meeting, last Thursday night, for pav-

PERSONAL.

King Kelly couldn't run.

Elmer Timblin of Concord was a Friday visitor.

Mrs. Cal Logan of Jefferson twp. was in town, Friday.

President Roosevelt has announced his intention of going to Panama, this month.

Dr. Boyle purchased the Dr. Bricker property on N. McKean St. last week, for $800.

D. L. Hutchinson and wife of Washington twp. did some shopping in Butler, Friday.

E. B. Lyon and sister of Las Cruces,

New Mexico, are visiting relatives in this county.

Thomas Lyon, wife and daughter visited Mrs. Lyon's folks in Brady's Bend, over Sunday.

Rev. Ferguson has been nominated for Congress by the Prohibits of Lawrence county.

Carl Cronenwett's children are afflicted with diphtheria, and his wife has a spread ankle.

Benben Shanor of Prospect was in town, last week, and some one mistook him for Greeley.

Geo. Flays of Duquesne Heights, for most of Middlesex twp. visited relatives in Butler, last week.

Mrs. Julia Strong of Cincinnati was the guest of her mother, Mrs.

Louis Stein, for sometime.

Dr. J. C. Foster, ophthalmic, has associated himself with his mother, Dr.

Julia A. Foster, in practice.

Misses Mary Miller and May McCon-nelly were delegates to the Sunday School convention at Harmony, this week.

Mrs. Alfred Aggas is the guest of Mr.

and Mrs. Alex Pollock of Centre twp.

Mrs. Aggas has returned from a trip to the west.

Rev. Adam Schweinsburg of Wheeling visited his mother in Centre twp., over Sunday. He attended Synod at Erie, last week.

Mrs. Geo. A. Hill and Mrs. Wm.

Patterson of Karns City, and Miss Cora Kiefer of Taylor did some shopping in Butler, Tuesday.

W. H. Larkin is tearing down the old

Donaghy-Wilson-Mitchell house on N.

Main St., preparatory to building a modern mansion.

Benjamin Eisenberry of Cherry twp. visited his daughters, Mrs. Dickey and Mrs. Ball in Butler, yesterday, and took in the picnic.

Senator Morgan of Alabama was 83 years of age, last Wednesday, and crossed the Select Bench in favor of a sea-level canal, that day.

H. H. Halstead and John B. Cunningsham of Clinton twp., and Mr. Harvey, a daughter of Mr. Cunningsham were in town on business, Monday.

Eph Campbell of Butler, son of Hovey

Campbell, dec'd, lately graduated from a Philadelphia Medical College, and he will locate in a western town.

Mrs. Julian Clark and daughter, Margaret, and son, Edwin, had a delightful one day last week at the home of Mrs. Alex Pollock of Centre twp.

Miss Manda Hays and Dr. J. V.

Cowden were married at the bride's home yesterday noon, and left that evening for an extended wedding trip.

Joseph Franklin's mansion at the corner of E. Penn and Elm Sts., is one of the grandest in Butler. If you haven't seen it you want to walk over that way.

Archibald Davidson became Tax Collector of Butler, last week, and will continue in the office in the Odd Fellows building, with Ed. McShane as assistant.

Park Brymer is visiting friends in Butler, and has an arm off. He lost it by an accident in the yard at Jersey City, last month, and now has a job in the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Johnston of Ziegler Ave. are rejoicing over their first born, which arrived last week and Davis Smith is duly proud of being a great-grandpa.

Frederick Ebert of Clinton twp., near Saxenburg, has been in the best of health for a year or two, but he is getting better and we hope to again see his honest face soon.

Mary Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Miller, very pleasantly entertained a number of her young friends with a party at her home on Franklin St., Monday evening.

Mr. Van Behan of Cape Town, South Africa, visited Chas. Troutman over Sunday. He and Troutman were classmates at Lehigh University, and he intends remaining in this country.

Miss Edna Caldwell, daughter of LEGAL NEWS.

NEW SUITS.

E. E. Abrams and C. N. Boyd vs

Anna D. and Wm. Leary, ejectment to settle boundary line between properties on East Diamond.

Ann E. Christy vs Mina and George

Fredley, summons in trespass.

J. M. Vogelsy vs Jacob Hetzel, ejectment for a frame meat market building on Locust St. Hetzel failed to pay rent as tenant, and confessed judgment for the rent.

Al Zeigler vs Gilbert Hooks, trespass for $10,000 for damages for slander.

Zeigler is a hardware merchant in Mars and was formerly school director. He alleges that Hooks said "Al Zeigler stole enough money from the Mars School Board to build his brick building, and I can prove it."

J. H. Stone vs W. J. Burke, assumpsit for $504.72. Stone states that while he was living at Warren, O., Burke induced him to move to the latter's farm near Calvary, promising him a long terms of removal and other "fines and fees" and a preliminary agreement was signed and afterwards Burke prepared another agreement calling for a two-year term which Stone signed without reading or understanding. He was warned off by Burke prior to Jan. 1, 1906, and now sues for breach of contract.

NOTES.

When criminal court opened in Kittingham, last Friday, a sealed verdict returned by a jury in the afternoon was that it had been found that W. B.

Wannamaker, a Pennsylvania railroad detective, and Conny Detective A.

K. Keller had been found guilty of assault and battery and aggravated assault and battery. This is the sequel to the case which was tried in the court being dragged through the courts. Ira Butler, a Leeburg furniture dealer, was charging a constable with conspicitor's goods. Wannamaker being the prosecutor. At the late session of court E. E. Abrams and C. N. Boyd were found guilty of influencing that grand jury in favor of Butler. Butler himself has been found guilty of obstructing justice. Wannamaker and Keller have been convicted of assaulting Butler while arresting him.

In the U. S. District Court in Kansas City, last Friday, the four big meat packing companies of that town and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company were sentenced to pay a fine of $15,000 each for violation of the Federal law against taking and giving rebates. At the same time a New York broker and his clerk were sentenced to pay considerable fines and to be imprisoned for securing rebates. The cases were tried at the instance of higher courts, but Judge McPherson did his part toward making the law as it