

THE GARLISLE HERALD AND EXPOSITOR.

PUBLIC MEETING.

in currency, renders the only money it will receive in payment almost inaccessible to its debtor...

No in respect to foreigners. We owe a large debt to France and England. Why should we destroy the value of our only means of paying it?

There prevails a notion that the credit of the country abroad will be injured by not resuming. Not in the least. Every body connected with America knew the reasons of suspending...

VI. We come now to the question whether if an early resumption be practicable, the month of May is a fit time. My impression is that the month of May is a very unfit time.

reached Europe by the month of May. The spring is, moreover, the season when the credits given for the shipments of southern and western produce...

VII. It remains now to inquire how far these general views of the expediency of a resumption in May should be changed by the determination of the banks of the city of New York to resume at that period.

For the gentlemen of New York who announced that decision, I have great personal respect, and under ordinary circumstances would willingly yield my own convictions to their better opportunities and understanding.

What the foreign creditor wants is the payment of the debt, not in a better currency, but in an equal currency, or, if necessary, in an inferior currency, because he can better support a high rate of remittance than a reduced or postponed payment.

The state of our currency is a very subordinate concern. You deal with them and pay them in their own currency. They know little and care less about the sort of currency in which you deal with them.

They are straining every nerve to pay their debts. Their crops are going forward to provide funds in Europe and at the North. The banks are laboring to meet their notes at the North.

The Banks should remain exactly as they are—preparing to resume, but not yet resuming. They should begin, as the Bank of England did, under similar circumstances...

will pursue, employing in the mean time their whole power to forward the crops to market. The American banks should do in short what the Army did at New Orleans...

These are my opinions very deliberately formed, and very frankly expressed. They are thus set forth, not to influence the course of others, but to explain my own.

With great respect and esteem, yours, NICHOLAS BIDDLE. PHILADELPHIA, April 5, 1838.

The Convention of Bank Delegates assembled at New York last week. At the time of writing this, we have not received its proceedings in full.

The meeting organized by calling Mr. JOSEPH MIFFLIN to the chair, and appointed Messrs. G. W. HAMILT and J. C. MOODY, Vice Presidents, and J. P. Burns, Secretary.

Proceedings were commenced with an appropriate address by one of the young men, on the object of meeting—preaching the wicked infatuation exhibited in the fore-front of many of the characteristic movements of the day—exhibiting the dangerous tendency of all violations of law, especially when they emanate from a source whence the laws should have zealous protection, and by those whose example must have acknowledged influence in community.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted, as expressive of the common sentiments of this community on the subject, viz:

Resolved, That duelling is a vestige of ancient barbarism, practiced only among men void of the fear of God, and destitute of moral principle.

Resolved, That while we deplore the melancholy death of the Hon. Mr. Cilley, late member of Congress, we not only think he died as the fool dieth, but believe him guilty of self-destruction.

Resolved, That while we deplore the melancholy death of the Hon. Mr. Cilley, late member of Congress, we not only think he died as the fool dieth, but believe him guilty of self-destruction.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by its officers and published.

On motion, the meeting adjourned. JOSEPH MIFFLIN, President. G. W. HAMILT, V. Pres't. J. C. MOODY, Secretary.

BALLOON EXPLOSION. The Louisville Journal of the 10th inst. has the following particulars of an accident that occurred to Mr. Clayton on Tuesday, at about half past two o'clock, whilst Mr. Clayton's balloon was undergoing the process of inflation, the gas, from some unknown cause, took fire and exploded with a noise like the discharge of artillery.

From the Village Record. BANK CONVENTION. The Convention of Bank Delegates assembled at New York last week. At the time of writing this, we have not received its proceedings in full.

From the United States Gazette. NEW YORK BANKS. The New York banks are certainly entitled to the credit of adroitness. They have collected the banks from other parts of the Union, urging upon them the necessity of an immediate resumption, by which alone, faith and honor, and character can be preserved.

THE SHIN-PLASTER PARTY. We observe that some of the Loco Foco organs have the assurance to call the friends of the State Administration "the friends of shin-plasters," because they voted against a resolution to oblige the banks to open their vaults, to be plundered by the banks of other states, before the banks of other states would resume specie payment.

We have never seen impudence exceed this. With the fact staring them in the face, that the General Government has issued ten millions of shin-plasters, and are now asking the privilege to issue TEN MILLIONS MORE—and that almost every Van Buren corporation, borough or county in the Commonwealth have issued thousands of shin-plasters, it is as vain as it is ridiculous for them to attempt to cast off the name of "THE SHIN PLASTER PARTY," while the people have the means of information. And a Loco Foco who attempts to deny these facts, will be laughed at by persons of common sense.

But independent of this, we have a direct test on this question. In the passage of the famous Loco Foco bank bill through the House of Representatives, Mr. Garrettson proposed a section more effectually to prevent the issuing of shin-plasters, for which EVERY ANTI-MASON and EVERY FRIEND OF STATE ADMINISTRATION VOTED. Those who voted AGAINST the section are ALL VAN BURNE MEN.—Here we have them. In the negative voted Messrs. Brooks, Clark, Coplan, Crisim, Dimock, (Susq.) Pegely, Geiger, Gilmore, Goldsmith, Hook, James, Laverty, Leech, M'Elwee, Porter, Pray, Reynolds, (Luzerne) Ritter, Ryan, Sipes, Smith, Stevenson, Taylor, Thompson, Walborn, Woodburn and Yost.—Pennsylvania Telegraph.

We learn from the Bedford Gazette, that the federal, alias loco foca party, have opened a tavern in the borough of Bedford for the accommodation of the faithful. The name of this electioneering shop is to be called Jackson's Hotel, where all kind of "devilish stuff" can be had, including Porter. Extra Globes and taverns are to be plenty in the state this summer. Porter is to wash all down, and is pleasant doses for drunkards; but such a sober man cannot & will not take.—Hav. Chronicle
