

From the New York Journal's Cont. of Thursday.

Six days Later from Europe.

By the packet ship North-America, Capt. Hoaxie, we have received London and Liverpool papers both to Oct. 18th, inclusive.

Toulon, Oct. 14, half past 1 o'clock.

Gen. DAMBRIEST TO THE MINISTER OF WAR.

Paris, Oct. 14.

"The brigades of Nemours and Frezel, with the siege artillery, have taken up a position at the marabout of Ben Tamtam, on the left bank of the Oued Zenati."

London, Oct. 18.—A report prevailed on the Paris Bourse on Monday that Constantine had been actually entered by the French on the 9th instant, but it was not generally credited.

Postscript.—Our correspondence who furnished the materials for the preceding summary (not heretofore, Eds. J. C.) received subsequently the following intelligence:—

London Tuesday Evening October 17.—A report has been current, that among the purchases of stock by which the late rise was produced, were some to a large extent for the account of the Bank of England; but to this rumour, credit ought not to be given without the clearest evidence of the fact.

The failure of the highly respectable house of Parsons & Co. in the Russia trade, was made known this morning. This house is of more than half a century's standing, and the respected principal is stated to be more than 80 years of age.

The prices of the British funds somewhat declined to-day, which is attributed to a rather larger quality of money stocks being brought into the market than the jobbers were prepared to take.

This, however, has had but little effect on the demand for cash, which was to be obtained readily at a low rate of interest. The closing prices are—Consols for money, 92 1/4 to 3/4; ditto for account, 92 1/2 to 3/4; Exchequer bills, 105, to 58s, and India Bonds 52s, 51s, premium.

London, Saturday, Oct. 14.—The advices received from the United States to the 26th ult., have given much satisfaction in the city, as they show that a return to a more healthy condition of things in mercantile affairs had been exhibited.

The Liverpool packet which has come in this week has about 10,000, in sovereigns and dollars, in freight, and the London ship Gladiator, which left four days before, the arrival of which off Portsmouth was received in the City yesterday evening, has about 150,000 dollars on board in gold and silver.

NARBONNE, Oct. 15, 0 o'clock, A. M.—On the 9th the gates of Valencia were closed, on account of the approach of 1000 Carlists. Esperanza, after entering Chiva, proceeded in a southern direction, pursued by 1,200 of Bull's column. Borso had arrived at Segorbe, with 1,500 men.

How shall we manifest our joy?—We like (says the Phil-Herald), the suggestion of "A Whig" in some of the N. Y. papers, who suggests that the money the Whigs propose to spend in powder, &c., shall be given to the poor, that they may also have reason to rejoice on account of the recent Whig triumphs.

"If the Almighty has, in a measure, freed us from the yoke of terror, in what way can we more publicly show our gratitude to Him, than by aiding the poor and destitute, many of whom within the past year have been reduced from comparative ease and comfort, to abject poverty and want, by the ruinous course pursued by those in power."

SUB-TREASURY.

Van Buren is determined to adhere to his Treasury scheme, which he intends to explain more fully in his next message. The explanations may be contained in the compass of a nut shell: "Gold for me, and paper for you,"—N. Y. Star.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Van Buren papers are extensive, circulating the pleasant article entitled "How to break bad news." They could not occupy their columns with matter more pertinent to their present position.

This night I shall rest contented.—Maine, Rhode Island and North Carolina may have cast me off, but New York will never abandon her favorite son.

How now! thou Knight of the Rueful countenance! I have not seen thee wear so downcast a phiz since the election of Congressional Printer.

Postscript.—Our correspondence who furnished the materials for the preceding summary (not heretofore, Eds. J. C.) received subsequently the following intelligence:—

London Tuesday Evening October 17.—A report has been current, that among the purchases of stock by which the late rise was produced, were some to a large extent for the account of the Bank of England; but to this rumour, credit ought not to be given without the clearest evidence of the fact.

The failure of the highly respectable house of Parsons & Co. in the Russia trade, was made known this morning. This house is of more than half a century's standing, and the respected principal is stated to be more than 80 years of age.

The prices of the British funds somewhat declined to-day, which is attributed to a rather larger quality of money stocks being brought into the market than the jobbers were prepared to take.

This, however, has had but little effect on the demand for cash, which was to be obtained readily at a low rate of interest. The closing prices are—Consols for money, 92 1/4 to 3/4; ditto for account, 92 1/2 to 3/4; Exchequer bills, 105, to 58s, and India Bonds 52s, 51s, premium.

London, Saturday, Oct. 14.—The advices received from the United States to the 26th ult., have given much satisfaction in the city, as they show that a return to a more healthy condition of things in mercantile affairs had been exhibited.

