A SMALL AFFAIR .--- We learn from the The Carlinie Werald and Erpostior. Baltimore Whig, that the feeble efforts of and all other improper and corrupt mean Ex-Governor Wolf have been called into of legislation. Because, he is opposed to combinati requisition to aid the expiring cause of loco THE LOCO FOCO MEETING .- According RESUMPTION OF SPECIE PAYsociated with the Automasons, Gen. David GREAT MEETING OF THE PEOwhich exact obligations that are held to be to notice given in "the only democratic pa-HERALD & EXPOSITOR MENTS. paramount to the laws of the land. PLE. ---Yesterday was a glorious day for the ho- per in the county," and a very urgent ap-Because, he is opposed to all interference uel Sturgeon, is a villain or a knave. This Yesterday, the 13th of August, was a nest republican ycomancy of Cumberland. peal in the last number of that paper, the the second defence of Porter, by the scribin the state by the federal government. glorious day for Pennsylvania. Meetings BY GEORGE M. PHILLIPS. Because, he is in favour of a judicious bling catifis who are scourged to obedience loco faco Porter and Van Burên men met of the PEOPLE were held in almost every Banking system, a good wholesome curren-One of the largest' meetings that ever asby their master. in solenin conclave in the Court House last The third stand taken in the Advocate is county of the Commonwealth, in honor of cy, founded on a metallie busis; opposed to sembled in the county, was held in the evening, to take into view the prospects of irredeemable shin-plasters, either of indivi- that Porter did not want Sturgeon to certi-JOSEPH RITNER and a RESUMP-Court House of this borough at 1 o'clock, fy, because, he had not been in the county duals corporate or government issue. TION OF SPECIE PAYMENTS by Because, he is opposed to Martin, Van for twenty years, because he had been his enemy.' - Reader, does this kind of argu-Buren and all his iniquitous measures. Because, he has checked the insolent ar- ment convince you at once. Take up one rogance of the National Government, which of Porter's papers in this county, and just by means of its patronage and other undue examine who some of the men are, that and improper influences had subverted the certified and ask yourself, if such are constitutional rights of the state, and file- worth having, for the trouble of obtaining. gitimately applied them to the promotion of What would the certificate of an honest the ambitious yet ruinous schemes of poli- man (and one too that the "evidence" tical deniagogues, who had crept into power. proves Porter did owe) be worth? And Because, he believes the people of Penn- let us tell our readers that it is not the first sylvania capable, and having the right, ought time he has tried this certificate business. to make their own Governors, and that there- | On another occasion, prudent, cunning man fore this important state officer should not as he is, he wrote a certificate of fealty to be selected by the general government, and himself and party, and promised a man a at its bidding, elected: justice commission if he would sign it.

Because, ho is in favor of free schools- Thus the third prima facie evidence, is TUESDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 14, 1838 the education at the public expense, of all settled.

the children of the common wealth, having Another reason why they say the affida done more in the space of two years than vit is fulse, is because Porter would not acall his predecessors for the encouragement knowledge now what he denied in 1818and promotion of this laudable State enter- and then they concluded by saying that there is "not one word of truth in it," no Because, he is opposed to every thing not one." We can to satisfy our readers. both of public and private character, which inform them that they can inquire in this has for its object the raising of distinctions town of any citizen-if the following part of the story be not true to the letter; Sambetween the rich and the poor. Because, we believe, his politics aro of ucl Sturgeon was in town; and called on that kind and character, which tend to pro- Porter; did leave town; and was gone two mote democratic principles, feelings and days; did come back; did call on Mr. Porter again; met him at Mr. Dorris's corner actions. Because, he holds that all obligations of did talk with him there; did go to Porter's government should be strictly performed; house, and finally did make the affidavit; and vested rights to be inviolate. and we can swear that we saw Mr. Stur-Because, he has ability to fill the impor- geon, show Porter the arbitrator's certifitant duties of the office of Governor, and has cate, this is all in the affidavit. Yet the SUB-TREASURY-BILL. the inclination to perform them in such a Advocate says there is not one word of

-way as best tends to promote the interest of TRUTH in it. What took place at Por the people, and perpetuate the valuable in- ter's house no body except Porter and Stur stitutions under which they at present live. geon can know; but when the People see Because, in short, we have tried him and what they know to be true, pronounced not found him wanting, holding it, to be a false, the inference is natural that the whole good rule, when we have good, not to look statement of the former is TRUE, and the whole of the latter was FALSE. for better. From the Huntingdon Journal. OFERSONEL.WING

EVIDENCE. "THE END IS NOT YET."

