

THE BUTLER CITIZEN.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1906.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE—All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads, should notify us of their intention to do so not later than Monday morning.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

TERMS: ... $1.50 Per Year If paid in advance. ... Each subscriber, by consulting the title tab on his paper, can tell the date to which his subscription is paid.

—Splendid weather. —The farmers need rain. —New railroad schedules. —Noting accidents are ripe. —Get your apple-butter kettle in order.

—Political spinners were plenty this week. —The skidoo, straw hat date has been extended till Oct. 1st. —Hereafter the County offices will close at 3 p. m., on Saturdays.

—How Lyon and J. H. Donit will build six new houses on Morton Ave. —The Erie R. Co. is said to be projecting a line through this county.

—The P. & N. C. are completing their tracks on W. Wayne St. with the paving. —At Barclay station, last Saturday night, one man hit another and knocked him through a large pane of glass.

—The Dray's Bend & Butler Street Railway Co. was granted a charter for their line from East Brady to Chocoma, last Friday. —A vein of "smokeless coal" has been discovered near Pittsburg. What a god-send that will be to that town!

—In the olden times, a fair held before the first of October was considered too early for our use. Now the latest is over before that date. —In passing a hang-out washing now-ads none but the expert can tell whether those long black things on the line are hose or gloves.

—Never answer advertisements that promise to pay you $50 dollars a week for sitting at home and doing nothing. Save your stamps and common sense. —The 191st and 102d Regiments are holding a reunion in town today. The old boys are "just as young as they used to be" and are having a good time.

PERSONAL.

Rev. Ralston late of Portersville has moved to Freeport. S. W. Lewis of Washington twp. was in town on business, Friday. Louis Hartenstein was adjudged a bankrupt on the 19th. See notice.

J. S. Campbell, one of Cherry twp's best men, served on the jury, last week. David Forsyth and daughter of Penn twp. visited friends in Butler, Tuesday. Jacob W. Long of Connoquessing twp. visited friends in Butler, Tuesday.

Westernman of Clinton township did some shopping in Butler, Tuesday. Miss Etta Wadsworth of Slippery rock twp. visited friends in Butler, last week. David Campbell and wife of Clinton township some shopping in Butler, Saturday.

Lewis Hays of Penn twp. visited his sons W. K. and W. E. in Butler, last Saturday. J. S. Campbell of the New Central Hotel in Slipperyrock did some shopping in Butler, Monday.

Juo Hilliard of Hilliards passed through town Saturday. "Just tell them that you saw me." Mrs. Annie Brandon and Mrs. Jas. G. Rose attended the funeral of Mrs. W. W. Rose in Grove City, last week. Thomas Wood of Clinton twp. went to Pittsburg, Pa. to see the new addition of the Sixth Heavy Artillery, today.

Commander Harlow got one recruit for the Navy in Butler yesterday—Raymond Gallagher of the First ward, aged 22 years. J. O. Emery and family of Youngstown, Ohio, visited his friends in Butler, Tuesday. He and wife went home, Tuesday.

Ben Price has been with O'Brien & Co. for 17 years and has never missed a day of Butler, the morning his first baby was born. Count Witte is in Hamburg and is being treated for a growth on his nose. He is a cut Russian politician, and is not afraid of being assassinated.

Mrs. Archie Yeagle, of Saxenburg, visited friends in Butler, yesterday. She came back sick from W. Va. about a month ago, and has improved wonderfully, under the care of Dr. Lasher. "George F. Baur says he cannot see any sense in the new law on Sunday. Probably not. The idea of regulating the divinely appointed managers of railroad property is a little hard to reconcile with the word."

T. C. Patterson of Patterson Bros. has lately returned from a trip through the north-eastern part of Carolina—the Scuppernon Grape, the raising of which has assumed immense proportions. Ex-Sheriff W. B. Dods of Adams twp., Crawford county, is in town visiting friends. "Brows" had an interesting time taking Roy Campbell to the penitentiary, for forgery. He did it himself, but had to keep him covered with his gun nearly the whole way.

Tai Ann, Dowager Empress of China, has decreed that there shall be no more mourning in Chinese women, she decrees that Chinese officials who continue that practice in their families shall have office. This is putting the power of government against deleterious fashions with a vengeance. Moreover, it implies a reform in Chinese dress. If our Caucasian governments should try to abolish corsets or high-heeled shoes, they would only obtain the need of feminine laughter. But the aged Empress strikes at the root of the evil by cutting off the source of supply, and the reform is far on the road to accomplishment.

LEGAL NEWS.

NEW SUITS. Vogeley heirs vs. Pennsylvania Railroad Co., ejectment for one-third of the lot in the Second Ward, Butler, alleged to have been unlawfully entered upon by the defendant. Wm. Kavanagh Co. of Zelienople vs. Mrs. M. M. Goehring, assumpsit for $318.55, claimed to be due on a balance due for oil well tools and material furnished to the defendant.

Wm. Kavanagh Co. vs. John S. Clark, assumpsit for $346.33 for oil well materials furnished. The Cambridge Society, a corporation, vs. Dr. E. L. Wasson, assumpsit for $190.50 claimed to be due for 57 volumes of books on "Islamic" and "medieval" subjects. The plaintiffs, claim Dr. Wasson ordered them and refused to lift them and they are now lying in a local express office.