The Liverpool packet which has come in this week has about 10,000, in sovereigns and dollars, in freight, and the London ship Gladiator, which left four days before, the arrival of which off Portsmouth was received in the City yesterday evening, has about 150,000 dollars on board in gold and silver.

NARBONNE, Oct. 15, 0 o'clock, A. M.—On the 9th the gates of Valencia were closed, on account of the approach of 1000 Carlists. Esperanza, after entering Chiva, proceeded in a southern direction, pursued by 1,200 of Bull's column. Borso had arrived at Segorbe, with 1,500 men.

How shall we manifest our joy?—We like (says the Phil-Herald), the suggestion of "A Whig" in some of the N. Y. papers, who suggests that the money the Whigs propose to spend in powder, &c., shall be given to the poor, that they may also have reason to rejoice on account of the recent Whig triumphs.

"If the Almighty has, in a measure, freed us from the yoke of terror, in what way can we more publicly show our gratitude to Him, than by aiding the poor and destitute, many of whom within the past year have been reduced from comparative ease and comfort, to abject poverty and want, by the ruinous course pursued by those in power."

Van Buren is determined to adhere to his Treasury scheme, which he intends to explain more fully in his next message. The explanations may be contained in the compass of a nut shell: "Gold for me, and paper for you,"—N. Y. Star.

SUPER-EXCELLENCE.

At a late Whig meeting held in Taunton, Mass., on the 13th ult., the Hon. Francis Baylies delivered an able speech on the currency, a copy of which was furnished by him for publication, and occupies four closely printed columns in the Taunton Whig.

"I am, Sir, an able member of Congress at the commencement of Gen. Jackson's administration, or a short time previous, and was one of his most efficient supporters. He subsequently received a diplomatic appointment to Buenos Ayres, but shortly returned, and having become thoroughly disgusted with Jacksonism, came out from the party."

"How now! thou Knight of the Rueful countenance! I have not seen thee wear so downcast a phiz since the election of Congressional Printer. What are thy adventures by the morning's mail? Is Cam's calculation varied? He is always prudent, and we dare say the true majority exceeds his estimate."

London Tuesday Evening October 17.—A report has been current, that among the purchases of stock by which the late rise was produced, were some to a large extent for the account of the Bank of England; but to this rumour, credit ought not to be given without the clearest evidence of the fact.

The failure of the highly respectable house of Parsons & Co. in the Russia trade, was made known this morning. This house is of more than half a century's standing, and the respected principal is stated to be more than 80 years of age.

The prices of the British funds somewhat declined to-day, which is attributed to a rather larger quality of money stocks being brought into the market than the jobbers were prepared to take.

This, however, has had but little effect on the demand for cash, which was to be obtained readily at a low rate of interest. The closing prices are—Consols for money, 92 1/4 to 3/4; ditto for account, 92 1/2 to 3/4; Exchequer bills, 105, to 58s, and India Bonds 52s, 51s, premium.

London, Saturday, Oct. 14.—The advices received from the United States to the 26th ult., have given much satisfaction in the city, as they show that a return to a more healthy condition of things in mercantile affairs had been exhibited.

The Liverpool packet which has come in this week has about 10,000, in sovereigns and dollars, in freight, and the London ship Gladiator, which left four days before, the arrival of which off Portsmouth was received in the City yesterday evening, has about 150,000 dollars on board in gold and silver.

NARBONNE, Oct. 15, 0 o'clock, A. M.—On the 9th the gates of Valencia were closed, on account of the approach of 1000 Carlists. Esperanza, after entering Chiva, proceeded in a southern direction, pursued by 1,200 of Bull's column. Borso had arrived at Segorbe, with 1,500 men.

How shall we manifest our joy?—We like (says the Phil-Herald), the suggestion of "A Whig" in some of the N. Y. papers, who suggests that the money the Whigs propose to spend in powder, &c., shall be given to the poor, that they may also have reason to rejoice on account of the recent Whig triumphs.

"If the Almighty has, in a measure, freed us from the yoke of terror, in what way can we more publicly show our gratitude to Him, than by aiding the poor and destitute, many of whom within the past year have been reduced from comparative ease and comfort, to abject poverty and want, by the ruinous course pursued by those in power."

Van Buren is determined to adhere to his Treasury scheme, which he intends to explain more fully in his next message. The explanations may be contained in the compass of a nut shell: "Gold for me, and paper for you,"—N. Y. Star.

FINANCES OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

The following aggregate statement of the finances of the State, will be read with gratification by the friends of the Commonwealth. It is taken from the Report of the Auditor-General, for the financial year, commencing the 1st day of November 1836, and ending the 31st of October 1837.

