 TO INSTRUCT OUR SENATORS AND RE-PRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS TO VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE DEBTS AND IN FAVOR OF THE SUB-TREASURY BILL.

THE TRUTH ISSUE.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that the Porter Convention adopted the following resolution: RESOLVED, THAT WE HAVE FULL CON-FIDENCE IN THE TALENTS, INTEGRITY, AND REPUBLICAN PRINCIPLES OF MAR-TIN VAN BUREN, PRESIDENT OF THE UN-ITED STATES.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that he who votes for David R. Porter votes in favor of Van Buren and the Sub-Treasury Scheme, together with every other ignominious measure of the present Executive and wicked administration of the General Government; and that he who votes for JOSEPH RITNER, votes AGAINST Van Buren and the Sub-Treasury Scheme.

County Convention.

Agreeably to previous public notice the friends of Joseph Ritner and the opponents of Martin Van Buren assembled in County

The following resolutions were then adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention heartily approve of the measures of Joseph Ritner's administration, by which the State Taxes have been repealed, the State Debt reduced, the prosperity of the commonwealth preserved, and a return to a specie currency brought about.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Convention, neither the moral nor political character of David R. Porter entitles him to the suffrages of the People of Pennsylvania, so far as they have ever been discovered, give no weight to his pretensions.

Resolved, That we consider the prosperity of Pennsylvania closely identified with the re-election of Joseph Ritner, in whose past course we have a sure guaranty of a pure good government; and that, influenced by such a patriotic motive, we will use all honorable means to promote his re-election, and secure the state from the continuation and increasing influences of Loose ascendancy.

GOV. SHULZE.
An Interesting and Important Letter.

THE OCTOBER ELECTION.

We invite attention to the following interesting and important letter from the pen of that sturdy patriot and unswerving democrat, JOHN ANDREW SHULZE. It is in reply to a communication addressed by a number of our most respectable citizens, and alludes, as will be perceived, to the political struggle about to take place in Pennsylvania. It cannot but produce a powerful sensation, especially among the old democrats of this Commonwealth, who twice contributed to the election of its anthor to the highest honor of the Key-Stone State, and who know that a citizen retired from public life and anxious only for the welfare of his country, could have no other motive than patriotism,—no other object than the "greatest good of the greatest number,"—in thus deliberately expressing his sentiments upon the eve of an important political struggle. The testimony of John Andrew Shulze, at such a crisis, is indeed entitled to the consideration of every true-hearted Pennsylvanian. He has no personal feelings to gratify,—no mortified vanity to indulge,—no patron at Washington to favor before and kneel to. His views are those of a fearless freeman,—a patriot who loves Pennsylvania, and is anxious for her honor, independence and prosperity. We commend the letter to the general attention. It is frank, fearless, and to the purpose.

Montoursville, Lycoming County,
August 20, 1838.

Fellow Citizens—Before the receipt of your letter I had heard that it had been represented that I was opposed to the re-election of Governor Ritner, and I had been unwilling to make known my opinion. An unwillingness to obtrude myself upon public attention, and a fear that I might be thought presumptuous, prevented me from publishing my opinions in any other way than by making them known to such of my neighbors or friends as called on me for that purpose. They all, however, have never hesitated to express a preference for Joseph Ritner over David R. Porter. I have no unkind feelings or personal in-friendship towards Mr. Porter. I am wholly influenced in my opposition to him, by public principles. He is nominated and advocated by those who declare they have entire confidence in the principles, patriotism and talents of Mr. President Van Buren, while I have no confidence in the qualities thus attributed to Mr. Van Buren.
 I have never seen any evidence that Mr.
 Van Buren has any fixed principles, any patriotism or talents. I well remember in the war of 1812, that Mr. Van Buren was opposed to the election of the wise, the gifted, and the patriotic James Madison, and was strongly in favor of De Witt Clinton, who was "The Peace Party" candidate. I know nothing of Mr. Van Buren calculated to inspire confidence. He has trod too exactly in the "steps of his predecessor," and seems disposed, by his sub-treasury scheme, to dip a little deeper into the pockets of the people. If, by any possible contrivance or misrepresentation, Pennsylvania should elect Mr. Porter Governor, then would it be blazoned abroad that the people of this State were in favor of the re-election of a man who was a cloud deep and dark would overshadow the bright prospects of the democrats throughout the United States. For these and many other reasons, it shall be my pleasure, as I believe it to be my duty, to do all in my power to insure the re-election of Governor Ritner. I feel assured that the desire to sustain our good old Constitution will bring thousands more to the polls than ever yet voted at any election, and I have entire confidence that the work of the good men of the Revolution will not be laid aside, to take up and the piece of patchwork which was put together by the late generally condemned Convention. The Germans of Pennsylvania will hold fast what they know to be good. They know the honesty and straightforward policy of Joseph Ritner, and they will support him. They know he is a good Pennsylvanian, and that with economy and care, he watches over the interests of the State and the people. They will not cast away what they have tested, what they know to be good, to try experiments with constitutions or with men, which may turn out to be good for nothing. My correspondence has been tedious, and my other opportunities good, and I do assure you what I have the most confidence in. I have said more than I intended, but perhaps not more than is necessary to give you a clear view of the principles which influence my conduct, and give me such confident hope.
 This struggle will assuredly be followed by one still more important, the election of a genuine democratic President in 1840.
 Your letter of the 18th instant only reached me yesterday. I have complied with your wishes, and communicated my views on the question now agitating the State, with candour, and my entire conviction.

