

DAVID R. PORTER'S INSOLVENCY.

The fact that David R. Porter has "taken the benefit" of the insolvent laws has often been advertised to—

FROM PORTER'S HOME.

We extract the following from the proceedings of a public meeting held at Williamsburg in Huntingdon county:

ANOTHER SCREW LOOSE!!!

GREENFIELD, Pa. May 27, 1838. To the Editor of the Inquirer:

DEAR SIR—I have seen my name in the Bedford Gazette, as one of the Committee of Vigilance for Greenfield township, favorable to the Jackson Van Buren candidate, Deputy Rittenhouse Porter.

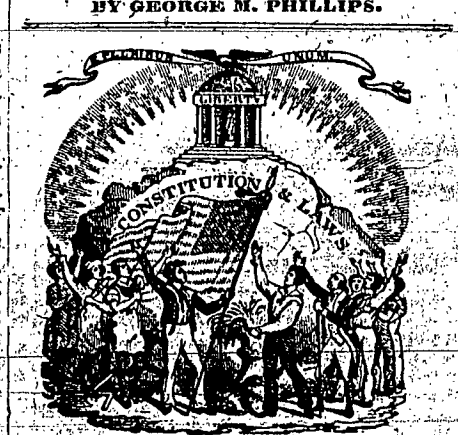

MARTIN HOOVER, sen. JACOB NICODEMUS, ABRAHAM SMITH, JACOB KEAGY, Woodbury, May 29, 1838.

BASE IMPOSITION.

"Waking up the wrong Passengers." The following statement signed by several respectable citizens of Bedford county, and published in the Democratic Inquirer of said county, will show the base tricks practiced by the Van Buren Porters on the unwary!

When we were informed that our names were used as members of the Committee of Vigilance for South Woodbury by the friends of Riten, we told those who brought us the information that it was our wish to withdraw from said Committee, as we took no part in political meetings.

HERALD & EXPOSITOR.

CARLISLE. TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 19, 1838.

The People's Candidates, FOR PRESIDENT, WM. H. HARRISON, FOR GOVERNOR, JOSEPH RITNER.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We have a large number of communications on hand, which shall find a place in our columns as soon as room therein can be provided.

In the Senate of the United States, on Wednesday, Mr. Webster submitted a resolution, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for a copy of any circular he may have issued since the passage of the Joint Resolution of June 1st, prohibiting any discrimination in the moneys receivable for public dues.

RETIREDNESS AND REFORM.—Let every citizen who is a real friend of economy, and who would oppose and rebuke extravagant expenditures in our public affairs, bear this in mind.—The Jackson Van Buren party came into power with the words Retrenchment and Reform on their lips, and what have they done?

MR. DONN'S SPEECH.—In 1826, Mr. Benton, in his Retrenchment Report, among other things, gave a list of the officers of the New-York Custom House, with their salaries.

ARRIVAL OF THE GREAT WESTERN.—We learn from the Philadelphia Inquirer of yesterday morning, that the "Great Western" steamship left New York on Sunday morning last, from England, after a passage of fourteen days and a half.

THE GOVERNMENTAL CAMPAIGN has fully set in, and the votable inhabitants are rapidly making up their minds for which of the two candidates they will cast their suffrages.

THE GOVERNMENTAL CAMPAIGN has fully set in, and the votable inhabitants are rapidly making up their minds for which of the two candidates they will cast their suffrages.

THE GOVERNMENTAL CAMPAIGN has fully set in, and the votable inhabitants are rapidly making up their minds for which of the two candidates they will cast their suffrages.

OUR BOURN.

As the period of the year is close at hand, when the man of business and the man of pleasure, escape from the turmoil and anxieties of a city life, to exchange the confined and sultry heat of its crowded thoroughfares, for the bland refreshing breezes of the country, it may not be amiss to recommend, our borough and its vicinity, as an eminently calculated to answer all their desires.

Among the places of resort in our neighborhood are the "Carlisle Springs," favorably known for their valuable medicinal properties.

TO THOSE WHO ARE DISPOSED TO BE INTELLECTUAL, we would say, that we have Dickinson College, with her three Libraries—her well selected Museum, and her noble Philosophical Apparatus to which, with certain restrictions, visitors can always have access.

