

CARLISLE.

Tuesday, December 5, 1837.

The People's Candidates.

FOR PRESIDENT,

WM. H. HARRISON.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

FRANCIS GRANGER.

Democratic Antimasonic Candidate for Governor,

JOSEPH BITNER.

STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with the usages of the Democratic Antimasonic Party of Pennsylvania, a State Convention for the nomination of a suitable candidate to be supported for the office of Governor of the commonwealth, at the next general election, will be held in Harrisburg on the 5th day of March next (1838).

The county committees of the several counties are therefore respectfully requested to take the necessary measures to have their respective counties or districts represented in the Convention by a number of Delegates equal to the number of their Senators and Representatives in the State Legislature, so that there may be a full and equal expression of the wishes of the whole party in the selection of the candidate. The accomplishment of that object by the convention, is all that is necessary to produce the complete triumph of the cause.

Harrisburg, Nov. 7, 1837.

THOMAS H. BURROWS,
THOMAS ELDER,
FREDERICK HENN,
AMOS ELLMAKER,
FRANCIS JAMES,
WILLIAM IRWIN,
JAMES STEEL,
WILLIAM AYRES,
HARMER DENNY,
SAMUEL H. FISHER,
WILLIAM SMITH,
SAMUEL S. WHARTON.

State Committee.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania meets to-day in Harrisburg. The proceedings of this body will be looked for with much interest, as matters and things in general, have assumed a new aspect since they adjourned last spring. Congress has postponed the payment of the instalment of the surplus revenue due to the different States—the banks have suspended specie payments—and individuals and corporations have issued bills of a less denomination than five dollars, in direct and open violation of a written law.

With regard to the instalment due Pennsylvania, the action of our Legislature cannot affect the result, one way or the other, unless indeed so far as their opinions may influence those at Washington city, to do something. But we fear the postponement of the last instalment is too dear a price with the White House gentry, to expect any thing from them, the admonitions of the late elections, and the opinion of our Legislature, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Legislatures of other States which have met since the suspension of specie payments and issuing of small bills, have legalized these proceedings and they are now lawful. What course our Legislature will pursue, we do not pretend to say. We have no doubt the anti bank, lawless party in the lower house, will be the first to bring forward a bill to make the whole affair legal. Our own opinion is, that legislative enactments will do much more harm than good. The suspension of specie payments was the result of causes over which the banks had no control. Specie being withdrawn, the absolute necessities of the people, demanded a currency of some kind, or at least denomination than five dollars. Necessity knows no law. The law of the law may have been broken, but public opinion sustains this violation, knowing that it could not be avoided. So long therefore, as public opinion says it is right, there will be no prosecutions for the penalty—whenever it says the banks ought to pay, they ought to pay. Any law, therefore, passed, legalizing the suspension for a certain time, will give the banks a greater latitude and will delay the redemption of specie payments, until that time shall have run out, or by circumstances shall even arise within a month or two by which they could resume specie payment. We hope the Legislature will leave it to find its own level.

The spirit of approbation, which has been evinced by the people throughout our country at the result of the late elections, and especially at the New York revolution, shows conclusively, that the interests and welfare of our institutions are too deeply rooted in the affections of our citizens, to be attacked with impunity by the impositions of the demagogue. We are an individual people—we are a forbearing people. We never judge hastily of men's motives from their actions. But when we see attempts after attempt made, to ruin our institutions—our interests—our country—and that too, by those who ought to be guardians instead of destroyers—when forbearance ceases to be a virtue—when the people see clearly and certainly that the objects and designs of the rulers, are to ruin the country, which cannot be misunderstood. A puny Administration, thrown into being by mere accident, with the avowed design of following in the footsteps of a predecessor "who made the first steps towards ruining the country, has scarcely been in existence eight months, until a number of States, sufficient to cast overboard hundreds and hundreds of electoral votes, have passed a solemn judgment of condemnation upon them! Was there ever greater cause for a rebuke!

Murder! Murder!!

The following article was prepared for our last paper, but was crowded out.

It becomes our painful duty to announce to our readers, the melancholy fact, that in Illinois, rioting and mobbing have triumphed over all law and order, and that the life of a devoted Minister of the Gospel of Christ has been sacrificed to the lawless violence of a wicked and infuriated mob.

