Excursions.

PERSONAL.

John Phillip of Fairview twp. is in town on business.

W. W. Shannon of Franklin twp. was in town last week.

Robert Barron of Worth twp. was here as a witness last week.

Dr. Wilson of Calley visited his brother, John H. in Butler last week.

F. J. Graham, Esq. of Penn twp. made his monthly return as collector last Thursday.

Tom Caldwell has rented the Thornburg property on N. Bluff St. and will move to Butler.

Jas. F. Devlin of Millwauke, inventor of a new steam turbine engine, and sold it for $75,000.

W. S. Allen, Assessor and Collector of Franklin twp. is in town making his returns, Thursday.

Isaac Meals of the County Clerk's office attended Capt. Wasson's funeral in Pittsburgh last Thursday.

Harmon Seaton of Washington twp. was appointed assessor of his township Monday, the vice Curt Wray, resigned.

Miss Charlotte Morris of Allegheny, a former teacher in the Butler schools is visiting at John H. Reiber's on Mercer St.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew N. Greer will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at their home near Sarverville on Tuesday, Sept. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahood celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home in Washington twp., yesterday. A number of Butlers were present.

Mrs. Jas. Thompson and her daughter, Miss Maudie, of Argentine were in Butler, yesterday, soliciting subscriptions for the new Argentine Free Methodist church.

"Congressman Lafrenze reports that he spent $2.50 for campaign expenses in getting renominated. The amount is calculated to produce injuries as to what it was marked down from."

Jack Green of Aspinwall and Miss Margaret Burns of Freeport were married last Sunday.

Twenty-eight had a chicken and waffle supper at Thomas Cooper's Commercial Hotel in Sarverville, last evening.

Elijah Dowling has been answering charges of immorality, extravagance, misrepresentation, misuse of investment and polygamous teachings. All which goes to show that in the eyes of some people Elijah is the warmest kind of a subject.

Mrs. J. S. Wick's night-blooming cereus had two blossoms last evening, and many people called to see them. It seems strange that what, perhaps, is the most beautiful flower of the year, has been created to bloom unseen—excepting by artificial light, for the blossoms close forever before morning.

The First Ward Home Co. holds a banquet next Wednesday.

All the Harrisville school teachers resigned, and the schools are closed.

The music on the roof-garden of the Nixon, last evening, was splendid and could be heard to the tops of the hills surrounding the town, but no one was put under bonds to keep the peace and required to pay the costs. The men are up-country.

Arguments for a new trial for Samuel Shamburger were heard Thursday before Judge Koser of Somerset county, and after the hearing the court ruled in favor of a new trial.

The trees were cut out of the old Dr. Neuman lot on Main St. this week, and the front end of the lot is being excavated for building.

The building on the corner built in 1850, will be demolished, or at least covered.

The plans for remodeling the Court House have not yet been completed, and they are a popular vote ought to be taken on the matter.

The assets of the Butler County National Bank now aggregate $3,300,000—the best showing that bank has yet made, by about $500,000.

The W. A. did not begin running trains to New Castle, Monday, but the ballasting is being completed this week, and the trains should come soon.

The new Nixon has opened a most restaurant in the basement of the old building with entrances from the Diamond and also from the bar-room.

Three dead chickens were thrown into the pool on the Wagner lot on N. Bluff St. and lay there for days. That kind of work breeds the typhoid fever germ.

Save your old Panama hats for next year. The late earthquakes in South America destroyed the great straw hats, and there won't be any Panamas next year.

A shooting affair is reported from near Elliott's Mills, in the edge of Lawrence county, but nobody seems to be "scent" excepting the shooter, the shooter and the chickens.

Some poor soul left her baby on Geo. Lamber's porch, one night last week, and George and his wife (who have none) are as tickled about it as though it was their own.

A little Penn twp. girl who swallowed some whole grains of what was reported in a serious condition last week. Swallowing whole grains of grain is a dangerous thing to do.

The peaches in market this week came from southern Ohio, and sold at $2, $2.25, $2.50 and $2 per bushel. Why we have none of our own—a blight seems to have hit the peach and pear trees lately.

Probably fifteen thousand people saw the show, Monday. The novelties on the inside were the auto and bicycle somersaults, while the greatest outside novelty was that automatic stake-driving machine, on wheels.

The street-sweepings of Butler are now casted to the nearest vacant lot and used for filling. But it is valuable stuff, and if two or three farmers would rent a vacant lot and have it dumped there, they would always have a place to go for a return load.

A young woman was sent to the lockup for five days last Thursday morning. She and some other girls and some fellows went up to the South cemetery, and became drunk and noisy. When the police came they all ran away, excepting this one, who tripped, fell and was caught.

Some Penn township boys went out counting the other night, and towards morning caught a nice, big, fat one—which turned out to be a possum. They were so sleepy and disgusted by that time they lay down in the first barn they came to and went to sleep, and came near being fed to the cows.

At the meeting of Council, Tuesday evening, the old Street Car Co. was allowed to double-track on Pierce ave., and to use W. North and Broad streets, to have Pierce ave. the entire width and pay the borough $6000 bonus, and $600 a year for 30 years, the limit of their franchise. Willow and Willow streets are to be paved, and Broad street to North. The people of Jefferson St. put up a vigorous "kick" on double tracking that street.

LEGAL NEWS.

Chas. Schaffer vs Borough of Butler trespass for $5000 damages. The plaintiff states that on Tuesday Sept. 14th he tripped and fell on a loose board in the sidewalk in front of the Geo. Kummer property on Cliff St.

Samuel Schaffer, Sr. vs Harry B. Arbel, ejectment for the Josephine Schaffer farm, south of Butler, which Arbel leased and failed to pay rent.

W. C. Laderer vs George Harley, trespass for $80.50 for damage and lap-roof brought in October, 1905.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

Her Only Sin—Monday, Sept. 17.

Lincoln J. Carter's original Critter Theatre (Chicago) production of his own powerful drama, "Her Only Sin" comes to the Majestic Theatre, at eight o'clock Monday, September 17th. This play is now in its third successful season and has been running for several months before it is finally put into stock houses and leased out to reputable repertoire companies in the city.

Mr. Carter has brought all his facilities together to make it one of the strong dramatic productions to last not only for the initial season but for many more to come.

The Pit—Friday, September 21.

Wm. A. Brady's big company will play a brief engagement in "The Pit" at the Majestic Theatre, Friday, Sept. 21st. "The Pit" is one of the greatest successes that the American stage has known for many years. It is a powerful story of active American life—the fictitious narrative of a "deal" in the Chicago wheat pit. The social existence, the gambling in stocks and bonds, the characteristic life of Chicago, form the background for an exceedingly vivid and human tale of modern life and love.
