

CARLISLE.

Tuesday, February 27, 1838.

The People's Candidates. FOR PRESIDENT, WM. H. HARRISON. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, FRANCIS GRANGER. Democratic Antislavery Candidate for Governor, JOSEPH WITNER.

Rail Road Meeting.

A meeting of the citizens of Cumberland county will be held at the Public House of the Messrs. Macfarlane, on THURSDAY EVENING, the 1st of March, for the purpose of appointing Delegates to a State Convention, to be held at Harrisburg on the 6th of March next, to adopt measures to connect the cities of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Cleveland, Ohio, by a Rail Road. It is hoped that all who feel an interest in the Cumberland Valley Rail Road will attend. MANY. Carlisle, Feb. 27, 1838.

Cumberland County Lyceum.

A meeting of the Cumberland County Lyceum will be held at Shippensburg, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Wednesday the 7th day of March next, exercises as follows: At one o'clock, P. M., the meeting will be opened by an address by President Dunning, President of the Lyceum, which will be followed by a discussion of the following questions: Would our Common Schools succeed better, if supported mainly by the bounty of the State, or by direct taxation? At 7 o'clock in the evening, an Address will be delivered by Professor Caldwell, on some subject connected with general education; after which any miscellaneous business will be attended to. It is hoped that the members of the Lyceum will be generally present; and that the local Lyceums of the county will be well represented. The friends of good learning throughout the county are respectfully invited to attend. ROBERT CAMERON, Secy.

Our readers are referred to the opposite page for an abstract of the eloquent speech of the Hon. HENRY CLAY on the Sub-Treasury scheme.

We wait with anxiety for a full report of this mighty effort of a noble mind.

The Hon. Mr. THOMAS, the new Senator from Mississippi, pronounces the Executive scheme of an exclusive metallic currency, "entirely impracticable, and unusual to the habits, circumstances, and commercial prosperity of the people of the United States."

A great Temperance Festival was held by the friends of the temperance cause on the evening of the 22d instant, in the Arch Street Theatre, Philadelphia, every part of which was crowded. The number present was estimated to be not less than 2,000. Addresses were delivered by Mr. Buckingham, member of the British Parliament, and several other distinguished gentlemen.

Westmoreland County.

We learn from the Westmoreland Intelligencer that one of the largest meetings of the friends of the State Administration ever held in that county, was held on Tuesday last in Greensburg. The Intelligencer remarks, that "all present seemed to take a lively interest in the proceedings, and what to us was most gratifying—all were for Harrison and Ritner." The resolutions and resolutions adopted, we feel persuaded, speak the sentiments of the honest yeomanry of the county, and from the interest manifested at the meeting, we venture to predict that "Old Westmoreland" will next October tell a tale that will be a "caution" to the friends of His Sub-Treasury Highness Martin Van Buren, and their Sub-Treasury candidate for Governor, whoever he may be. William Graham, Christian Painter and John Armstrong, Esqrs. were appointed delegates to the 5th of March Convention.

The Intelligencer of Lancaster appears to be enjoying himself at the expense of the honesty of our country.

In his paper of the 15th inst. he gives a long string of errors corrected by the Antislavery press. We know that honesty belongs to the party, and whenever they may have betrayed into an erroneous statement against their opponents, they are prompt to make the antislavery honorable as soon as they discover their error. We wish we could say as much for the Van Buren or Tory press. The correction of false statements is a sin that does not lie at their doors—for proof see Lancaster Intelligencer, in the case of Mr. Webster and Sabbath breaking, also Carlisle Volunteer in the case of Mr. Fletcher. "We might, if we chose, multiply these instances."

When will the Carlisle Volunteer take the political honesty to tell its readers that in the charges which they brought against the Hon. Mr. Fletcher, they lied under a mistake.

Murder!

By the following letter, which we extract from a Philadelphia paper, it will be seen that another honorable effigy has come off at Washington. When shall such things have an end? W. A. W. Esq., Feb. 24, 1838. Dear Sir—I have only time to say that great excitement prevails here this evening, in consequence of a fatal rencounter between Messrs. Graves, of Kentucky, and Gilley, of Maine. They fought with rifles, commencing at one hundred paces and closing, ten after each fire. They fired three times without effect. The fourth shot at seventy paces, proved fatal to Mr. Gilley—the ball passing through his body and causing almost instant death. The parties with the corpse were in town about five o'clock this evening. The challenge grew out of a charge made by Mr. Gilley against Messrs. Wise and Menifee, as seconds, and Dr. B. as surgeon, Mr. Gilley by Messrs. Bynum of North Carolina, and Jones of Wisconsin, as seconds, and Dr. Duncany, of Ohio, as surgeon.