It appears that the Rev. Mr. Lovejoy, who has for sometime past been engaged in publishing a paper in Alton, Illinois, in which he advocated the cause of abolition, had received the apparatus connected with a printing press, and was about to re-establish his "Observer," and printing office, which had been destroyed some months since by a mob. The press was landed at night and deposited in a warehouse which contained a large amount of other goods on storage. The fact became known immediately, and during the whole of the following day an excitement prevailed which issued at night in the formation of a mob. A number of persons, among whom was the proprietor of the warehouse, entered the building with arms and prepared it for defence. Repeated attacks were made by hurling missiles at the windows and doors, and eventually several guns were fired by the mob but without effect. During the height of the attack a single gun was fired from the building, which resulted in the death of a young man outside, and a pretty active member of the mob, named Bishop. The mob then carried Bishop away to a tavern where they revived their spirits, and returned with renewed vigor to the work of destruction, which they had vowed to perform. Not being able to succeed in obtaining possession of the press, or in driving back those in the building it was resolved to "fire the building and shoot every damned abolitionist in it as they should attempt to escape." Mr. Lovejoy and several others went out to endeavor to prevent this, after that a ladder had actually been raised for the purpose of placing combustibles on the roof. Some one fired a gun at and wounded the man on the ladder, who was engaged in setting fire to the roof. At this time Mr. Lovejoy was standing near the foot of the ladder, when he was deliberately aimed at and shot by a man who was but a few yards from him. He was able to walk into the counting house, exclaiming "I am shot," "I am a dead man," and fell down and expired in a few minutes.

Here then has been the decision made by the citizens of Alton, that no man is at liberty to publish his sentiments if those sentiments are adverse to their own.

The freedom of speech and liberty of the Press, both of which are guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, and the State of Illinois, are denied to Ministers of the Gospel who may see and feel it necessary for them to raise their voices in behalf of the oppressed. And if the perpetrators of this foul act are not brought to condign punishment, Ministers of the Gospel will be compelled to avoid every thing which may be displeasing to the ears of certain persons who have it in their power by a word or a look, to excite the ire of the ignominious vulgar.

We know not how to express ourselves in reference to this outrage. If it is to go unpunished, no man will be thereafter safe in the expression of his opinions; for he knows not but he may offend some delicate ear, and then a vandal mob, be excited to punish him or take his life; for exercising his constitutional rights. If the law shall be found to be a dead letter in Illinois, it will soon be so in Pennsylvania and New York and Massachusetts, and mobs will regulate every thing. We hope the public authorities in Alton will so act, that these rioters may be brought to condign punishment, and the murderers of Lovejoy receive the just reward of their blood thirsty spirit.

As a palliation of the mob, it has been said that Mr. Lovejoy was the person who shot Bishop and which excited the mob. This is not the fact, and we are happy to be able to contradict it. Indeed it does not appear that Mr. Lovejoy even had any arms in his hands, at all events did not use them.

It is high time this spirit of mobbing was put a stop to.

We wish not to be understood, in what we have said, as endorsing the many visionary schemes of the abolitionists. We look upon this outrage only as it involves the liberty and independence of the press, and we do say that if the principles which may be established on this riot are carried out, our boasted liberty will soon become a name—a mere mockery!

We ask the indulgence of our liberal Patrons for the delay in the issuing of our paper; the Senior Editor is necessarily absent from town, and the Junior Editor has been seriously indisposed as to be incapacitated for business. Hereafter punctuality will be our motto.

SUDDEN DEATH.

We learn from the St. Louis Bulletin of the 23d ult., that an inquest was held on the previous day, at the National Hotel, in that city, on the body of Col. CHARLES PARENTICE, who had been found dead in his bed. The verdict of the jury was that "the deceased came to his death by apoplexy." Col. PARENTICE was a highly respectable citizen of Vandalia, Illinois; and was Register of the General Land Office, of that State. According to the testimony of a room mate he had appeared to be well and in good spirits, the evening previous to his death.

MARRIED.

On Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Henry R. Wilson, Groomer M. Phillips, Senior editor of this paper, to Miss Jane, youngest daughter of the late Mr. John Colwell, of Southampton township.

