severe fixing pains in the chest, back, and sides, costiveness, a dislike for society, or conversation, involuntary sighing and weeping, langor and lassitude upon the least exercise.

Mr. Salmon had applied to the most eminent physicians, who considered it beyond the power of medicine to restore him to health; however, as his afflictions had reduced him to a very deplorable condition, and having been recommended by a relative of his to make trial of Dr. William Evans' Medicine, he with difficulty repaired to the office and procured a package, to which, he says, he is indebted for his restoration-to-life, health and friends. He is tow enjoying all the blessings of perfect health. Persons desirous of further information, will be satisfied with every particular othis astonishing cure at Dr. Evans' Meical office, No. 19, North 8th street, Philadelphia;
