The moiher of the boy afterward married a man named Wilson and moved to Bradford, and the boy was known by the names of Kelly, Wyke and Wilson. When fourteen years of age abuse by his step-father caused him to leave home. Thirteen years he returned to Parker twp, and was recognized and learned of his legacy. He disappeared again without making any effort to collect it, and has since married and been living in Ohio. The gray mare, etc. was sold for about $125 and Kelly entered suit for this amount and the $500 and interest for nineteen years. It is understood the case could have been settled for the face of the claim, but this was refused and it is now in Judge Galbreath's hands for decision.

dress goods Beautiful new thin dressy materials, all silk, all wool, and Office in Reiber building, cornei Main materials, all silk, all wool, and and E. Cunningham Sts. Entrance on silk and wool—excellent lines of colors in all. Very smart and practical Tailorings and Suitings-neat mixtures, checks, stripes and indistinct Plaids, decidedly swell in character-very quiet colorings, but rich in the extreme. These, together with a big range of staple Greys, Brown, Blue and Green mix fabrics, and far more of each and all than this slight hint may indicate, making a showing of materials for all sorts of fashionable gowns and every-day dresses hat every woman owes it to herself to see. Extraordinary color showing of Henriettas and Cashmeres in various grades, from 50c to $1.50 a yard.

Moved the Plaids to a section by themselves, where the unexampled assortments, 12tc o $3.00 a yard will win much success this great Plaid season. The superb quiet toned Sulting Plaids, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, are alone worthy
