

CARLISLE

Tuesday, January 16, 1838.

The People's Candidates.

FOR PRESIDENT, WM. H. HARRISON. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, FRANCIS GRANGER.

Democratic Antislavery Candidate for Governor, JOSEPH RITNER.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS. We are thankful for the advice of 'A Friend' and shall endeavor to remedy the evil complained of.

'Abundant Squeezing' will excuse us for the alterations made in his 3d No. of the Rub Bug Club. The praiseworthy notice was necessary to render it suitable for our columns.

'Lines to the Moon' are declined. 'Stanzas' entitled 'Home' are tame, spiritless, and joyously put together.

'My faithful love she did reject' &c. is inadmissible. The mournful feelings of the author have interfused most sadly with the harmony and smoothness of his versification.

We shall be happy to comply with the request of S. B. T. WILLIAM R. GORRIS, Esq., and DANIEL ECKLES, Esq. will accept our thanks for various public documents, forwarded to us from Harrisburg.

The attention of our readers is called to the Message of Gov. Ritner, which will be found in another column. We shall give some remarks on it in our next.

Our neighbor of the Volunteer, following the example of the Globe, and others of the same stamp, is endeavoring to heap odium and to destroy the character of Mr. Fletcher, who it will be remembered, said some things in Boston which were too difficult of digestion, and sat particularly heavy upon the stomachs of certain ones in high places.

The editor of the Baltimore Chronicle, after saying that it was his good fortune to be present in the United States Senate, when Mr. Calhoun's resolutions were before that body, which elicited a warm debate, and in which Mr. Clay took part, remarks that 'we cannot forbear to communicate to our readers the impression it appeared to leave upon the mind of every one who heard Mr. Clay's remarks.

The Nashville Banner of the 19th ult. published the following paragraph in relation to 'The President and Ex-President'—The old chief of the Hermitage, himself, appears to have lost all hope of Mr. Van Buren's success in 'reading in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor.'

We neglected to state in our last, that the Hon. WILLIAM D. MERRICK, a talented Whig, had been elected by the Legislature of Maryland, to represent that State in the United States Senate, in the room of the lamented Gov. Kent.

Mr. Clay and the Carolines. The Baltimore Chronicle of Wednesday last, says:—On the Senate of the United States, yesterday, Mr. CLAY took occasion to express, in very strong terms, his opinion of the outrage lately committed upon the Steam Boat Caroline. He declared that nothing could justify it—that it was a deliberate, planned invasion of our Territory—made at midnight, after full preparation, and almost certainly with the knowledge of the Commander of the British forces.

Lo! the Poor Indian.

The Government of the United States seems bent on filling up the measure of its rapacity and injustice, towards the poor deluded Indians who may chance to find in the way of the covetous white man.

A pamphlet has lately been published in Philadelphia, being a letter from JOHN ROSS, the principal chief of the Cherokees to JON R. TYSON, Esq., of that city. We have not been able to obtain a copy of it, but from extracts which have been published, it appears that a system of the most wicked and disgraceful measures has been adopted by the agents of the government, to rob them of their property, and drive them from their homes and their firesides.

If we can get our hands upon this pamphlet, we will publish some extracts that the public may know some little of the means resorted to by our government to harass, oppress and drive out from their own soil, these sons of the forest, who though they may be called savages, are less savage than their civilized neighbors, the whites.

President Van Buren has issued his proclamation in reference to the existing state of things in Canada, forbidding all interference on the part of the citizens of the United States. But how comes it that in the case of Mexico and Texas, that a different course was pursued? There was no proclamation for bidding our interference then.

The editor of the Baltimore Chronicle, after saying that it was his good fortune to be present in the United States Senate, when Mr. Calhoun's resolutions were before that body, which elicited a warm debate, and in which Mr. Clay took part, remarks that 'we cannot forbear to communicate to our readers the impression it appeared to leave upon the mind of every one who heard Mr. Clay's remarks.