RECEIPTS.

Table with columns for Receipts and Amounts. Includes items like Lands and Land Office Fees, Auction Commissions, Dividends on Bank Stock, etc.

EXPENDITURES.

Table with columns for Expenditures and Amounts. Includes items like Commission of the Internal Fund, Expenses of Government, Turnpike, bridges, &c., etc.

Aristocratic Monopolies.

The following aggregate list of "aristocratic monopolies," granted by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, since the year 1776, is taken from the report furnished by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the Reform Convention; by which it appears that the corporation of boroughs, townships, districts, religious societies, literary institutions, charitable societies, &c., including bridge and turnpike companies, are after all, the spectres and "monopolies" that haunt the slumbers and shock the nervous system of the Loco Focos so lamentably.

The City of Nashville.

The city of Nashville was illuminated on Tuesday last, in honor of the Whig Triumph in New York. The roar of a hundred cannons was hardly sufficient to express the joy of the Whigs on the occasion.

An important Declaration.

Scott said, seriously, in his autobiography, through every part of his literary career I have felt pinched and hampered by my own ignorance.

Lou. Jour.

The great illumination is to take place in our city this evening, commencing at 6 o'clock and continuing till 9, during which time a hundred guns will "wake the slumbering echoes of the clouds."

Gen. HARRISON'S friends.

Gen. HARRISON'S friends in Pennsylvania are warm in his favor. Our opinion is, that he is now, decidedly, the strongest man in the United States.

MINISTER'S WIVES.

"To be sure—to be sure," said a friend of mine to me the other day, "Mrs. Jerrold should go to see all the members of the Church."

Harrisburg Celebration.

On Saturday week the New York Victoria was enthusiastically celebrated at Harrisburg. One hundred and fifteen guns were fired. A public dinner, attended by a very numerous company and many distinguished men, was served at Altes's 'Tippecanoe Hall.'

By John Taylor.

"After things had gone thus far, we proposed taking up our Bible to see if we could get any light on the subject, from the word and the testimony."

By J. A. Fisher.

"Exclusive Party Names and Party Organization: The creatures of selfish and mercenary purposes—the invention of demagogues and political aspirants, for the advancement of their own sordid, personal interests: 'Tis unworthy of freemen to be contending for exclusive party names and party organization, when the exigencies of the whole country demand the union, harmony and concert in action, of all who are the sincere friends of sound principles and the speedy restoration of those measures, which the true interests, prosperity and happiness of the whole People so urgently demand."

By E. T. McDowell.

"The Credit System of the General Administration: Its final failure was fully realized, when Martin Van Buren attempted to sustain himself on the borrowed capital of General Jackson."

By Dr. E. Veazey.

"The Antislavery and Whigs: Natural allies in the great cause of the constitution and laws. May we not be permitted to exhort the brilliant victories lately achieved by them in New York and elsewhere, to excite the closest union and the most persevering exertions in further carrying out the measures of reform."

By Henry K. Strong.

"Gen. W. H. HARRISON: Brought out by the force of public opinion as a candidate for the Presidency, in opposition to the efforts of politicians, in the latter part of the canvass of 1836. His popularity broke the spell of federal invincibility, and laid the foundation of that series of splendid democratic triumphs in 1837, one of which we now celebrate."

By Dr. E. Veazey.

"An important Declaration. Scott said, seriously, in his autobiography, through every part of his literary career I have felt pinched and hampered by my own ignorance."

Lou. Jour.

"The great illumination is to take place in our city this evening, commencing at 6 o'clock and continuing till 9, during which time a hundred guns will 'wake the slumbering echoes of the clouds.'"

Gen. HARRISON'S friends.

"Gen. HARRISON'S friends in Pennsylvania are warm in his favor. Our opinion is, that he is now, decidedly, the strongest man in the United States."

Mississippi Crops.

A letter from Paulding, Mississippi, says: 'Crops of corn are very abundant with us, and cotton very good—though this region has not a sufficiency of open land yet to cultivate that article as extensively as other parts of the State. We have had health the past season, almost equal to the Virginia Mountains.'

MINISTER'S WIVES.

"To be sure—to be sure," said a friend of mine to me the other day, "Mrs. Jerrold should go to see all the members of the Church."

Harrisburg Celebration.

On Saturday week the New York Victoria was enthusiastically celebrated at Harrisburg. One hundred and fifteen guns were fired. A public dinner, attended by a very numerous company and many distinguished men, was served at Altes's 'Tippecanoe Hall.'

By John Taylor.

"After things had gone thus far, we proposed taking up our Bible to see if we could get any light on the subject, from the word and the testimony."

By J. A. Fisher.