The reading of Samuel Sturgeon's tertimony, it seems has unstrung the nerves of about at their own expense. Porter and his friends. They have been Before we leave this matter, we must call-urging on so much sleam, that their boilers the attention of our readers to the effect collapsed. The affidavit of Sturgeon came of their conduct. Samuel Sturgeon, a like the blasts of the simoon-it buried, it poor industrious, hard laboring man, twen-overwhelmed-it destroyed their hopes. ty years ago was crushed by Porter and For the last weck, one would have sup-Patton, ground down to the dust; he sought posed they were in the last stages of cholin some new field to win-himself better era; their visages were so wo begone .-hopes and prospects; he left this and now Eacli morning told that a night of agony resides in Armstrong county. Honest, inof spirits brought no relief. The agonizing dustrious, and economical, he earned by the spell is at length broken ; they have gathersweat of his own brow sufficient to pay his noor creditors; he established a repu-has called upon his wealthy oppressor; and ed up their scattered wits and endeavored have reached at the unsubstantial shadow because he would not certify that that opof wilful falsehood in the vain hope to denressor was -honest ; when the very deed ceive their readers. They open their artihe then was committing, told him that the cle in the 'Advocate' relative to Sturgeon, certificate was a DAMNING FALSEHOOD; be-

by stating that Simon Snyder was standered cause he would not do this, we say, these

The People's Candidates, FOR PRESIDENT, WM.-IRI. HIABRISON

FOR GOVERNOR. Josiepfi Buyings. The Washington county Farmer.

Let the People Remember THAT DAVID R. PORTER

VOTED IN THE SENATE LAST WINTER TO INSTRUCT OUR SENATORS AND RE-PRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS TO VOTE

THE TRUE ISSUE. BE IT REMEMBERED that the Porter Conventio which assembled in Harrisburg on the 4th of July, adopted the following resolution : RESOL VED, THAT WE HAVE FULL CON-FIDENCE IN THE TALENTS, INTEGRITY, Thus, then, we shall leave 'the matter for AND REPUBLICAN PRINCIPLES OF MARthe present. We rejoice that they have TIN VAN BUREN, PRESIDENT OF THE UNIboldly pronounced it false. It but marries them on into the vortex of destruction. TED STATES. Their fate is sealed and they know it; BE IT REMEMBERED, that he who votes for David goaded and maddened by the overwhelming

R. Porter votes in favor of Van Buren and the Subevidence,' of Porter's dishonesty, they Treasury Scheme, together with every other injurious have no discretion, but plunge and flounder measure of the present imbecile and wicked administration of the General Government; and that he who votes for JOSEPH RITNER, votes AGAINST Van Buren and the Sub-Treasury Scheme.

BE IT REMEMBERED, VOTERS OF DENNSTLYANIA that Porter and Van Burch are identified in all things-are one and the same. If Porter should be elected, Van Buren will consider it an approval of his measures. Remember this, and vote as dufy and to the county ticket. It was emphatically n meeting of the PEOPLE, some being in ittendance who have not turned out to a pocountry! It was so affecting, that a majory in a great measure by the mal-administralitical meeting for years, thereby showing that they had the interests and prosperity ity of his hearers were almost compelled to of the state and country at heart. We were shed _____ crocadile tears! However, to delighted to see the old gray headed men of ing the cause of our patriotic governor, to have been laboring under some disease of tens of thousands of dollars in an odious the body, inasmuch as his whole speech the promotion of whose election they will do all in their power. There were present; moreover, many of those who were fighting under the different banners of Ritner, Wolf, sort of slang; but not a word about Dick anti Muhlenberg, three years ago ---- all now ardently engaged to secure the re-election of Johnson, David R. Porter, and their yellow Joseph Ritner, and to prostrate Van Buren- boys! To show that the colonel was someism. It was a heart-cheering sight to look what bewildered, it is only necessary to upon the multitude there assembled, as ev- say, that he located the Gettysburg Railery Window, door, and avenue leading to the road at Chambersburg! We really felt for may well be proud!