The Nashville Banner of the 19th ult. published the following paragraph in relation to 'The President and Ex-President'—The old chief of the Hermitage, himself, appears to have lost all hope of Mr. Van Buren's success in 'reading in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor.'

The last Volunteer publishes a letter from Gen. Jackson, in answer to this statement, in which the Gen. says, that 'neither during my [his] late visit to Nashville, nor on any other occasion, have I used any remarks to justify such a statement.'

The Berks and Schuylkill Journal has passed into the hands of Messrs. H. Rhoads and John S. Richards, who avow themselves in favor of Gen. Harrison for President, and say that they will 'earnestly advocate the re-election of Joseph Ritzen, convinced, as we are, that he has maintained the honor and dignity of the Commonwealth, in the most trying circumstances, unimpaired, and has shown a moderation and firmness in the discharge of the duties of his high office indicative of the greatest ability and the most inflexible patriotism.'

We learn from the Harrisburg Telegraph, that the 8th of January following at Harrisburg, was quite a noisy affair, and that it has since led to some brawls and fights. On the morning of the 9th, some of the first acts of the party was to cut down the hickory pole that was erected before the last election, at the south end of the market-house.

Extract of a letter to the Editor, dated PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15, 1838. Dear Sir—We have at last decided in Convention, the agitating question on the subject of incorporated corporations.

We were yesterday at 8 o'clock, in the P. M. and continued in session, without a recess until nearly 2 o'clock this morning, (10 hours). Amendment after amendment was submitted and voted down; many modifications of the original amendment submitted by Mr. Helster were made, until, at length it was brought in the following shape, and carried by a vote of 66 to 39.

Extract of a letter to the Editor, dated NAVY YARD, NEW YORK, January 5th, 1838. Welcome or unwelcome, I cannot refrain from giving you a brief history of events, and so forth, connected with and pertaining to the celebration of 'New Year' in New York, and the coadjacent city, Brooklyn.

The day was peculiarly auspicious. From morning to evening not a cloud was permitted to obscure the mild face of azure heaven. The Sun himself seemed to rise with an approving smile, and in his setting, seemed reluctant to retire from scenes so fraught with happiness and kindly feeling.

Perhaps you may not be aware that a custom prevails here, first with the early 'Knickerbockers,' of making this a day for universal visiting. Not a lady throughout the whole city, but has her table spread with choicest viands, and stands in preparation for the reception of all her friends, who are privileged to bring and introduce all their friends and friends' friends.

The Nashville Banner of the 19th ult. published the following paragraph in relation to 'The President and Ex-President'—The old chief of the Hermitage, himself, appears to have lost all hope of Mr. Van Buren's success in 'reading in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor.'

The last Volunteer publishes a letter from Gen. Jackson, in answer to this statement, in which the Gen. says, that 'neither during my [his] late visit to Nashville, nor on any other occasion, have I used any remarks to justify such a statement.'

Nothing could be more pleasant than to see the little squad of young gentlemen, with cheerfulness beaming from their countenances—skipping from house to house, with the agility of youth—calling at each but for a moment—sipping a drop of cordial or coffee—eating a pillular or turning an agreeable joke, with the fair ladies, and, if they are quite well acquainted, or even if they are not—snatching a New Year's kiss, while they—dear fascinating creatures, wear their blandest smiles, and endeavor to bear up under the exaction with becoming fortitude.

Pennsylvania Legislature

Correspondence of the Herald & Expositor. EXTRACT TO THE EDITOR, DATED HARRISBURG, JAN. 13, 1838.

In the Senate on Monday, the debate on Mr. Darragh's resolutions relative to Mr. Patton's gag-law in the House of Representatives of Congress, was continued. The first resolution being under consideration, Mr. Miller, of the city, addressed the Senate at length in opposition to it.

In the House this was petition day; and of course memorials, petitions, &c. were showered in without number. Mr. Tyson presented 94 remonstrances from the city of Philadelphia against the repeal of the Registry Act.

