The company presented a "cut and dried" ordinance, offering to pave the avenue seventeen feet wide for the privilege; but Mr. Hays objected and offered to pave the entire street for the franchise, and Mr. Christley stated that he believed the franchise to be worth $50,000, so the matter was held over.

John Allison and wife of Worth twp. have gone to Anaconda, Mont., where he will be principal of the schools.

Clarence Hagan of Pittsburg bet on the wrong base ball team, and had to whitewash five bushels of lump coal.

Lee Eyth of Eyth Bros. is an artist. He captured the $25 prize lately offered for the best trimmed show window in Butler.

John N. Johnston of Clay twp. was in town for Labor Day. "Romeo" has taken to farming, is brown as a berry, and is doing well.

E. E. Cochran of Hickory, Washington county, son of A. F. Cochran of Concord twp., was home for his sister's wedding, yesterday.

Jacob Reiber of West North St. returned from an extended visit with relatives in Philadelphia, New York and Boston, last Friday.

Miss Irene Bartholomew, daughter of Rev. Bartholomew, and Clayton Critchlow, both of Prospect, were married in York state, Monday.

R. H. Boggs and wife of Allegheny and their friends Mr. and Miss Elliott lately passed through Evans City on an automobile trip to the Buhl homestead.

Prof. Ferdinand Kelly of Kittanning received notice, last week, that he had been elected principal of public schools of Evans City at a salary of $90 per month.

Prof. A. J. Bowser, wife and two daughters attended the Bowser reunion near Walk Chalk, last week. 2000 Bowsers were present, Armstrong county is full of them.

Frank Pfabe was in town on business, Thursday. His mother intends selling the farm in Clinton twp. and will have a sale of personal property on Wednesday, the 19th.

Secretary Root and party arrived in Chili, last Friday. They had a great time getting through the straits of Magellan—storms and fogs making the passage unusually interesting.

R. P. Scott was elected one of the Vice Presidents and W. A. Lowry, Secretary of the 78th at their late reunion at Lenape Park, near Kittanning. About eighty of the "old boys" were present, and they will meet in Butler, next year.

W. H. Lusk and son returned, last week, from their trip to the lake region of Canada. That part of the country for a hundred miles north of Toronto is pretty good, and then you come to a section consisting of lakes, hills, pine trees and stones, with no good land. It is good for hunting and fishing and also for skinning American (U. S.) tourists.

P. O. Stensland, the defaulting bank president of Chicago, was arrested in Tangier, Morocco, Monday. It was ascertained that Stensland had fled from Chicago on July 13, gone directly to New York, and sailed on a steamer of the White Star line for Liverpool. He remained in that city for two days, and then took a steamer for Gibraltar, which he reached on July 17. From there he took a boat for Tangier. An effort is being made to secure a U. S. warship to bring him home, as was done in the case of Tweed, because we have no extradition treaty with Morocco and if he should be surrendered, it is the opinion of officials of the state department that it would not be safe to bring him to this country as a passenger on a merchant vessel.

A merchantman would probably stop at ports of Spain, Portugal or France, and in any one of these Stensland might made demands for protection on the ground that he was being taken to the United States without warrant recognized by international law.

—The East Penn St. grade has now been established and the paving will be completed. It will be of asphalt block.

—The Grossmans and their relatives and friends, to the number of about four hundred, assembled on the James Grossman farm in Cherry twp., near North Hope, Tuesday, and made merry. An elegant lunch was served under the trees, and after that Grant Grossman was selected to preside, and remarks were made by several present, including Robert Grossman, John Wilson, Wm. Findley, Madge Grossman and others, and the day was very pleasantly spent.

—"Only one thing has been overlooked in the requirements of a voter under the personal registration plan," remarked a leading Prohib. of Pittsburg, the other night. "He ought to be qualified," the speaker continued, "to the number of baths he takes in a year, and if it be found that he has taken less than 52 he should be disfranchised without mercy. Some should be compelled to take 365 and then be sprayed with rosewater before they are allowed to enter the polls."

—Members of the Buffalo Township Vigilance Committee, with their wives, to the number of about thirty, met at Commissioner Easley's home in Buffalo twp., Monday evening, attended to the business of the organization, and then had lunch and music, and passed a pleasant evening. The organization has been in existence for about ten years, and in that time has sent four men to the penitentiary for stealing. When a theft is committed in that neighborhood a member is detailed to hunt down the thief at the expense of the organization, and it has plenty of money in its treasury to keep up the good work.

—Fred Derrick and Ella Bradna, two clever riders with the Barnum & Bailey circus, are credited with presenting a carrying act of extraordinary effectiveness with the big show this season. In this act the young woman sustains her agile partner, who executes somersaults from her shoulders to the back of the swiftly-running horse, and performs other feats of a daring nature. Miss Bradna is a Swiss rider, whose feats of equestrianism in long gowns have hitherto attracted attention. Mr. Derrick is an American horseman and acrobat of reputation.

PAVING DECISION.

Judge Galbreath on Monday gave an opinion sustaining the exceptions of the Town Council to the last Borough Auditors' Report, surcharging the Council with $440 on the paving of Race St.; $825.44 on the paving of Mercer St; $2254.[illegible] on the paving of Fairview Ave. and $[illegible] on the paving of Ziegler Ave. These amounts represented rebates allowed to property holders on these streets on their paving assessments. The streets were occupied by the Butler Passenger Ry. Co. They were paved on contracts let by the Council, the Street Car Co. gave the Borough checks for the cost of paving between the tracks and one foot on each side. This amount was deducted from the total cost of paving, and the borough paid one-third of the balance and the property holders the remainder in their proportionate shares. The auditors held that the council had no right to give the property holders the benefit of the amounts paid by the Street Car Co. and therefore made the surcharges. The Council then filed exceptions. Judge Galbreath held that if the Street Car Co. had paid all the cost, the property holders would have been entitled to the benefit and therefore were entitled to the benefit of a payment of part of the costs.