"the party." Well, they met, and thenin honor of Gov. RITNER and SPECIE PAYMENTS. About SIX HUNDRED adjourned. But, before the adjournment, persons were in altendance, comprising fur- they had two of the most eloguent, grand and sublime speeches, that were ever utter-ble editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer re-mark, that "the FEORLE of Pennsylvania" mers and mechanics, manufacturers and laborers, merchants and professional men, all cforts of Col. M'Clure and Capt. Ramsey. of whom met together to promote the good We never, in all our born days, heard such of contracts, either between individuals or cause, and to express their views in relation speeches!

when he rose to address the loco foco meeting which met in the Court House in the evening, he could scarcely refrain from la- sey, and we were truly surprised to see him exhibit the lofty attitude of possessing a to the plainest style." To which the Phimentation and mourning. What a contrast get-up to address the meeting; for, in a con- sound currency. That period ARRIVED ladelphia Herald and Sentinel adds: "As between his speech and the able and master- versation with him on the subject at the Per- YESTERDAY, the 13th of August, and Mr. Van Buren seems to be "the democraly one delivered by C. B. PENROSE, Esq. at ry court last week, he declared to us that he a general resumption of Specie Payments cy" of the country, we would enquire whethe Rither meeting, which held the large would not make any more speeches for the took place throughout the Commonwealth. ther his son John, who is figuring in the audience in close attention for upwards of party.' We presume, however, that his Is it a matter of surprise, therefore, that the retinue of Queen Victoria, among Dukes,an hour. Mr. P. was repeatedly cheered by memory, in this instance, proved treacher. people should meet together in their various Earls, Marquises, Lords and Ladies, lives the highly intelligent assemblage during the ous----or he thought, probably; that eircum- counties to celebrate this event, and to give at court in "the plainest manner," or simdelivery of his eloquent and forcible speech, stances altered cases.' Howendeaver, his due honor to the independent and patriotic ply in a plain manner? Or whether he lives and the meeting adjourned with three times speech had not much effect, being merely a Governor, through whose agency it has in a tolerable gay style?" - a three for JOSEPHRITNER and a Spe- lissue of abuse against our worthy and effi- been brought about! , Pennsylvania will cient Senator, which, having been exploded, vindicate the solvency of her institutions, cie CURRENCY. Let our friends but do their duty, and over again, was not calculated to do the integrity of her government, and the ho- Gazette of this morning, says that the renesty of her people. She will prove that sumption of specie payments by the banks, much injury. Take this meeting all together, we shall here, at least, an irredeemable paper cur- of Philadelphia, was without commotion, or Cumberland is safe for Jeseph Ritner by a triumphant majority. not probably ever see its like again. All the rency finds no favor.

OLD BERKS AWAKE .--- We are pleased to loco fuco bell-weathers and drill-sergeants of conscience distate, for Ritner, the supremacy of the learn by the Reading Journal, that the ho- any note in the townships, were present on THE BOOT ON THE WRONG LEG .--- Some nest yeomanry of Berks are beginning to this occasion ---- almost every one of whom, of the friends of Porter crowed a little too to in the manine his nomination for some soon about the statement of Mr. Uwens. The loco foco, papers made a great ner. The county meeting of his friends, office on the loco foco ticket! - Fourteen out and Beaver Argus of the 25th ult. says that fuss a few weeks ago about the Hon. Ri- held in Reading on Tuesday last, is said to of every fifteen of them must, of course, be to satisfy the people that Mr. Porter's aschard Coulter abandoning Gor. Ritner, and have been the largest and most enthusiastic disappointed in not getting a nomination; signment in that county was fair and hocoming out for Porter, upon which they one ever witnessed by the party in Berks. and then we shall hear their lamentations nest, some of his noisy friends assert that when he was a candidate; and therefore hired beagles, who are paid to hunt down a laid much stress. But it turns out after all Every township had its representatives - and groans, and see their holy zeal and pathe attack upon Porter is slander. This man's character, have commenced playing to be 'cold comfort' for them, as we learn the independent democracy of the county triotic ardor. cool down most beautifully; the hands of the assignces, Messers. Stone-tike this—Gen. Washington was suspected they suffered at the hands of their tyranni-they suffered at the hands of their tyranni-ocoism, and to stein the torrent of popularity which is triumphantly rolling on in favor of Gov. Ritner. Mr. Wolf, a pensioner of the national administration, writes a weak electioneering letter, in which he attacks Gov-Riner's proclamation, and which he modestly terms ex-post-facto!-The resumption by the banks, which was brought the Banks of this State. Well does the aabout by Gov. Ritner, has kapcked away ble editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer rethe principal hobby of the loco focos, and made them bitter and desperate in the exare honest and high-minded; who rejoice in treme._ Poor George Wolf!_ He is only witnessing, the prompt and ample fulfilment "fretting out" his brief political existence! He is only obeying the mandates of his suinstitutions. It was with pain and mortifilonch, we make free to say, was never sur-passed by that of any other man in this periors! How fallen and degraded! But he cannot reach his successful and triumphant rival with his feeble missiles.