Mr. Rees, of the county, submitted a resolution directing the committee on Banks to make a report on or before Wednesday next, on the resolution referred to them, requiring them to enquire into the expediency of compelling the Banks to resume specie payments from the second Monday of February next.

Friday 12. Mr. Pearson, the successor of Mr. Dickey, this morning addressed the Senate in opposition to Mr. Darragh's resolutions. Much as he detested slavery, he could not but feel assured that the interference of this or any other Northern State, would but rivet closer the manacles of these poor beings.

Resolved 3d. That our delegates be left free and unbiassed, with regard to the gubernatorial question, provided they procure the nomination of our democratic fellow-citizen Green Gobler, Esq.

Resolved 4th. That Andrew Jackson, who fought in all the wars of our country; the hero of Bunker Hill, of Yorktown, and of New Orleans, and who, with his own hand, killed the tyrant of England, and General Braddock, is the only true father of his country.

Resolved 5th. That Martin Van Buren, who, with General Jackson, helped to fight all our battles, and who, with him, ate nothing but salt beef and bread, and the only one who ever wrote a letter to Sherrod Williams, was worthily appointed his successor by our beloved ex-president.

Nothing could be more pleasant than to see the little squad of young gentlemen, with cheerfulness beaming from their countenances—skipping from house to house, with the agility of youth—calling at each but for a moment—sipping a drop of cordial or coffee—eating a pillular or turning an agreeable joke, with the fair ladies, and, if they are quite well acquainted, or even if they are not—snatching a New Year's kiss, while they—dear fascinating creatures, wear their blandest smiles, and endeavor to bear up under the exaction with becoming fortitude.

MANHATTAN

Correspondence of the Herald & Expositor. EXTRACT TO THE EDITOR, DATED HARRISBURG, JAN. 13, 1838.

In the Senate on Monday, the debate on Mr. Darragh's resolutions relative to Mr. Patton's gag-law in the House of Representatives of Congress, was continued. The first resolution being under consideration, Mr. Miller, of the city, addressed the Senate at length in opposition to it.

In the House this was petition day; and of course memorials, petitions, &c. were showered in without number. Mr. Tyson presented 94 remonstrances from the city of Philadelphia against the repeal of the Registry Act.

Mr. Rees, of the county, submitted a resolution directing the committee on Banks to make a report on or before Wednesday next, on the resolution referred to them, requiring them to enquire into the expediency of compelling the Banks to resume specie payments from the second Monday of February next.

Friday 12. Mr. Pearson, the successor of Mr. Dickey, this morning addressed the Senate in opposition to Mr. Darragh's resolutions. Much as he detested slavery, he could not but feel assured that the interference of this or any other Northern State, would but rivet closer the manacles of these poor beings.

Resolved 3d. That our delegates be left free and unbiassed, with regard to the gubernatorial question, provided they procure the nomination of our democratic fellow-citizen Green Gobler, Esq.

Resolved 4th. That Andrew Jackson, who fought in all the wars of our country; the hero of Bunker Hill, of Yorktown, and of New Orleans, and who, with his own hand, killed the tyrant of England, and General Braddock, is the only true father of his country.

Resolved 5th. That Martin Van Buren, who, with General Jackson, helped to fight all our battles, and who, with him, ate nothing but salt beef and bread, and the only one who ever wrote a letter to Sherrod Williams, was worthily appointed his successor by our beloved ex-president.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

Saturday, January 13th, 1838. FLOUR.—We quote the wagon price of and the store price at $4.25 a day at $4.00 per bushels, except in retail lots at the latter price. RYE FLOUR.—Has declined. We now quote 1st from wagons at $4.75, and sales from stores have been at $5.

WHEAT.—We quote no sales of hds which were held at 35cts. Sales of bbls. at 35 a 36cts. from stores. The wagon price of bbls. is uniform at 30c. exclusive of the price. 122 hds. and 905 bbls. of which 80 hds. were received from Philadelphia.