The Junior editor in acknowledging with the receipt of the above notice, a handsome slice of the wedding cake, begs leave to present his congratulations to the senior, and wishes that he, with his fair bride, may enjoy fully all the benefits of the married life, and that peace and good will may forever attend them.

On Tuesday last, by the Rev. Henry R. Wilson, Mr. John Dewar, of Southampton township, to Miss Margaret, daughter of Mr. John Chiswell of Shippensburg.

"Whether it is because we have been dabbling in matrimony ourselves, we know not, but we have received a handsome slice of cake from a gentleman, or rather we should say a lady (for they have more of the milk of human kindness about them than the gentlemen) who has, as will be seen by the above notice, been entering into that blissful state. We hope he or she, or both of them, may have as much felicity as we enjoy ourselves—more would be too much for mortal.

On Wednesday last, by the Rev. Henry R. Wilson, Mr. James HANSEN of Newville, to Miss Margaret, daughter of Mr. Johnston Williamson of Southampton township.

On the 29th inst., by the Rev. J. Ulrich, Mr. JOHN BROUGHER to Mrs. ELLEN LOUCK, both of Allen township.

In this Borough on the 30th ult., by the Rev. Daniel McKinley, ALEXANDER UNDERWOOD, to MARY ANN, both of York county.

The above notice came to us accompanied by a slice of wedding cake. People are beginning to do things the right way; not long ago, wedding cake to the printer was seldom heard of, it was thought his duty to publish every marriage that occurred in the county without the slightest remuneration. Things are different now; we have had occasion several times recently to acknowledge that we were not forgotten, amidst the wedding festivities. A long life and a merry one to every happy couple that shares their cake with the printer.

At his residence in Hopewell township, on Tuesday the 14th inst. after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian fortitude and resignation, Mr. ROBERT EARLEY, in the 66th year of his age.

On Sunday the 26th ult. Mr. ARTHUR C. CARPENTERS of Westpenningborough township, aged 79 years.

COMMUNICATED.

OBITUARY.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north-wind's breath,
And stars to set—but all
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O
DEATH!"—Hemans.

When the earth
Received thee, tears were in unyielding eyes,
And on hard cheeks, and they who deemed thy life
Redeemed of goodness, shuddered and turned pale
When thou wert gone ———— "Halleck.

To record the virtues of the dead is a duty, which, though it may excite deep feeling, and cause poignant regret, still carries with it a melancholy pleasure. Goodness can be contemplated with but one feeling, and it is sweet to look upon virtue, even when shrouded in the dark grave, and to recall the amiable and valued traits in the character of the loved friend snatched from us by the chilly grasp of death.

These reflections are occasioned by the decease of Mrs. MARY THOMPSON, consort of James Thompson, Sen. who bid adieu to this "vale of tears" on Tuesday last. The writer desires to testify to the worth of the departed. She was indeed an amiable woman; and fulfilled all the duties of life, as wife, mother and friend, with that charming simplicity of heart which gives assurance of warm attachment. It was her good lot to win by her gentleness and kindness the love of all around her, and inspire esteem without the exertion to please. Retiring and unpretending, the substantial worth of her character consisted in a pure integrity of purpose, a guileless uprightness of disposition, and a benevolence which always aimed at the happiness of those around her—and above all, she was a pious, devoted, and exemplary christian. But alas! an All-wise Providence has been pleased to remove her from the sphere of usefulness, where she was so much and so justly esteemed. The eye which always beamed in kindness is now closed; the countenance, which lately exhibited the glow of life and health, is now pale, cold and rigid as marble—the lips that were wont to smile with affection are sealed in death—the hand which often gave the pressure of friendship is stiff and motionless—the white mantle of the corpse envelops her! Her death has created a void in many hearts and her memory will not soon pass from the affections of her distressed relatives and friends. It is however, their consolation, and one which robs death of all its terrors, "to believe that her sun of life has gone down in the cloudless light—that she left this transient world in the full enjoyment of Christian Hope—that the sunny beams of a Saviour's love were shed over her hearty

At his residence in Hopewell township, on Tuesday the 14th inst. after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian fortitude and resignation, Mr. ROBERT EARLEY, in the 66th year of his age.

On Sunday the 26th ult. Mr. ARTHUR C. CARPENTERS of Westpenningborough township, aged 79 years.

