WASHINGTON HOTEL.

Market Square, Harrisburg, Pa.

Geo. W. Johnston. RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he has taken the Public House, lately kept by Mr. John Smull, at the corner of Market Square, Harrisburg, known as the

WASHINGTON HOTEL,

Which he has fitted up in handsome style, for the accommodation of the public. His table is well supplied with the best the mar-tet affords; his the with the choicest of hi-quoits and wines, and prompt and obliging servants are kept always ready to attend to the wants of customers. He has taken the stand with a determina-to to spare no pains or expense to make his house equal to any in the country, by keeping every department under the superintendence of the most competent and faithful; and, by personal attention, to give every satisfaction to his customers. He therefore respectfully requests those who pay Harrisburg a visit, to call and test the truth of his assertions. GEO. W. JOHNSTON. January 8, 1838. Encourage-your own-Manufactu-rers. FOR RENT.

THE Corner house and store room, newly be my state until about twelve months ago, when on the recommendation of Major John Beard, I began to try Beckwith's Anti Dyspeptic Pills; I soon found relief from them, and have since taken no other medicine whatever. Whenever I find my stomach and bowels are becoming de ranged, I resort to these Pills and invariably find relief. I have heard a number of persons speak of the benefits they have received from these Pills, in the most decided terms. I am well acsiculated for two or more families with a lot of ruins, in the most decided terms. I am wen ac-round, and a double Stable. Possession will be quainted with Doctor Beckwith; he for a time resided in this place, and was my family Physi-resided in this place, and was my family Physi-cian. His own testimony with regard to the use of his Anti-Dyspeptic Pills may be fully relied ground, and a double Stable. Possession will be given on the first day of April next ; for terms