MARRIED. On Thursday last, by the Rev. Alexander Sharp, Mr. ALEXANDER LOGAN, to Miss MARTHA MCCREA both of Frankford township. DIED. On the 7th inst. Miss LYDIA LUDWIG, aged about 30 years of East Pennsboro' township.

NOTICE. At a meeting of the Standing Committee of the Democratic Antislavery Party of Cumberland county, convened by order of public notice, to make arrangements for the election of Delegates to meet in County Convention to appoint Delegates to the Democratic Antislavery Convention to meet in Harrisburg on the 5th day of March next.

WILLIAM GRAHAM was called to the Chair, and ROBERT WILSON was appointed Secretary. On motion, it was Resolved, That the Democratic Antislavery citizens of this county meet at the several Election Districts in each borough and township, on Saturday the 27th day of January next, and elect each two Delegates to meet in County Convention on Monday the 29th day of January next, to nominate and appoint suitable Delegates to represent said county and Senatorial District in said State Convention at Harrisburg.

ROBERT WILSON, Secretary. NAILS. The subscriber, on behalf of himself and C. W. Morgan, offers for sale the DUNCANON NAILS. They are made of refined iron, and are believed to be equal in quality to the best cut nails that were ever manufactured in the United States.

NEW CUMBERLAND, JANUARY 7, 1838. We have been well acquainted with the general quality of cut nails. Those made from the Duncannon refined iron, are considered superior to those made from the best imported iron. Shubel Wilder, Roswell Woodward.

DUNCANON IRON WORKS, JAN. 8, 1838. We certify that we have carefully examined the nails manufactured by Messrs. Woodward and Wilder, at New Cumberland, out of Duncannon Iron, and do believe them to be superior to any we have ever seen used. John French, Mas. or Roller. Enoch Lewis, Carpenter & Pattern Maker.

W. L. FISHER. BARNESLEY SHEETINGS. JUST received by the subscribers 10-4 and 12-4 BARNESLEY SHEETINGS. Also, 8-4 Barnesley Table Diapers. GILBY & HITNER. Carlisle, January 16, 1838. Lumberman's Bank Notes WANTED. A few hundred Dollars in the Notes of the Lumberman's Bank, wanted, which will be purchased at a discount. Apply at this office, or address A. B. Carlisle. January 15, 1838. NOTICE. LETTERS of Administration on the estate of Martin Breneman, late of East Pennsboro' township, deceased, having issued to the subscriber, residing in said township; all persons indebted to the estate will make payment to me, and those having claims against the estate, will present them properly authenticated to the subscriber. HENRY BRENNEMAN. January 15, 1838. Register's Notice. Notice is hereby given, to all Legatees, Creditors, and all other persons concerned, that the following accounts have been filed in this Office for examination. By the accounts therein named, and will be presented to the Orphans' Court of Cumberland county, for confirmation and allowance, on Tuesday the 30th day of January, 1838.

The following gentlemen were elected Trustees of the Society of Equal Rights for 1838, viz: Messrs George Fleming, Robert Cameron, Alfred Creigh, William S. Roland, A. Handel, Jacob Weibley, L. G. Blandberry, George M. Phillips and William M. Porter. JOHN HAMPTON, Secretary.

HALL OF EQUAL RIGHTS. Carlisle, Jan. 1st 1838. The following gentlemen were elected Trustees of the Society of Equal Rights for 1838, viz: Messrs George Fleming, Robert Cameron, Alfred Creigh, William S. Roland, A. Handel, Jacob Weibley, L. G. Blandberry, George M. Phillips and William M. Porter.

JUST RECEIVED, Curled hair and Sea-grass Bed Mattresses, and for sale by CHAS. BARNITZ. 50 DOZ. MOCK SHELL COMBS, for sale, by CHAS. BARNITZ. JUST received from the Pig-Tobacco Co. warranted No. 1 which will be sold at wholesale and retail prices. Also common SE-GARS. CHAS. BARNITZ.