THE VOLUNTEER of last week contains a black-guard article from the Huntingdon Advocate, abusing the private character of the editor of the Huntingdon Journal.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING.—On the 10th of April we extracted an article from the "Montrose Spectator," in which was the following paragraph.

EVERY PERSON must see that this word "where" was intended to be when, and was doubtless so written, but was mistaken by the compositor for "where," and overlooked in the proof sheet.

THE VOLUNTEER of last week, as usual, contains a goodly number of falsehoods. In looking over its columns, we became fully satisfied that "where" is at least one paper in Carlisle, that would readily assent to either the "Washington Globe" or the "Harrisburg Keystone" in the laudable employment of circulating the most glaring falsehoods against honest men.

DAVID R. PORTER AND THE MAMMOTH IMPROVEMENT BILL.

The reader recollects the large Appropriation Bill which passed the Legislature at the session of 1836-7, which authorized the expenditure of THREE MILLIONS THIRTY-ONE THOUSAND AND NINE HUNDRED AND FORTY-THREE DOLLARS, but which, by Governor RITNER'S VETO, was prevented from becoming a law.

We propose to exhibit to the reader the part DAVID R. PORTER as a member of the Senate, took in passing that extravagant bill.

DAVID R. PORTER appears to have been present during the whole time the bill was undergoing second reading.

DAVID R. PORTER moved an appropriation of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS to a company to construct a bridge over the river at Lewistown (no company was yet formed).

DAVID R. PORTER moved an appropriation of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS to the Maytown Branch Navigation Company.

THE QUESTION was then taken to agree to this important section (the sixth) in yeas and nays, and was decided in the affirmative, DAVID R. PORTER and twenty-two others voting for it.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING.—On the 10th of April we extracted an article from the "Montrose Spectator," in which was the following paragraph.

EVERY PERSON must see that this word "where" was intended to be when, and was doubtless so written, but was mistaken by the compositor for "where," and overlooked in the proof sheet.

THE VOLUNTEER of last week, as usual, contains a goodly number of falsehoods. In looking over its columns, we became fully satisfied that "where" is at least one paper in Carlisle, that would readily assent to either the "Washington Globe" or the "Harrisburg Keystone" in the laudable employment of circulating the most glaring falsehoods against honest men.

THE APPROACHING CONTEST.

For the Carlisle Herald & Expositor. Ms. PHILLIPS.—Permit me, through the medium of your valuable and widely circulating journal, to express my views in relation to the approaching gubernatorial election.

It is our duty to tell the unblighted sons of this State, that we cannot support him (Porter) because we know his MORAL, POLITICAL, and INTELLECTUAL CHARACTER.—His MORAL IS FAR FROM SPOTLESS; and no palliative of purifier of the stains can or dare be offered by his deluded advocates.

It is a lamentable thing to see the press disgraced by the avowed doctrines so pernicious as those that emanate from the morbid and intellectual brain of the Journal's editor.

THE EDITOR is not satisfied with abusing the right of free discussion and advocating the cause of mobs, but in another part of his paper ridicules the Governor for offering a reward for the apprehension of the Philadelphia incendiaries.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.

THE APPROACHING CONTEST.

For the Carlisle Herald & Expositor. Ms. PHILLIPS.—Permit me, through the medium of your valuable and widely circulating journal, to express my views in relation to the approaching gubernatorial election.

It is our duty to tell the unblighted sons of this State, that we cannot support him (Porter) because we know his MORAL, POLITICAL, and INTELLECTUAL CHARACTER.—His MORAL IS FAR FROM SPOTLESS; and no palliative of purifier of the stains can or dare be offered by his deluded advocates.

It is a lamentable thing to see the press disgraced by the avowed doctrines so pernicious as those that emanate from the morbid and intellectual brain of the Journal's editor.

THE EDITOR is not satisfied with abusing the right of free discussion and advocating the cause of mobs, but in another part of his paper ridicules the Governor for offering a reward for the apprehension of the Philadelphia incendiaries.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.

THE POLICY of General Jackson has done much to injure Pennsylvania, and the man who follows in the footsteps is still warring against the best interests of this Commonwealth.