COMMUNICATED.

OBITUARY.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north-wind's breath,
And stars to set—but all
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O
DEATH!"—Hemans.

When the earth
Received thee, tears were in unyielding eyes,
And on hard cheeks, and they who deemed thy life
Redeemed of goodness, shuddered and turned pale
When thou wert gone ———— "Halleck.

To record the virtues of the dead is a duty, which, though it may excite deep feeling, and cause poignant regret, still carries with it a melancholy pleasure. Goodness can be contemplated with but one feeling, and it is sweet to look upon virtue, even when shrouded in the dark grave, and to recall the amiable and valued traits in the character of the loved friend snatched from us by the chilly grasp of death.

These reflections are occasioned by the decease of Mrs. MARY THOMPSON, consort of James Thompson, Sen. who bid adieu to this "vale of tears" on Tuesday last. The writer desires to testify to the worth of the departed. She was indeed an amiable woman; and fulfilled all the duties of life, as wife, mother and friend, with that charming simplicity of heart which gives assurance of warm attachment. It was her good lot to win by her gentleness and kindness the love of all around her, and inspire esteem without the exertion to please. Retiring and unpretending, the substantial worth of her character consisted in a pure integrity of purpose, a guileless uprightness of disposition, and a benevolence which always aimed at the happiness of those around her—and above all, she was a pious, devoted, and exemplary christian. But alas! an All-wise Providence has been pleased to remove her from the sphere of usefulness, where she was so much and so justly esteemed. The eye which always beamed in kindness is now closed; the countenance, which lately exhibited the glow of life and health, is now pale, cold and rigid as marble—the lips that were wont to smile with affection are sealed in death—the hand which often gave the pressure of friendship is stiff and motionless—the white mantle of the corpse envelops her! Her death has created a void in many hearts and her memory will not soon pass from the affections of her distressed relatives and friends. It is however, their consolation, and one which robs death of all its terrors, "to believe that her sun of life has gone down in the cloudless light—that she left this transient world in the full enjoyment of Christian Hope—that the sunny beams of a Saviour's love were shed over her hearty

At his residence in Hopewell township, on Tuesday the 14th inst. after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian fortitude and resignation, Mr. ROBERT EARLEY, in the 66th year of his age.

On Sunday the 26th ult. Mr. ARTHUR C. CARPENTERS of Westpenningborough township, aged 79 years.

COMMUNICATED.

OBITUARY.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north-wind's breath,
And stars to set—but all
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O
DEATH!"—Hemans.

When the earth
Received thee, tears were in unyielding eyes,
And on hard cheeks, and they who deemed thy life
Redeemed of goodness, shuddered and turned pale
When thou wert gone ———— "Halleck.

To record the virtues of the dead is a duty, which, though it may excite deep feeling, and cause poignant regret, still carries with it a melancholy pleasure. Goodness can be contemplated with but one feeling, and it is sweet to look upon virtue, even when shrouded in the dark grave, and to recall the amiable and valued traits in the character of the loved friend snatched from us by the chilly grasp of death.

These reflections are occasioned by the decease of Mrs. MARY THOMPSON, consort of James Thompson, Sen. who bid adieu to this "vale of tears" on Tuesday last. The writer desires to testify to the worth of the departed. She was indeed an amiable woman; and fulfilled all the duties of life, as wife, mother and friend, with that charming simplicity of heart which gives assurance of warm attachment. It was her good lot to win by her gentleness and kindness the love of all around her, and inspire esteem without the exertion to please. Retiring and unpretending, the substantial worth of her character consisted in a pure integrity of purpose, a guileless uprightness of disposition, and a benevolence which always aimed at the happiness of those around her—and above all, she was a pious, devoted, and exemplary christian. But alas! an All-wise Providence has been pleased to remove her from the sphere of usefulness, where she was so much and so justly esteemed. The eye which always beamed in kindness is now closed; the countenance, which lately exhibited the glow of life and health, is now pale, cold and rigid as marble—the lips that were wont to smile with affection are sealed in death—the hand which often gave the pressure of friendship is stiff and motionless—the white mantle of the corpse envelops her! Her death has created a void in many hearts and her memory will not soon pass from the affections of her distressed relatives and friends. It is however, their consolation, and one which robs death of all its terrors, "to believe that her sun of life has gone down in the cloudless light—that she left this transient world in the full enjoyment of Christian Hope—that the sunny beams of a Saviour's love were shed over her hearty

At his residence in Hopewell township, on Tuesday the 14th inst. after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian fortitude and resignation, Mr. ROBERT EARLEY, in the 66th year of his age.

