of their liberality.

In conclusion, permit me to say, that it is due to the honor of the State, and to all interested in this bill, that its provisions should be fully and faithfully executed. This can be accomplished certainly and promptly, by compelling the Bank of the United States to take the loan, under her charter, at four per cent. That measure is accordingly recommended, together with a provision for the re-payment of the sum already due.
JOS. RITNER.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, ?

A GLORIOUS VICTORY !!

The Corporation election has just terminated in the City of New York, and was one of the coal company—yeas 20, nays 6, greatest contests perhaps ever known in the United States. Within a fraction of 40,000 votes were polled-probably 10,000 more than were provement bill have not yet reported, and ever polled in the city before. It was a death struggle with the Loco-focos-all their hopes of is looked for in the morning. power and place depended on that contest, and from all appearances they used freely the means of the General Government to carry so desirable a contest: but all would not do. The Whigs vention. have re-elected Mr. Clark, Mayor, and a majority of the Counsel. It is probably a Waterloo affair, as it most likely will prostrate the Loco-foco party in that city for the present.

Governor's Message.

We hasten to lay before our readers the Governor's Message, returning the internal improve- the vote of yesterday, on the bill to incorment bill with his signature, and we ask for it an porate the Offerman coal company, which Mr Samuel Ziegler, to Miss Maria Baker, both attentive and careful perusal. The governor has had been vetoed by the Governor; and the bill then passed 49 to 24—as close a vote as J. H. Brown, Mr Caleb Itanek, of Franklin cor, with manly firmness and decision, and we have could well have been given. After the vote indicate, to Miss Jane Bullock, of the former with manly firmness and decision, and we have no hesitation in believing that his conduct will meet the approbation of the community of all parties. The Improvement Bill is an objectionable one in several respects, but is less so, than tive, but leave was not granted. when it was placed in the hands of the Committee of Conference. But the Governor had to the evil consequences which would have followed committee. The bill is reduced to about its veto. Had he placed his veto upon it, what 1,900,000 dollars, and the Union canal, Ma would have been the consequence? He would have had to call an extra session of the present Legislature, or, to have permitted the public stricken out, and most of the appropriations become idle and useless !! The last alternative would have been absolute ruin to the state-and the first attended with evils nearly as form dable. The Governor therefore has, in giving his signar strike-out entire sections after they have ture to the bill, done that which, under all the circumstances, he was bound as a patriot to do. Without enlarging further we submit the message to the reader.

The Legislature of this State adjourned to-day, sine die.

The Young Men's Convention.

'We are gratified to see movements all over the State preparatory to the holding of a Young Men's State Convention at Reading. From pressent appearances it will most likely be a numerously attended and spirited assemblage.