DEMOCRACY EXEMPLIFIED .--- A corresment. It was with still more pain-that they pondent of the Richmond Enquirer thus anwitnessed the circulation of thousands and nounces-the arrival of the President at Louisa Court. House on the 27th alt.: "About one o'clock he arrived, travelling in the scription of currency. This course was not plainest manner, with two of his sons. sense and falsehood. It was all about Abo- pursued by individuals and unauthorized drawn by four horses, his servant riding sense and Jatsenood. It was an about Ano-lition, the Gettysburg Railroad, and that associations alone; but even the Van Buren the horse presented to him by the late John administration, the very men whose un- Randolph, of Roanoke." On this repubprincipled conduct had brought about the lican mode of travelling, the editor of the general suspension of specie payments, fell National Gazette thus cuttingly remarks: into the snare they had set for others----and "Four horses and an outrider on a presenat this moment the country exhibits the mo- tation steed, then, constitute the plainest lancholy spectacle of millions of irredeem- style of democratic travelling for three perwho were anxious to procure an entrance, PRESENTATIVES IN CONTRESS IN VOLTA who were anxious to procure an entrance, the proceedings would be obliged to con- the public condition of affairs: long has the horses, three footmen, four out-riders, with and participate in the proceedings. I ne fine him, lest some of our cltizens should, shin-plaster system of the day been odlous; a fifth to wait on them, all with liveries size of the meeting and the zeal displayed by merchance be bitten by him. Of such a and long have the great mass of the year cooked hats, and batons. We "bank arisnerves of our valiant congressman, that, speech and such a speaker, the loco focos manny of the state looked forward to the toerats" consider a pair of bays hitched to a period when a death-blow would be given coach, with a driver and footman, very Next came our valiant friend Capt. Ram- to this system, and the country-once more grand. In time, however, we may attain

SPECIE-PAYMENTS .- The United States injury to themselves, or inconvenience to the mercantile part of the community. As much anxiety had been felt in relation to the effect which the resumption was to have upon the specie funds of the banks, the editor of the U.S. Gazette took some pains to ascertain the state of business shortly before the banks closed for the day, and found that no unkindness of feeling was indulged by the community. The demands for specie by the army at Newburg-therefore Ar- cal master, they are determined to rob him, nold was not a traitor. Because hes were of his good name. But they will fall! Portered, since Samuel Sturgeon's state- best interests of Pennsylvania--the greatest told about Snyder, therefore the truth is When their own friends, such men as W. ment and the accompanying certificates are zeal and unanimity prevailed in that large false if told about David R. Porter. F. Johnston, say he is an estimable man, before the public. But let'us for one moment leave the arti- het them abuse him; let them send their cle, to state that during the past week, paper to Mr. Sturgeon's county, and they Mr. Wm. F. Johnson, the present Porter will find that if Porter must rise on the ru-member of the Legislature, and a candidate risen in wealth on the ruins of their for- the 6th inst. and nominated Wm. M. Watts, The revelations touching Porter's dishonesfor re-election in Armstrong county, was in our town." Mr. Johnson (than-whom there tunes, he will be deserted there. The day Esq. and Samuel Hutchins, Esq. for the ty in his private transactions, are working of his OPPRESSIONS will soon cease. legislature. This is said to be a very strong great changes among the honest Germans is not a more independent, fearless and devoted friend of Pennsylvania within her He will be shunned and be despised. If borders) is a resident of the same county he desires it otherwise, let him pay his , as Samuel Sturgeon. Upon his arrival, noor debtors. Let him refund the widow every friend of "David the Dodger"-who and the orphan's share. Let him relieve have but little foothold in the patriotic and are under bonds to say any thing he orders those, whose toil, whose tears, have been them, waited upon Mr. Johnson, and asked wrung from them, by him; he may then

CARLISLE.

