

Congress have authorized the issue of Ten Millions of Treasury notes bearing an interest of two per cent. This measure was needed to support the fallen fortunes of the government...

INTERESTING TO TRAVELLERS. Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Pittsburg, and Wheeling.

We yesterday had an opportunity of examining a number of most splendid road cars, intended for the new line for travelling which is just about to go into operation between the important points above mentioned.

THE UNITED STATES' BANK AND THE GOVERNMENT.

There can hardly be any one among our readers who is not familiar with the history of the removal of the public money from deposit in the Bank of the U. S., or of the alleged grounds of the measure that has been productive of consequences so detrimental to the people and to the Government.

Proceedings of the Convention for the Amendment of the Constitution.

Reported for the United States Gazette, Harrisburg, October 30, 1837. The convention resolved itself into a committee of the whole for the further consideration of the report of the committee on the fifth article.

FIFTH ARTICLE.

Judge Hopkins at eleven o'clock to-day concluded his able and argumentative remarks in favor of the independence of the judiciary. It was a masterly effort—fully sustaining the reputation which he bears, of being a sound scholar, profoundly versed in the fundamental principles of the constitution and the jurisprudence of the country.