With much respect, I remain,

Your obedient servant,

J. ANDW. SHULZE.

Joel Cook, Geo. R. Smith, Esqrs.

The Boundary Question and the General Government.

The Richmond Whig concludes a sensible article on this subject, with the following language:

But whatever be the causes which are laying the final settlement of the question—whether the duty of the President, or his hope of advancing his family, it is clear and indubitable that great injustice is done to the people of Maine, who are not surprised that like good Southerners, they are taking the remedy into their own hands. They are entitled to the Territory by the Treaty of '83, and if the Federal Government will not take care to give it to them, they should adopt them themselves. We here in the South have no conceivable interest in the controversy, farther than, as citizens of the same Republic. The national honor is at stake, and the integrity of the Union is objects dear to our hearts, and rather than surrender either to the bluster or the trickery of the British Ministry, we would have them appeal to the God of battles. The question ought to be settled speedily and definitely settled; and if (as we deem national disgrace the inevitable consequence of a continuance of peace."

A Sucker.—A man in Monroe, Highland county, Ohio, the other day sucked five dozen and eight eggs in less than ten minutes for a wage of nothing. The paragraph stating this is headed "hard to beaten," he would be made a custard of."

UNITED STATES BANK—INTER-ESTING FACTS.

The administration must be greatly annoyed by the constant manifestations of public confidence in the institution against which it has been waging so long and fruitless a war. The organs of the party have resorted, in vain, to clamor, calumny and agitation; the bank has pursued the even tenor of its way, as little disturbed by their attacks as the locomotive by the cur that barks after it. Like the enemies of Jericho of old, they have gone round about its walls blowing their trumpets with a vehemence that ought to have made it "fall down flat"—but the contumacious Bank, unlike Jericho, refuses to fall, and the incredulous people refuse to believe that it has fallen or will fall.

It would scarcely have been supposed that the wide-spreading credit of the bank had reached the fastness of our aboriginal forest, and that its character and stability were as well appreciated by the Indians as by the brokers in Wall street; yet such is the fact. The administration has encouraged even among the Indians the most perplexing and mortifying evidences of the almost universal preference of the notes of the Bank to any other currency, not excepting specie itself.

When the recently exploded specie humping was at its height, a large quantity of specie was sent to the west by Keokuck and his tribe the amount due from the government. The heavy kegs were, with great labour, rolled before the assembled Indians, and their glittering contents exposed temptingly before those sons of the forest. But even there, this trick of political charlatanism failed. The Indians looked on, for a time, in silent disapprobation, until, at length, one of the chiefs, we believe Keokuck himself, stepped forward and demanded why they brought them these ponderous and unmovable kegs: "How are we to carry these kegs about with us, or keep them secure? Pay us twenty dollars notes of the Bank of the United States, and keep the silver to yourselves." The astonishment of the agent at this unexpected exhibition of financial instinct may be imagined.