"what kind of a man is this Sturgcon?" have some hope; but while they live, while To all of them Mr. Johnson replied-" he their prayers are heard, or their wrongs is an honest and respectable man-an esti- unforgotten, he is hopeless: mable man=aMAN OF CHARACTER."

They were dumbfounded, to hear a politi-We learn from 'a correspondent as well cal friend of Mr. Porter, give such a charas by other sources that a certain Post acter to Sturgeon-but as their resolution Master in this county was called on a few had been taken, they resolved to make 'no days since by a government agent for his county, finding they could not renominate bones,' of the matter, but to 'jump into it' quarterly dues. 'The Post Master had, as Mr. Plummer, withdrew; while those from and lie right and left, being the only thing he supposed, made admirable provision for the two former counties nominated Mr. that they could do. We will return to their the occasion by laying up a $100,00 Trea-article and as they say, 'come let us reason sury note. This he presented the agent, but the agent promptly refused to receive together.' amine, they make use of the following as- kind of paper money. Specie was deman- didate, and, from present appearances, will sertions .- " Sturgeon now swears that he ded and had to be procured, was willing to take $180 for his claim of What think the people of such a govern-91540." This is the basis of the whole ment-a government that has ruined one of article, they say Sturgeon 'AGREED to the best currencies the world ever posses-take it.'- Need we tell our readers this is sed-a government that has persisted in a not true-Sturgeon did not agree to take it course of policy which has prostrated the -neither does he swear he was willing to growing energies of the country-a governtake it. We refer our readers to the affiment that has destroyed and consumed an davit on the first page-let-them examine immense revenue, arising from the once if Sturgeon so swears, or whether the wriflourishing and abundant resources of a prosperous and happy country, and a govern-ment that has issued TWENTY MILter of the Editorial for the Advocate, lies. He sets up his 'man of straw,' and then goes to work to knock it down, and then draws the LIONS of Treasury notes-alias shinplasinference, "either Sturgeon knew his claim ters-with which to pay-its debts, and now was unjust or knew that it was settledrefuses to receive them in payment from and consequently he swore false, when he its creditors. Such a course is outrageous swore Patton & Porter good him $700 or -it is insulting to the People, What, lied in his present affidavit." Is not this government having the presumption to pretty logic; they start a falsehood as the create and force in payment of its debts basis of their argument and then go on to currency which it now refuses to receive 'infer that Sturgeon's story is not true, and in return !! We call on our fellow-citizens pronounce him a 'perjured villain or a to wake up and examine" into this matter, fraudulent knave.' Now, until they can Is it possible that they can-that they will their whole argument will fall to the ground. They then ask-'Is he worthy of credit?'

Portered, since Samuel Sturgeon's state- best interests of Pennsylvania--the greatest

The anti-Van Buren delegates of Eticket, and will be elected by a tremendous of Berks as well as in other counties. majority, as Van Burenism and Porterism republican county of Erie.

the congressional district composed of Erie; Crawford, and Venango, have had a 'split' congress.) The conferees from the latter Galbraith. . The latter was the late member of congress, and Mr. Pummer is the present member. Mr. Dick is the whig can-be elected by a handsome majority.

We learn from the Harrisburg papers, that Walter S. Franklin, the swaggering Clerk of the H. of R. at Washington; Jesse Miller, the whining 4th Auditor of the Treasury; and Henry Welsh, a pensioned imbecile, were lately in that place boasting and bantering to bet on Porter! We have arrived at a pretty pass truly, when the officers and agents of the national administration thus visit our state, loaded with Treasury Shinplasters, for the purpose of bragging and swaggering, and interfering in our local elections as if we were mere serfs!