The Globe—the Volunteer—and the United States Bank.

Mr. Gentry, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, has a very able and judicious report on the subject of Mr. Bidle's late flagrant and arbitrary overthrow of the old charter of the Bank of the United States, to establish a new establishment. The report shows that, without a semblance of right, in direct contravention of the charter, he sequestered all the property of the old bank for the benefit of the new—that he took no steps towards a settlement and liquidation of the affairs and accounts of the corporation, as expressly required by the charter—that he presented no schedule of the debts and effects, and alleged the General Government no access to the accounts of an institution which it was bound to see honestly closed, that, instead of winding up the concern, and cancelling the notes two years, he now reports nearly SIXTEEN MILLIONS of its paper on hand as a banking fund, and is actually passing out millions of this money, after the execution in default, as a circulating medium. In a word, that the president has bled the two banks, and gone on with both, in utter disregard of all law.

The above from the Globe, is extracted into the columns of the Volunteer of last week, and no doubt exhibits the sentiments of that venerable print. That Mr. Gentry should have presented a report such as the Globe allude to, is a matter of astonishment to us, when he must have had before him the resolution of transfer made by the old United States Bank, and that of acceptance by the new State Institution of the same name.

The Globe says, "the report shows that he [Mr. Bidle] sequestered all the property of the old bank for the benefit of the new." "took no steps towards a settlement and liquidation of the affairs and accounts of the corporation." "presented no schedule of the debts and effects, and alleged the General Government no access to the accounts of the institution." The resolutions below will show how far all this is in accordance with truth. When the State of Pennsylvania granted a charter for a bank to be called the United States Bank of Pennsylvania, it was to be the old United States Bank, and being agreeable to those concerned in it, arrangements were made for going into operation under it. Mr. Bidle resigned the Presidency of the old Bank, and was unanimously elected to that of the new institution. MATTHEW L. BEVAN was elected to the situation resigned by Mr. Bidle, and the two independent boards of directors existed. For any act of the directors of the old bank, Mr. Bidle was not responsible after his resignation, nor had he any power to sequester the property of the old bank. The charge of sequestration, therefore, falls to the ground.

The next charge, that "he took no steps towards a settlement and liquidation," &c. &c. is equally unfounded. It will be seen that, although no longer connected with the old United States Bank, he did take steps to accomplish this, when as President of the new State Bank, he, with the directors engaged, and bound themselves to "pay, satisfy, and discharge all debts, contracts and engagements, owing, entered into, or made by the old United States Bank. If in this there were no steps taken for a settlement and liquidation of the affairs of the corporation," we know not how any steps could be taken. In the resolution of acceptance there was a positive engagement on the part of the State Bank to redeem every dollar of the paper of the old bank then in circulation, nor is there any evidence that in a solitary instance this engagement was not performed; but on the contrary FOURTEEN MILLIONS of dollars of this paper has already been redeemed, leaving but about six millions in circulation, and which are in a course of payment. These six millions are in the hands of those who prefer them to any other paper, as they know they are perfectly secure; the State Bank being pledged for their redemption whenever they may be presented; while they are actually at a premium over other bank paper in different parts of the country.

That the old United States Bank "presented no schedule of the debts and effects of the institution and allowed the General Government no access to its accounts," is so barefaced an untruth that we will not stop to notice it, or even to express our surprise at Mr. Grundy for uttering it.

As to the right of the State Bank to issue the notes of the old bank, we deem it unnecessary to say much. No one denies the right of the Carlisle Bank to issue the notes of the Cumberland or the Harrisburg, or any other bank, and yet the Carlisle Bank is not responsible for one dollar of the paper so issued. No one finds fault with it for so doing; nor questions its right to do it. The State Bank of the United States issues the paper of the old United States Bank, as it does of any other bank, to any one who may prefer it; but how? Without responsibility for its redemption when demanded? By no means. It has engaged and bound itself to do this whenever it is desired by the holder. Where is there any thing wrong in all this? It would require a telescopic eye to discover it; for it is an old saw. "He must have optics sharp as I wren."

To see what is not to be seen." The objection, however, is urged that the old United States Bank no longer exists, and that therefore issuing its paper is a fraud upon the public. Indeed, let those who make this objection remember that it will not cease to exist until the 4th of March next, and then, when it does, will have a good, substantial and responsible Executive, who has ample means of his own, and has pledged them for the payment of every note in circulation.

All this hue and cry, however, against our State Bank arises entirely from party purposes, and is raised to call off public attention from the nefarious schemes of the present unprincipled administration.