In the case of Walter Wimer vs Western Allegheny R. R. Co. the defts. motion for a new trial was refused. The viewers in the case awarded Wimer $1100, on the appeal to Court the jury awarded him $1000, and the railroad company was not satisfied, claiming this was too much because they had built a dam, laid a water line and made a water trough to replace a spring they had taken from Wimer. The Court ruled this action was not binding against Wimer because he had not agreed to it.

On petition of the P. & W. Ry. Co. a rule was granted on Mrs. Ellen Elliott to show cause why a judgment of $275 in her favor and against the railroad should not be paid into court and marked satisfied.

An Allegheny county jury will have a funny question to decide, soon. An Allegheny City dentist refused to pay for his wife's cork leg, bought before his marriage to her. Letter to J W Haworth, Butler, Pa.

Dear Sir: A man fed his hens half meal and half sawdust; he thought they wouldn't know the difference. He concluded they did when the eggs hatched woodpeckers.

Another man painted his house with a paint that was made of half paint-substitutes. He didn't know the difference—not till he paid the painter.

He had 20 gallons to pay for, 20 instead of 10. Got fooled $12.50 on the paint.

He had 20 days' wages to pay for, 20 instead of 10. Fooled $20 in wages.

He got a poor job besides. He paid too much for his eggs, and they hatched woodpeckers.

Yours truly

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

The Arrival of Kitty—Sept. 7th.

Miss Florence Forrest, who enacts the character of Jane in the comedy surprise "The Arrival of Kitty" is most favorably known in this city from her former visits with the following attractions: "Fantana," "The Chinese Honeymoon," and "Piff! Paff! Pouf!" and no doubt her legion of friends will give her an ovation and a royal welcome on her appearance in this city.

Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00.

A Crown of Thorns—Sept. 8th.

There is too much pathos and sentiment in real life and often too much of the tragic, consequently a play that contains thrills and surprises that are naturally conceived and coherently illustrated and possessing an abundance of wholesome comedy and a grateful absence of stage horrors in the tragic and pathetic lines is more eagerly sought after by the more intelligent class of playgoers. "A Crown of Thorns" the comedy drama that is billed to appear at Majestic Theatre, Saturday, matinee and night, September 8th, is free from all the stereotyped melodramas that are fast tiring the up-to-date playgoer. "A Crown of Thorns" is staged with a powerful company and staged in an elaborate frame of scenic embellishment.

Prices, matinee 15c, 25c, 50c; night 25c, 50c, 75c.

Grahame's Co.—All Next Week.

A splendid company of prominent players, supporting Ferdinand Grahame and Miss Lillian Dean, who will be remembered in the leading characters with the Klark-Urban Co., last season, will present Mr. Grahame's own new and remarkably successful comedy drama "The Black Sheep" at the Majestic Theatre next Monday night, when they open their weeks engagement in this city, the same well known artists who have appeared in it all over the country, will be seen in it here. "The Black Sheep" is said to abound in intense situations, epigrammatic dialogue and remarkably original climaxes, the play, as well as all others in the repertoire, has been staged in perfect harmony with that portion of every day life that it represents. A coterie of specialty artists, new to the repertoire world introduce a big high class vaudiville melange, between the acts, and at every performance.

Prices, 10c, 20c and 30c, matinees 10 and 20 cents, the usual bargain night for ladies, Monday night, 15 cents.

Give Gypsy Dances.

Among the special attractions announced for the Barnum & Bailey circus when it exhibits in this city Monday, Sept. 10th, is a troupe of eight men and women artists from Scandinavia, who are known as "The Gitanas." The entertainment is described as being of a wonderfully versatile character. A review of these clever people says:

"Dressed in their picturesque National Gypsy costumes, this interesting troupe produces the sweetest melodies imaginable from all sorts of instruments, interspersing their musical exploits with sweet songs and charming dances. Among the articles used to produce harmonies are glasses, bottles and even such queer things as nails. They perform most cleverly and artistically upon mandolins, xylophones, horns, violins, guitars, flutes and piccolos. Incidental to the music extracted from these curious instruments the clever troupe introduce their national songs in solos, duets and quartettes with the singular and exquisite blending of strange forest-horns, finally supplementing their most remarkable series of exploits with an absorbingly interesting exhibition of the many dances in vogue with the peasants of Sweden, Norway, Hungary and England, and those of the gypsy tribes of many continental countries."

In the same department may also be seen the troupe of Lilliputians, comedians and artists, who are the smallest people ever born, two of them not more than twenty-four inches tall. One can hardly realize their microscopic proportions. Besides them is the commanding figures of the Welsh giant and the Finnish giantess. Truly a study in contrasts. The smallest horse in the world, a herd of giraffes, three herds of elephants, droves of camels, cages of wild beasts, sacred animals and many other curious objects are displayed at the same time and all are free to visitors, it is announced, "without extra charge."

It is evident that Local visitors to the Barnum & Bailey circus will have no cause to complain of a lack of variety, especially as the management will make known for the first time here the new "Peace" spectacle and several "thrillers" of a most sensational character.
