A trip over the big Bessemer railroad and a day spent in Erie city seeing its many interesting places is worth several times the fare for this trip.

The ninth annual United Presbyterian Reunion will be held at Conneaut Lake, on Thursday, August 9, 1906. No other denomination or order in the United States brings together such a vast assemblage of people as does this reunion. One hundred and twenty-six thousand persons have attended the reunion in the past. The special train service covers all of Western Pennsylvania, where the denomination is the States brings together such a vast assemblage of people as does this reunion. One hundred and twenty-six thousand persons have attended the reunion in the past. The special trains regular and special, will be used to transport the excursionists to the park. The demand for the reunion this year is greater than ever before, and present indications point to a very large attendance. When one considers the natural beauty of Conneaut Lake, the many facilities afforded at the park for amusement and entertainment, the excellent order which is maintained, and the very low rates which are secured, it is no wonder that so many thousands of the United Presbyterians and their friends make the annual pill grimage to Conneaut Lake.