A certain hemdomadal published in this, county-to name which we will not longer suffer, such base imposition? A few descend-in noticing the communication of is a perjured villain.' Samuel Sturgeon as- ed to defraud the People. Buren man in '38!

a serve

ter, slippery a politician as he is, wont stay to show their adherence to Rither and the for principle, or the public interest. assemblage of 'the bone and sinew'----and strong hopes have been excited, that, even in this heretofore strong-hold of Van Buwill find that if Porter must rise on the ru-ins of their neighbor's character, as he has ric county met in the borough of Erie on renism, Ritner will run Porter very close.

capital of two hundred thousand dollars. GREAT RITNER MEETING .- The Leban PROFESSION VS. PRACTICE .- The Porter on Courier contains the proceedings of a men profess one thing, while they practice Ritner county meeting held in that borough The loco foco conferees representing yesterday week, which is pronounced the "very largest" political meeting ever held in that place. Carriages and wagons filled in their attempt to nominate a candidate for with the honest yeomanry of the county, as town during the forenoon, all eager to show their determination to sustain the Farmer Governor. On the ringing of the bell at 1 upon him 'tooth and nail,' and abused him present, who was anxious for information, place. o'clock, the large court room was filled to most outrageously! They also complained politcly requested the gentleman to name overflowing in a few minutes; so much so, that the meeting adjourned to an open field, to which they marched in procession to the orders the Canal Commissioners to pay the plied, and the statement was footed up, the meeting in the field, which swelled its contractors and hands on the public works when lo and behold, it made Joseph Ritner number of eight hundred. Others joined number to nearly one thousand good men same thue and cry' again, and denounce all sand. The looks of the Porter man can be and true, who are zealous and determined concerned in it! Really it is hard to please better imagined than described. to give an overwhelming majority for Goy. these loco focos; but their conduct must sa-Ritner. "Thus we run before the wind!"

tisfy the public, that they are mortified to the very quick in consequence of Gov. Rit-MIFFLIN COUNTY AROUSED .- The last Juniata Gazette gives a glowing account of ner causing a resumption of specie payments by the banks. one of the largest and most enthusiastic assemblages of the people that ever convened in Lewistown. The proceedings breathe a A PROMISING SUB-TREASURY .--- The Detroit Daily Advertiser states, upon the auwarm spirit in favor of "Ritner and Specie Payments," and are decidedly in opposition thority of a gentleman who is ready to vouch to the youngest, and have nearly all grown to order by the appointment of to Loco Focoism and Porterism, Van Bu- for its truth; that Abner C. Stimson, who is gray in office. George B. Porter, of Lanrenism and Sub-Treasuryism. This is the appointed a deputy collector and inspector caster, now deceased, who was appointed 'true issue' at the coming election, and we of the customs in the St. Joseph District, Governor of Michigan by Gen. Jackson, are pleased, to find 'the spirit and strength Michigan, is the late Warden of the New drove a carriage and four horses when he succar that he was willing to take $180, unger suffer such base imposition A lew descent in noticing the nobility of the farmers Hampshire State Prison, who absconded visited this state, thus aping the nobility of the farmers in correspondent Hamilton, in reference of Old Mifflin awake to it." The farmers Hampshire State Prison, who absconded visited this state, thus aping the nobility of us a gold and silver currency in place of to the politics of Justice Snodgrass, says and mechanics were in attendance in great after involving the state in a loss of some England-and should David R. Porter, who sound, current United States Bank paper that the reason why the Squire was noticed numbers, and twere stirred up, with the twenty thousand dollars, carrying away now boasts of his great wealth, after deand answer 'NO!' themselves, is that Porter being a cunning, prudent is the would not act as the affidavit says if edid. This is powerful argument, David is life holds on to the specie. Basel Basel !! Squire never voted for Gov. Ritner, but B. Parter is a powerful argument, David B. Parter is a powerful argument is a powerful argument is powerful argument R. Porter is a prudent man, therefore Sam- humbug and imposition 11. We say give was a zealous Wolf man in '35, a friend of presses his confidence, both to friends at sub-treasurers to their own good neighbour- that would be precisely, in character, with not geriger in the second and the second and all the second and all the second and all the second all the secon cunning man, therefore Samuel Surgeon preference to such abominable trash creat- is now a real sub-treasury Porter and Van show a clear vote, and probably give a ma- moasures and acts of Martin Van Buren and publican simplicity of our excellent Farmer his administration. jority for Governor Ritner.

