Having for the last three years, been intimated by acquainted with Dr. John Beckwith, of this city, and enjoyed his professional services, I take pleasure in stating that his character as a christian gentleman and experienced Physician, entitles his testimony, in regard to the use of his Anti-Dyspeptic Pills, to the entire confidence of the public. My experience of the good effects of these Pills, for two years past, satisfies me of their eminent value, particularly in aiding in impaired digestion and warding off bilious attacks, I was in the habit of resorting for security against them, and with very partial success, to a termaster Sergeant, Ch'f Mu-sician, & Ch'f Bugler—each To the 1st Ser't of a Company Ordnance Sergeants . PINK EXPECTORANT SYRUP.

An agreeable cordial, and effective remedy for Coughs, Hoarseness, Colds, Pains in the Breast, Hard Breathing, and Difficult expectoration.

For Adults & Children in cold climates and warm.

The proprietors are aware that there are many remedies for coughs and diseases of the lungs; some no doubt are good, but it has remained to a late day to discover an article so admirably fitted to these complaints; so powerful and effectual, and yet so perfectly innocent and mild.

Expect TORANT SYRUP.

I find my stomach and bowels are becoming deranged, I resort the these Pills and invariably find relief. I have heard a number of persons speak of the benefits they have received from these Pills, in the most decided terms. I am well acquainted—with—Doctor Beckwith; he for a time resided in this place, and was my family Physician. His own testimony with regard to the use of his Anti-Dyspeptic Pills may be fully relied on.

Let not the public class the scientific result of a learned Physician and Divine with the nostrums of the day. Let them make a careful perusal of the evidences attending this article; their respectability, and the decided manner in which they speak, and they cannot withhold their belief to some of its virtues. Let us assure them that a single trial of it will do more to convince all of its merits, than all they can see or hear or reputation at the North, as respectable and exceptions. all of its merits than all they can see or hear on the subject. It is quite certain that no injury tensive as they have secured, where they have been long known at the South.

THO An uncommon fact is, that this remedy is a syrup, as palatably and pleasant to the taste as the most popular French cordials and children take it always with the greatest readiness. The proprietors are now making rapid arrangements to have this arricle in the hands of every druggist and anothecary in the country. It may be known to be genuine, by the following signa-ture as below of the Rev. Gentleman and Phym who is the author of it.

Which he has fitted up in handsome style, for the accommodation of the public. His table is well supplied with the best the mar, ket affords; his bar with the choicest of liquors and wines, and prompt and obliging servants are kept always ready to attend to the wents of customers.

the wants of customers.

He has taken the stand with a determina. tion to spare no pains or expense to make his house equal to any in the country, by keepings every department ander the superintendence of the most competent and faithful; and, by personal attention, to give every satisfaction to his customers. He therefore respectfully requests those who pay Harrisburg a visit, to call and test the truth of his assertions.
