Another Porter Failure-Union and Harmonv.

We learn from the Bradford Argus, that "the great Porter Meeting" that was to be, was held in the Court House of that county on the 27th ult., and proved to be a decided failure. A "beg. garly account of empty boxes" was presented to Correspondence of the Herald & Expositor. the view of the astounded spectators, who, from the great preparations which had been made, no doubt expected to see the Court House "full to overflowing." But alas! vain are the hopes of man; the faithful only attended to the number of more than twenty persons at a democratic meeting in the democratic county of Bradford. Tis so, dear reader; and then after they got there what fine sport they had ; kicking and cuffing each other at a round rate, and all this because they could'nt agree about the Sub-Treasury business. But let us hear the editor of the Argus.
