WHISKEY—Is nearly steady; sales in bbls at 32; hhds 30 a 29½ cents per gallon. Receipts light .- Penn'a Inquirer.

Baltimore, June 2, 1338.

FLOUR-The market has been quie throughout the week, and sales from stores limited. Prices are without change, viz,

$1,75 per bushel, as in quality. The ag-gregate of these parcels was about five usand bushels, and equals in amount the quantity of domestic wheat which has appeared at market during the preceding two months. A parcel of about 10,000 bushels of Wheat from Chili direct reached the market this week in 67 days passage. It is white, of handsome large grain in good order, and about 5000 bushels of it have been taken to-day by millers at $1,75. This is the first parcel which has been imported into the United States from the Pacific, the trade in breadstuffs heretofore having always been from the former to the latter. We have also to note the sale of about 12,000 bushels European red wheats within a day or two past, at $1,70 a $1,75, according to sold separately. This property was formerly occurrently.

Corn.—In the early part of the week sales of white were made at 68 a 70 cents for ordinary to good. We quote the range of prices to-day, at 68 a 71 cents, as in quality. Yellow was sold early in the week at 70 cents, but a little improvement has since taken place, and we quote to-day by at 72 a 73 cents.

Rye.-A sale of very good Md. (E. Shore,) Rye was made yesterday at 92

Oats.—Are rather scarce, at 33 a 34 cents. WHISKEY .- 'The sales of hhds. have been moderate throughout the week, at the uniform rate of 32 dc. Sales of bbls. from stores at 34 a 351 cts.—The wagon price of bbls. is now 29 a 30c., exclusive of the barrel. The inspections of the week comprise 302 hhds. and 1357 bbls, of which 235 hhds. and 164 bbls. were received from the Susquehanna.—Balt. American.

at Sterrett's Gap,

7 miles North of Carlisle, and 14 miles West of Harrisburg, where he solicits a share of public patronage. His table shall be filled with the best the markets will afford; his Bar is supplied with choice Liquors. Also stabling, with all the necessary provision for horses, and attended with a careful hostler.

To diose unacquainted with the place, he would state, that it is situated on a fine healthy part of the country, with a splendid view of Cumberland Valley, from the observatory, exactly on the top of the Blue Mountain, at the junction of the State roads, from Harrisburg to Landisburg and Bloomfield, and from Carlisle to Clark's Ferry. Persons wishing to spend a few weeks in the country, during the warm weather, could not find a more comfortable place, it being between, and within but 23 miles of the Carlisle Sulphur Springs, Cumberland county, and 8 miles from the Warm Springs, Perry county. Cold or warm baths in fine order at any time. He hopes that by strict attention to business and a disposition to please, to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

Forgurding and Commission

House, WEAVER & MILLIAMS

HAVE taken that large and commodious WARE-HOUSE, lately erceted on the Canal and Rail Road, below the foot of Chestnut street, Harrisburg, where their arrangements are such that they can at all times forward produce and merchandize with promptness and despatch, to the following places, viz:

Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Colum: itu, Baltimore, Carlisle, Chambersburg, and all intermediate places.

They have lately entered into arrangements so as to enable them to send any produce or goods by way of the Pennsylvania Canal and Columbia Railroad, to Philadelphia, at the same prices charged by other companies running on the Union canal, thus gaining three days in time, and delivering goods in Broad street, avoiding the usual expense of hauling from the Schuylkill. THEY WILL PURCHASE Grain, Flour, and country produce of every description, and keep constantly on hand coal, plaster, fish and salt for sale.