Another instance of the same kind has recently occurred in another extremity of our country. We have heard that the Cherokees, in their negotiation with Government, made an especial and earnest request that they might be paid; not in species, but in notes of the U. S. Bank of Pennsylvania; and that, in compliance with their wish, the Administration is actually paying out the notes of that Institution.
 It will, we imagine, be generally determined that these untutored red children have exhibited more sagacity and judgment than their great father.

The instances here given afford admirable practical exemplifications of the convenience and necessity of a sound paper currency. It must be a deep and humiliating abasement of spirit to these insolent and malignant enemies of that admirable institution, to be forced thus to acknowledge the paper of the Bank even better than the silver and gold which they have for years been jingling before the people. If the friends of the Bank were disposed to exult in the mortification of a downfallen foe, they could not desire or conceive a more complete triumph. There is a poetical justice in this involuntary acknowledgement by the Administration of their madness and folly, which closes with dramatic propriety the exhibition which they have been making for some years past before the nation and the world.

The Prospect in Pennsylvania.

We yesterday conversed with many gentlemen from various parts of the State, who all report numerous changes in favour of Ritner. Bets have been made that Allegheny will go back Berks; and even that Beaver will do so. Others that Allegheny and Beaver will balance Berks and Westmoreland. In 1835 the vote in these counties was as follows:

Ritner.	Wolf & Muhlenberg.
Allegheny 3847	3232
Beaver 1660-5518	1420-4652
Berks 3016	6973
Westmoreland 2192-5208	3400-9356
	10,725
	13,998
	10,725

Wolf and Muhlenberg majorities in these four counties 3,273

In the city and county of Philadelphia Ritner received 10,832 votes, and Wolf and Muhlenberg united received 11,084, being a majority for the two latter of 1202 votes; now the friends of Porter bid down 2000 majority for Ritner in the city and county in their own calculations, thus allowing a change of 3202 against themselves.

In no county have they gained, but in nearly all they have lost heavily. In Armstrong their majority will be reduced to less than half what it was, and the same is true of Westmoreland; while in Allegheny, our own Allegheny, Ritner's majority will be three times as great as in 1835.—Pitts- burg Advocate.

The Madisonian is bitterly severe upon the head and subordinates of the Treasury Department for their reports upon the state of the public finances made to Congress last fall, in which the full ability of the Government to proceed without aid, was set forth; and yet in the midst of summer, the year scarcely half over, it was found necessary to set the bonds of the U. States Bank. "The people see into all these things; they feel that they have been greatly deceived," and their confidence shamefully abused, by the party in power."

positions of the Madisonian are encouraging; but they will not, indeed, alter the results, but they will strengthen the resolutions and encourage to spirited exertions. The days of the existing administration are numbered—not two of any ten men that voted for Mr. Van Buren expect to see him re-elected—not half that voted for him desire his nomination.—U. S. Gaz.

A Brilliant Prospect—Governor RITNER.

Seriously a doubt can now be entertained in any dispassionate mind with regard to the issue of the approaching contest in Pennsylvania. The re-election of Gov. Ritner, and by a triumphant majority, is now conceded even by many who admit themselves friendly to his opponent. The recent expression of public opinion in almost every section of the State, cannot be misunderstood. The people—the Germans—the great majority of the farmers, mechanics, and working-men of the Commonwealth, are with the old Wagoner in feeling and in principle, and will rally in his support with no common enthusiasm. Our intelligence from the interior is of the most gratifying character. Our friends were never in better spirits—were never more earnest and decided in their efforts. Pennsylvania, we feel satisfied, is not a Loco Foco State, and will never elect a Sub-Treasury Candidate to the Governorial Chair. The Bucks County Intelligencer confirms this view.
 Every mail, says the intelligent editor, "brings the most cheering news, and brings it not in the shape of political speculation or idle rumor; but in names by fifties, by sixties and by HUNDREDS!"

THE WHOLE WEST is moving as it were in a solid mass for Ritner. Hundreds and thousands are daily deserting the Porter ranks, and coming out for the FARMER GOVERNOR.

The Young Men's Corresponding Committee of Bucks county have received letters from every county in the State, and the information is without discrepancy, and all that could be wished, and more than was expected. We believe that Ritner will be re-elected by TWENTY THOUSAND MAJORITY. Porter's identity with wiser Martin Van Buren, the Sub-Treasury and Loco-focism, has bound him hand and foot. The wretched disclosures which have been
