Report of Poor House Visitors

To the Hon. John Reed, Esq. President, and John Slewart, and John Lefever, Esqs., his A ciates, sc. November Term, A. D. 1837. The Subscribers, in pursuance of their appointment by the Honorable Court, at November term;
A. D. 1836; as Visitors for the Poor House, in and for Cumberland County, respen this our fourth report, and with which the term this our fourth report, and with which the term of our appointment as such will end.

We this day visited the Poor House, and were pleased to find that the rules and regulations of the Directors of that institution, (although arduous to perform compliance therewith,) have been carefully and promptly attended to by both the Stewart and Matron thereof.

We examined the different apartments thereof, all of which, as well as the furniture, beds and bedding, were neat, clean, and comfortable, and such as that the inmates themselves had no reason to complain of. The inmates appeared cheerful.

inch as that the inmates themselves had no reason to complain of. The inmates appeared cheerful, industrious, and agreeably healthy, which we believe may principally be attributed to the ex-cellent manner in which that institution is con-

Few, very few; have been the subjects of discipline or punishment, during the last year,

The number of those supported therein is ninety-seven.

ty-seven.

The appearance of the farm justifies us in saying that it is, well managed.

And we would further state, that the benevolent projectors of that institution, have great reason to be highly gratified, upon their belog instruments in removing so many of the human family from lives of intemperance, wretchedness and misery to a life of comfort and apparent happioess.

Respectfully yours, &c. ROBERT INVINE,
ROBERT SNODGRASS,
Visiors.