Rev. A. K. Kline for use of Immanuel Reformed church of Ellwood City vs. W. C. Laderer of Evans City, assumpsit for $2500. The plaintiff states he acting for the church, bargained for two lots in Ellwood City for $2500, paid $2500 and the church refused to deliver the deed, tendered $2000, according to the terms of their contract. Laderer, he says, refused to deliver the deed. Since the making of the first agreement, last May, the plaintiff states property prices advanced in Ellwood City and they cannot now get a suitable lot for the same money and therefore sue for damages.

A. M. Christley vs. C. A. Horton, proceedings for partition of 170 acres of the pincetrack in Centre twp., which the parties own together. A. H. Knauff vs. Joseph Cooper, deft. and Jackson twp. School District, garnishee, execution attachment on debts due to deft. Judgment against Knauff for $372.75 was entered. Mrs. Louisa Sloan vs. Henry Wagner, ex'or of Butler, assumpsit for $139.50. The plaintiff is a daughter of Mrs. Wagner and sues for keeping and tendering her mother during her last illness, 4 1/2 weeks at $25 per week.

NOTES. Charles Freyermuth plead guilty to a charge of desertion and non-support. Sentence was suspended until Sept. 3d, and was advised to "make up." The Guaranty Safe Deposit & Trust Co. was appointed guardian of three minor children of Ida E. Prindle, dec'd. David Cupps has been appointed Assistant Assessor for the First Precinct, First Ward.

The case of Commonwealth vs. Nick Vine, larceny by bailee, was settled by deft. paying the costs. In the case of Commonwealth vs. Lester Brown, charged with assault and battery by his father, James F. Brown of Franklin twp., the jury returned a verdict of guilty, and fined $25. The Guaranty Safe Deposit & Trust Co. was appointed guardian of three minor children of Ida E. Prindle, dec'd.

Prof. J. A. Meichling of the Harmony schools has been charged by Mrs. Mary McGill with assault and battery for having visited for some days the old friends and relatives of Butler. Mr. Maxwell is the only surviving son of a wealthy family of Butler. He is now in jail for complicity in the escape of Campbell and Hall from jail. He was charged with conspiracy to sell liquor to whoever wanted it, and he made many sales, and filled two or three hundred prescriptions for liquor written by Dr. Minter, during the time, he worked in the store. Dr. Minter swore that he did not own the store, had nothing to do with it, denied making sales, and said he had written less than half a dozen prescriptions in the last three years. He and Mrs. Minter swore that the store and property now belonged to Thomas Watson, who is now in jail for complicity in the escape of Campbell and Hall from jail. MAJESTIC THEATRE. The Pit—Friday, September 21. Wm. A. Brady's big company will play a brief engagement in "The Pit" at the Majestic Theatre, Friday, Sept. 21. "The Pit" is one of the "great" plays that the American stage has known for many years. It is a powerful story of an American life—the fictitious narrative of a "deal" in the Chicago wheat pit. The social existence, the gambling in stocks and produce, the characteristic life of Chicago, form the background for an exceedingly vigorous and human tale of modern life and love.

MUSIC PUPILS find the best teaching and all advantages at the most moderate prices at the Pittsburgh Conservatory of Music, Beveridge Webster, Director, 136 Dithridge St. The fall term has just opened, but pupils may enter at any time. Leave Butler 7:00 A. M. Fare for round trip $1.75.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

Letters of administration on the estate of Thomas Graham of Connoquessing twp. were granted to C. E. Shannon and Hiram Graham. Oct. 15th is Butler county's poke-in its Supreme Court in Pittsburgh. A. E. Anderson, a slick, fine looking gentleman, with a scar on his left cheek, halting from Tarentum, had around local stores a week or two and then succeeded in passing 15 bogus checks on the storekeepers. Finally he was caught up by Clarence Dixon and Sam Friday and charged against him, Friday, Monday relatives came from Tarentum, patched the matter up and secured his release from jail.

Fires.

While Joseph B. Mechlning was in town last Monday afternoon, his house on the hill south of town, took fire from a stove in the summer kitchen, where Mrs. Mechlning and her daughter had been putting up fruit. The fire spread rapidly and by the time Mr. Mechlning reached his place, the whole house was enveloped in flames. Nothing was saved excepting the piano and a few articles of furniture. "Breeze Place" was one of the oldest homes about Butler and the many friends of the family greatly sympathize with the bereaved family. The house was insured in the M. & M. for $2,000 and will probably be rebuilt immediately. It was outside the fire limits of the town and yet three of the local companies got their hose carts up Fairview avenue.

CHURCH NOTES. The Plains Presbyterian church in Cranberry twp. or "Old Plains" as it was called, organized in 1806 by Rev. Reid Bracken, and celebrated its centennial this week—beginning on Monday, Oct. 11, 1806. The congregation originally worshipped in a tent, then in a log building, and then in a brick building, which was burned down and replaced by the present brick in 1879. Rev. Samuel H. Moore, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of New Castle, has notified his congregation of desire to accept a membership in the Presbyterian church of Montevista, Colo. He will preach his last sermon in New Castle, Wednesday, Oct. 14, and will soon go west. State Sabbath School Convention.