"Exclusive Party Names and Party Organization: The creatures of selfish and mercenary purposes—the invention of demagogues and political aspirants, for the advancement of their own sordid, personal interests: 'Tis unworthy of freemen to be contending for exclusive party names and party organization, when the exigencies of the whole country demand the union, harmony and concert in action, of all who are the sincere friends of sound principles and the speedy restoration of those measures, which the true interests, prosperity and happiness of the whole People so urgently demand."

By E. T. McDowell.

"The Credit System of the General Administration: Its final failure was fully realized, when Martin Van Buren attempted to sustain himself on the borrowed capital of General Jackson."

By Dr. E. Veazey.

"The Antislavery and Whigs: Natural allies in the great cause of the constitution and laws. May we not be permitted to exhort the brilliant victories lately achieved by them in New York and elsewhere, to excite the closest union and the most persevering exertions in further carrying out the measures of reform."

By Henry K. Strong.

"Gen. W. H. HARRISON: Brought out by the force of public opinion as a candidate for the Presidency, in opposition to the efforts of politicians, in the latter part of the canvass of 1836. His popularity broke the spell of federal invincibility, and laid the foundation of that series of splendid democratic triumphs in 1837, one of which we now celebrate."

By Dr. E. Veazey.

"An important Declaration. Scott said, seriously, in his autobiography, through every part of his literary career I have felt pinched and hampered by my own ignorance."

Lou. Jour.

"The great illumination is to take place in our city this evening, commencing at 6 o'clock and continuing till 9, during which time a hundred guns will 'wake the slumbering echoes of the clouds.'"

Gen. HARRISON'S friends.

"Gen. HARRISON'S friends in Pennsylvania are warm in his favor. Our opinion is, that he is now, decidedly, the strongest man in the United States."

Mississippi Crops.

A letter from Paulding, Mississippi, says: 'Crops of corn are very abundant with us, and cotton very good—though this region has not a sufficiency of open land yet to cultivate that article as extensively as other parts of the State. We have had health the past season, almost equal to the Virginia Mountains.'

MINISTER'S WIVES.

"To be sure—to be sure," said a friend of mine to me the other day, "Mrs. Jerrold should go to see all the members of the Church."

Harrisburg Celebration.

On Saturday week the New York Victoria was enthusiastically celebrated at Harrisburg. One hundred and fifteen guns were fired. A public dinner, attended by a very numerous company and many distinguished men, was served at Altes's 'Tippecanoe Hall.'

By John Taylor.

"After things had gone thus far, we proposed taking up our Bible to see if we could get any light on the subject, from the word and the testimony."

By J. A. Fisher.

"Exclusive Party Names and Party Organization: The creatures of selfish and mercenary purposes—the invention of demagogues and political aspirants, for the advancement of their own sordid, personal interests: 'Tis unworthy of freemen to be contending for exclusive party names and party organization, when the exigencies of the whole country demand the union, harmony and concert in action, of all who are the sincere friends of sound principles and the speedy restoration of those measures, which the true interests, prosperity and happiness of the whole People so urgently demand."

By E. T. McDowell.

"The Credit System of the General Administration: Its final failure was fully realized, when Martin Van Buren attempted to sustain himself on the borrowed capital of General Jackson."

By Dr. E. Veazey.

"The Antislavery and Whigs: Natural allies in the great cause of the constitution and laws. May we not be permitted to exhort the brilliant victories lately achieved by them in New York and elsewhere, to excite the closest union and the most persevering exertions in further carrying out the measures of reform."

By Henry K. Strong.

"Gen. W. H. HARRISON: Brought out by the force of public opinion as a candidate for the Presidency, in opposition to the efforts of politicians, in the latter part of the canvass of 1836. His popularity broke the spell of federal invincibility, and laid the foundation of that series of splendid democratic triumphs in 1837, one of which we now celebrate."

By Dr. E. Veazey.

"An important Declaration. Scott said, seriously, in his autobiography, through every part of his literary career I have felt pinched and hampered by my own ignorance."

Lou. Jour.

"The great illumination is to take place in our city this evening, commencing at 6 o'clock and continuing till 9, during which time a hundred guns will 'wake the slumbering echoes of the clouds.'"

Gen. HARRISON'S friends.

"Gen. HARRISON'S friends in Pennsylvania are warm in his favor. Our opinion is, that he is now, decidedly, the strongest man in the United States."

Mississippi Crops.

A letter from Paulding, Mississippi, says: 'Crops of corn are very abundant with us, and cotton very good—though this region has not a sufficiency of open land yet to cultivate that article as extensively as other parts of the State. We have had health the past season, almost equal to the Virginia Mountains.'