On Sunday the 26th ult. Mr. ARTHUR C. CARPENTERS of Westpenningborough township, aged 79 years.

COMMUNICATED.

OBITUARY.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north-wind's breath,
And stars to set—but all
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O
DEATH!"—Hemans.

that she anticipated an eternity of sanctified pleasure, and trusted that her name was written on the blood-bought page of everlasting love! The bitter streaming tear must flow—while the woe-worn heart must sorrow, but not without hope,

For though sunk beneath the stern commands Of Death's resistless and relentless powers; Snatched from mortality by angel hands, She'll wing her way to Eden's blooming bowers And spring triumphant o'er the gloomy tomb, Safe from the blasts of care—the storms of strife. She'll glow in colors of unfading bloom, Fed by the waters of Eternal Life.

At an election held on the 20th ult. the following persons were elected Directors of the Carlisle Bank:
Geo. A. Lyon, Thos. Carothers,
Sam'l. D. Henderson, James H. Devor,
Dan'l. Mohler, Isaac B. Parker,
Eph'm. Bosserman, Rob't. Irvine,
Sam'l. Irvine, Ed ward J. Stiles,
Geo. Metzger, Philip Weaver,
Jos. Shroom.

And at a meeting of the Board on the 27th ult. Geo. A. Lyon, Esq. was elected President.

UNITED STATES ARMY.

WANTED for the UNITED STATES ARMY, a few able-bodied citizens, between the ages of 18 and 35 years, being about 5 feet 6 inches high, of good character, and of respectable standing among their fellow citizens. None need apply to enter the service, but those who are determined to serve the period of their enlistment—which is only three years,—honestly and faithfully.

Pay of Dragoon soldiers, when mounted, $10.00 per month, and $1.00 per day for forage.

This table shows the amount of pay which enlisted soldiers, according to their respective grades, are entitled to receive for their services.

To the Sergeant-Major, Quartermaster-Sergeant, Chaplain, Musician, and Chaplain—each 16 192 576
To the 1st Ser't of a Company 15 180 540
To the 2d Ser't of a Company 14 168 504
All other Sergeants—each 12 144 432
Corporals—each 10 120 360
Buglers—each 9 108 324
Musicians 10 120 360
Privates 9 96 288
Besides the monthly pay, as above stated, one ration per day is allowed every soldier, which is amply sufficient for his subsistence—also, a large supply of comfortable and genteel clothing. Good quarters and fuel are at all times furnished, and every attention will be paid to making these men who may enlist, and are determined to serve their country in good faith, comfortable and contented with their situation. The best medical attendance is afforded, and every sick soldier; and no deduction of pay is made during the period he is unable to perform his duty. Should the soldier be disabled in the line of his duty, the laws provide a pension for him.

By the above it is seen that the pay and allowances are respectable, and that, with prudence and economy, the monthly pay of the soldier may be laid up—every thing requisite for his comfort and convenience is furnished by the Government, including his food and coffee. The prudent soldier, therefore, may readily save from $300 to $500 during his short enlistment of 3 years; and at the expiration of the term he can, if he chooses, purchase a small farm in any of western States, and there settle himself comfortably, on his own land, for the rest of his life.

RECRUITING REVENUES, Carlisle, in the frame building in East Main street, formerly used by the Volunteer printing office. December 4, 1837.—if

TO THE SUM OF TWO DOLLARS will be given to any citizen, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier, who shall bring to this Rendezvous an able-bodied recruit well formed, sound, and otherwise duly qualified, (as above described,) for the duties of a soldier, and who shall be regularly enlisted.

Prepare for Winter!!!

COLD Winter's storms are coming fast,
And wood and bread's advancing;
The poor are thinking on their wants,
The rich of balls and dancing.

The widow in her lonely cot,
With fear shrinks from the storm;
And mourns the hardness of her lot,
No fuel to keep her warm.