It was thought the U.S. Bank would feel ditors. But it so happens, that Michaelthe pressure upon the specie most severely; Wallace and William Simpson were the as-but nothing of a run, was even attempted TPIt is stated in the New York papers, signees appointed by the Court in Beaver, there, as the whole amount of specie paid that Richard Alsop, of Philadelphia, and and that Stonebraker and Owens were seout was short of $17,000, of which more George Griswold, of New York, have as- lected by Porter merely to work out the than $8,000 were for corporation notes gesociated themselves under the law of the dishonest ends he had in view. Our loco nerally of the denomination of $1. The State of New York, passed at the last ses- foco friends, therefore, must be convinced largest sum demanded was $300, and nearsion, to carry on the banking business un- by this time, that they placed "the boot on ly the whole sum paid out was in small ader the name and style of "The Bank of the wrong leg," and that they will have to mounts from one to ten dollars. Some who the United States' in New York," with a resort to Pat Madden and Jim Fulton for had drawn small sums in specie, went to more 'affidavits' to get them out of this the brokers to sell it, calculating to make 3 awkward predicament! per cer. on it; but they were mortified to learn, that the very circumstance which en-

Too Good to BE Lost .-- It is stated, in abled them to receive silver for their paper .another. They made a great noise a few the Miners' Journal, that a Porter man rendered that paper as valuable as silver months ago in favor of specie payments and from the country-was-lately boasting in The-New Yorkers made large demands on against shin-plasters; but the moment Gov. Philadelphia of the certain clection of David the Philadelphia banks for specie; but the Ritner issued his proclamation, requiring R. Porter by a large majority, and appeared U. S. Bank, in settlement of balances, gave well as hundreds on horseback, poured into the banks to redeem their notes in specie, also to be perfectly acquainted with the pro- the New Yorkers a check upon New York and corporations and individuals to redeem bable majority each candidate would obtain for the whole amount, being about half a their shin-plasters in like manner, they fell in every county of the state. A Ritner man million, and not a dollar of specie changed We will here merely add, that the demands upon the Carlisle=Bank were not that the farmers and laborers were obliged the respective majorities for Ritner and Porto take tattered rags in payment for their pro- ter'in the different counties, and he would humerous or large, being merely for change duce and labor; but as soon as Gov. Ritner commit it to paper. The Porter man com- to supply the place of shin-plasters.

CUMBERLAND ERECT in specie instead of notes, they raise the governor by a majority of about two thou- Great Meeting of the Peoplet

Agreeably to previous public notice, a meeting of the citizens of Cumberland coun-ty, favorable to the re-election of our present worthy Governor, was held at the PORTER ARISTOCRATIC FAMILY .--- Some

Court House, in the borough of Carlisle. on Monday the 13th of August-the day on of our eastern contemporaries, who are well which the Banks of this Commonwealth, in acquainted with the facts, give a frightful accordance with the proclamation of Gov, picture of the immense sums of public mo- RITNER, resumed the payment of specie ney which the members of this aristocratic for their notes. The meeting was the largest ever assembled in the county of family have received. They have all been Cumberland: unwards of 600 citizens be fed at the public crib, from the oldest down ing in attendance. The meeting was called

JOHN McKEEHAN, Esq. of West ennsborough township, as President; Solomon Whisler, of Hopewell, John Fishburn, of Dickinson, Col. John Wyncoop, of W. Pennsboro. Daniel Leckey, of Frankford, Benjamin Gibler, of North Middleton, John M. Martin, of Silver Spring, Christian Zuck, of Shippensburg, John Clippinger, of Southampton, Adam Reigle, of Mechanicsburg, Robert C. Kilgore, of Newton, William Irvine, of Carlisle,-Henry Snyder, of Mifflin, Capt, Wm. Davidson, of W. Penns. Col. Wm. H. Woodburn, of Newville, James Weakley, of Dickinson, John Coover, of Mechanicsburg, 1000 yer, x-

Alper and participation of the second

المسلح المراجع المراجع