Having already exceeded the limits we had prescribed for our remarks, we close by copying the following proceedings of the respective Boards of the old and new United States Banks, which proceedings were communicated to the Secretary, and by him to Congress, and are published among the public documents.

"At a meeting of the Directors of the Bank of the United States, held March 2, 1838: "A communication was received from Matthew L. Bevan, Esq. President of the Bank of the U. S., incorporated by Congress, containing the resolutions adopted at a meeting of the stockholders of the institution, held on the 30th day of February last, among which resolutions was the following, to wit: "Resolved, That all and singular the money, bonds, contracts, rights, credits, and personal estate whatsoever, owned by, or owing to, the said bank, in the custody and possession of this bank, wheresoever the same may be, together with all evidences and securities for the same, be, and the same are, hereby assigned, transferred and conveyed to the President, Directors and Company of the Bank of the United States incorporated by the State of Pennsylvania, for the following considerations and upon the following terms and conditions: that is to say: 1. That the President, Directors and Company of the Bank of the United States incorporated by the State of Pennsylvania, with and out of the same, pay, satisfy, and discharge all debts, contracts and engagements, owing, entered into, or made by this bank, as the same shall become due and payable, and fulfil and execute all trusts and obligations whatsoever arising from its transactions, or from any of them, so that every creditor, or other rightful claimant shall be fully satisfied.

Whereupon, on motion of Mr. Sergeant, it was Resolved, That this bank does hereby assent and agree to the said resolution, and to each and every part thereof, and to all and singular the trusts, terms and conditions, in the said resolutions, and each and every of them contained, and does hereby engage and bind itself to perform and execute the several duties and engagements therein stipulated to be performed and executed—and will, when thereunto required, make and execute any other assurance that may be deemed necessary."

Resolved, That this bank does hereby assent and agree to the said resolution, and to each and every part thereof, and to all and singular the trusts, terms and conditions, in the said resolutions, and each and every of them contained, and does hereby engage and bind itself to perform and execute the several duties and engagements therein stipulated to be performed and executed—and will, when thereunto required, make and execute any other assurance that may be deemed necessary."

Resolved, That this bank does hereby assent and agree to the said resolution, and to each and every part thereof, and to all and singular the trusts, terms and conditions, in the said resolutions, and each and every of them contained, and does hereby engage and bind itself to perform and execute the several duties and engagements therein stipulated to be performed and executed—and will, when thereunto required, make and execute any other assurance that may be deemed necessary."

Resolved, That this bank does hereby assent and agree to the said resolution, and to each and every part thereof, and to all and singular the trusts, terms and conditions, in the said resolutions, and each and every of them contained, and does hereby engage and bind itself to perform and execute the several duties and engagements therein stipulated to be performed and executed—and will, when thereunto required, make and execute any other assurance that may be deemed necessary."

Resolved, That this bank does hereby assent and agree to the said resolution, and to each and every part thereof, and to all and singular the trusts, terms and conditions, in the said resolutions, and each and every of them contained, and does hereby engage and bind itself to perform and execute the several duties and engagements therein stipulated to be performed and executed—and will, when thereunto required, make and execute any other assurance that may be deemed necessary."

Resolved, That this bank does hereby assent and agree to the said resolution, and to each and every part thereof, and to all and singular the trusts, terms and conditions, in the said resolutions, and each and every of them contained, and does hereby engage and bind itself to perform and execute the several duties and engagements therein stipulated to be performed and executed—and will, when thereunto required, make and execute any other assurance that may be deemed necessary."

Resolved, That this bank does hereby assent and agree to the said resolution, and to each and every part thereof, and to all and singular the trusts, terms and conditions, in the said resolutions, and each and every of them contained, and does hereby engage and bind itself to perform and execute the several duties and engagements therein stipulated to be performed and executed—and will, when thereunto required, make and execute any other assurance that may be deemed necessary."

Resolved, That this bank does hereby assent and agree to the said resolution, and to each and every part thereof, and to all and singular the trusts, terms and conditions, in the said resolutions, and each and every of them contained, and does hereby engage and bind itself to perform and execute the several duties and engagements therein stipulated to be performed and executed—and will, when thereunto required, make and execute any other assurance that may be deemed necessary."

Resolved, That this bank does hereby assent and agree to the said resolution, and to each and every part thereof, and to all and singular the trusts, terms and conditions, in the said resolutions, and each and every of them contained, and does hereby engage and bind itself to perform and execute the several duties and engagements therein stipulated to be performed and executed—and will, when thereunto required, make and execute any other assurance that may be deemed necessary."