The orphan seeks with fearful eye,
Some friendly hand to find;
But ah! how few are willing race
Are charitable and kind!

Come old and young—both rich and poor,
And joy shall fill each heart;
There's hundreds, thousands, millions too
And each may claim a part.

Do not sigh—then do not mourn,
There's happiness in store!
At ROBINSON'S, (Dane Fortune's Friend.)
Dec. 4.

TO THE SUM OF TWO DOLLARS will be given to any citizen, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier, who shall bring to this Rendezvous an able-bodied recruit well formed, sound, and otherwise duly qualified, (as above described,) for the duties of a soldier, and who shall be regularly enlisted.

RECRUITING REVENUES, Carlisle, in the frame building in East Main street, formerly used by the Volunteer printing office. December 4, 1837.—if

TO THE SUM OF TWO DOLLARS will be given to any citizen, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier, who shall bring to this Rendezvous an able-bodied recruit well formed, sound, and otherwise duly qualified, (as above described,) for the duties of a soldier, and who shall be regularly enlisted.

Prepare for Winter!!!

COLD Winter's storms are coming fast,
And wood and bread's advancing;
The poor are thinking on their wants,
The rich of balls and dancing.

The widow in her lonely cot,
With fear shrinks from the storm;
And mourns the hardness of her lot,
No fuel to keep her warm.

The orphan seeks with fearful eye,
Some friendly hand to find;
But ah! how few are willing race
Are charitable and kind!

Come old and young—both rich and poor,
And joy shall fill each heart;
There's hundreds, thousands, millions too
And each may claim a part.

Do not sigh—then do not mourn,
There's happiness in store!
At ROBINSON'S, (Dane Fortune's Friend.)
Dec. 4.

TO THE SUM OF TWO DOLLARS will be given to any citizen, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier, who shall bring to this Rendezvous an able-bodied recruit well formed, sound, and otherwise duly qualified, (as above described,) for the duties of a soldier, and who shall be regularly enlisted.

RECRUITING REVENUES, Carlisle, in the frame building in East Main street, formerly used by the Volunteer printing office. December 4, 1837.—if

TO THE SUM OF TWO DOLLARS will be given to any citizen, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier, who shall bring to this Rendezvous an able-bodied recruit well formed, sound, and otherwise duly qualified, (as above described,) for the duties of a soldier, and who shall be regularly enlisted.

RECRUITING REVENUES, Carlisle, in the frame building in East Main street, formerly used by the Volunteer printing office. December 4, 1837.—if

Robinson's Office,
80 Balt. st. 4 doors below Franklin bank }
DRAWN numbers of the Delaware State }
Lottery, class 48—lowest prize $32 }
drawn 28th ult.:
3 63 21 44 66 39 15 40 16 31
3 23 63, sold to a citizen of Baltimore.

$40,000 HIGH PRIZE.
16th December.
$15,000—75 Prizes of $1,000.
MAGNIFICENT SCHEME.
Consolidated Lottery, Class C—to be drawn in City of Wilmington, (Del.) on SATURDAY, the 16th December, 1837; under the superintendence of Commissioners appointed by the Governor.

All persons throughout the United States disposed to try their fortune in this great lottery, are respectfully and earnestly requested to forward their orders to the subscribers without a moment's delay—an independence may be secured.

GRAND SCHEME.

1 PRIZE OF $40,000 IS 40,000	1 do 15,000 " 15,000
1 do 8,000 " 8,000	1 do 5,000 " 5,000
1 do 4,500 " 4,500	1 do 1,500 " 1,500
5 do 1,250 " 6,250	75 PRIZES OF 1,000 ARE 75,000
75 do 500 " 37,500	131st 1st 2d 3d 4th 5th 6th 7th 8th 9th 10th 11th 12th 13th 14th 15th 16th 17th 18th 19th 20th 21st 22nd 23rd 24th 25th 26th 27th 28th 29th 30th 31st 32nd 33rd 34th 35th 36th 37th 38th 39th 40th 41st 42nd 43rd 44th 45th 46th 47th 48th 49th 50th 51st 52nd 53rd 54th 55th 56th 57th 58th 59th 60th 61st 62nd 63rd 64th 65th 66th 67th 68th 69th 70th 71st 72nd 73rd 74th 75th 76th 77th 78th 79th 80th 81st 82nd 83rd 84th 85th 86th 87th 88th 89th 90th 91st 92nd 93rd 94th 95th 96th 97th 98th 99th 100th 101st 102nd 103rd 104th 105th 106th 107th 108th 109th 110th 111th 112th 113th 114th 115th 116th 117th 118th 119th 120th 121st 122nd 123rd 124th 125th 126th 127th 128th 129th 130th 131st 132nd 133rd 134th 135th 136th 137th 138th 139th 140th 141st 142nd 143rd 144th 145th 146th 147th 148th 149th 150th 151st 152nd 153rd 154th 155th 156th 157th 158th 159th 160th 161st 162nd 163rd 164th 165th 166th 167th 168th 169th 170th 171st 172nd 173rd 174th 175th 176th 177th 178th 179th 180th 181st 182nd 183rd 184th 185th 186th 187th 188th 189th 190th 191st 192nd 193rd 194th 195th 196th 197th 198th 199th 200th 201st 202nd 203rd 204th 205th 206th 207th 208th 209th 210th 211st 212nd 213th 214th 215th 216th 217th 218th 219th 220th 221st 222nd 223rd 224th 225th 226th 227th 228th 229th 230th 231st 232nd 233rd 234th 235th 236th 237th 238th 239th 240th 241st 242nd 243rd 244th 245th 246th 247th 248th 249th 250th 251st 252nd 253rd 254th 255th 256th 257th 258th 259th 260th 261st 262nd 263rd 264th 265th 266th 267th 268th 269th 270th 271st 272nd 273rd 274th 275th 276th 277th 278th 279th 280th 281st 282nd 283rd 284th 285th 286th 287th 288th 289th 290th 291st 292nd 293rd 294th 295th 296th 297th 298th 299th 300th 301st 302nd 303rd 304th 305th 306th 307th 308th 309th 310th 311st 312nd 313th 314th 315th 316th 317th 318th 319th 320th 321st 322nd 323rd 324th 325th 326th 327th 328th 329th 330th 331st 332nd 333rd 334th 335th 336th 337th 338th 339th 340th 341st 342nd 343rd 344th 345th 346th 347th 348th 349th 350th 351st 352nd 353rd 354th 355th 356th 357th 358th 359th 360th 361st 362nd 363rd 364th 365th 366th 367th 368th 369th 370th 371st 372nd 373rd 374th 375th 376th 377th 378th 379th 380th 381st 382nd 383rd 384th 385th 386th 387th 388th 389th 390th 391st 392nd 393rd 394th 395th 396th 397th 398th 399th 400th 401st 402nd 403rd 404th 405th 406th 407th 408th 409th 410th 411st 412nd 413th 414th 415th 416th 417th 418th 419th 420th 421st 422nd 423rd 424th 425th 426th 427th 428th 429th 430th 431st 432nd 433rd 434th 435th 436th 437th 438th 439th 440th 441st 442nd 443rd 444th 445th 446th 447th 448th 449th 450th 451st 452nd 453rd 454th 455th 456th 457th 458th 459th 460th 461st 462nd 463rd 464th 465th 466th 467th 468th 469th 470th 471st 472nd 473rd 474th 475th 476th 477th 478th 479th 480th 481st 482nd 483rd 484th 485th 486th 487th 488th 489th 490th 491st 492nd 493rd 494th 495th 496th 497th 498th 499th 500th 501st 502nd 503rd 504th 505th 506th 507th 508th 509th 510th 511st 512nd 513th 514th 515th 516th 517th 518th 519th 520th 521st 522nd 523rd 524th 525th 526th 527th 528th 529th 530th 531st 532nd 533rd 534th 535th 536th 537th 538th 539th 540th 541st 542nd 543rd 544th 545th 546th 547th 548th 549th 550th 551st 552nd 553rd 554th 555th 556th 557th 558th 559th 560th 561st 562nd 563rd 564th 565th 566th 567th 568th 569th 570th 571st 572nd 573rd 574th 575th 576th 577th 578th 579th 580th 581st 582nd 583rd 584th 585th 586th 587th 588th 589th 590th 591st 592nd 593rd 594th 595th 59