

THE STONEBRACKERS SUSTAINED.

By the following certificates, which we copy from the Huntingdon Journal, it will be seen the character of the Messrs. Stonebrakers is sustained by their neighbors...

MARTIN GATES, the other certifier, states positively that he never authorized such a use of his name—that he never saw such a paper—and that he does not agree to its contents.

The truth, we believe, is, that they were all manufactured without the signers seeing them.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We the undersigned, being members of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Huntingdon County, having heard our brother John Stonebraker, Senr., character assailed, vilified and abused in the public prints...

- John Steel, Valentine Wingerd, Frederick Hyskile, James Ganoe, Thomas B. Hyskile, George Weyman, Jacob Ganoe, Jr., Alfred Ganoe, Daniel Brusler, Jacob Ganoe, George Bressler, James Ganoe, Abraham Moore, David Moor, Elijah Weston, Martin Weston, David A. Thompson, Jacob Vantrics, Jacob Hyskile, A. Stephens, Jesse Mothersough, Samuel M'Pherran, Andrew J. Hunter, Hugh Sharp, Jr., John Marks, Joseph Sharp, John Conrad, Benjamin Hopkins, Levi Wilhelm, Wm. Weyman, Samuel Fulton, Joseph Hopkinson, Jacob Mattern, John Watson, Daniel Conrad, Daniel S. Platter, Samuel Mattern, Washington Welch, Charles Welch, George O. Keys, John James, Washington Wilmore.

HIS NEIGHBORS.

Colrain Forges, Sept. 4, 1838. Whereas certain statements are in the public prints, injurious to the characters of the Messrs. Stonebrakers of this township...

- James M'Quaid, Jaquell McCallister, Wm. Burley, Joshua Porter, Joseph Hopkins, John Larkins, Thomas Butler, John James, Robert Keith, Daniel Conrad, Hugh Sharp, John M. Leech, Joseph Sloniker, John Conrad, Robert Moore, Wm. Hunt, Nathaniel Lytle, Samuel Mattern, Benj. Pawling, Peter Call, David Shover, W. Hamilton, Moses Canon, William Davis, James Dyan, John Siler, James McKinney, Alex. H. Underwood, Daniel Hoffman, Geo. Moore, Jr., John Wolf, Geo. G. Tate, Samuel Taylor, Henry Kirke, Henry Wolf, Henry Ishewer, Jacob Kellerman, Thos. T. M'Clure, John Denny, John Lee, John Watson, William M'Phoran, Michael Denoy, Joseph Keith, James Coalman, Geo. Weyman, A. White, Wm. Murray, Isaac Richards, Wm. G. Welch, Jacob Conrad, Charles M'Curry, Abraham Woodring, Geo. O. Keys, Andrew J. Hunter, Thos. Montgomery, A. Thompson, James M'Orwick, George Simer, John Marks.

The Carlisle Herald and Expositor.

to consent and comply, and at the same time informed me that he would not do so unless I would let him have the settlement of all the business...

much stronger ground by the affidavits of the Messrs. Stonebrakers; men of as good moral character as any in this county; and there is no earthly inducement which I could conceive to make the elder Stonebraker, or the younger either, swear to that which would not be true.

Let not the friends of Internal Improvements in other parts of the State be deceived. This attack is as much upon them as upon us.

From the Pennsylvania Telegraph. READ! READ! READ!!!

THE CARICATURE OF THE GETTYSBURG RAILROAD.

The friends of David R. Porter, finding no chance of his election as Governor, finding that his fraudulent insolventy had been established by the records of the Court and the testimony of highly respectable and pious witnesses...

During the fall of 1801, I became acquainted with John Stonebraker, and lived with him in a few rods of his house for some length of time. I have since that time lived in his neighborhood, been intimate with him and regularly had dealings with him for the last thirty-six years...

With astonishment I have seen Thomas M. Owens, of Birmingham, announced in the Porter papers, "as an exemplary pious man, and an elder of the Presbyterian church..."

HENRY FULTON'S AFFIDAVIT. Huntingdon county, ss. Personally appeared before me the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said county, Henry Fulton...

Mr. Benedict—Justice to myself is my apology for thus intruding upon you and the public. My name has been frequently used in the public prints as a supporter of Gen. Porter, which I was. When Gen. Porter was nominated, the idea was held out by himself and friends...

MICHAEL WALLACE. Morris township, Sept. 8, 1838.

Mr. Benedict—Justice to myself is my apology for thus intruding upon you and the public. My name has been frequently used in the public prints as a supporter of Gen. Porter, which I was.

HENRY FULTON. Sworn and subscribed before me the 4th day of Sept. 1838. DAVID SNARE.

Further Evidence. We call attention to the letter of Michael Wallace, Esq., an old member of the Senate; a careful perusal will satisfy any body that Porter has not paid all his just debts.

As much has been said in relation to the signing of certain certificates in favor of Mr. Porter, I shall here take occasion to explain. The first certificate was a denial of a charge made in the celebrated Campbell letter, as it was called, charging Porter with concealing property for fraudulent purposes...

The next was a certificate of 8 Lawyers (myself one) stating that there were no unsatisfied judgments on the docket against Mr. Porter. Mr. Porter stated to me, that they were all paid except costs which was the reason satisfaction had not been entered; Lawyers know that such is often the case.

and you seal his doom that moment. I am surprised that our friends countenanced the proposition for one moment, seriously. If they had any doubts themselves on the subject, and cherished a hope of disproving the charge...

Who would desire that when the united income of all our Public works, if completed, would exceed FOUR MILLIONS of dollars per annum? Pay off the State debt, and pay all the State and County taxes in the Commonwealth.

James M. Porter is here; he mixes a great deal with the Delegates, and tries to make himself very agreeable. I am not clearly of the opinion that it is good policy for Mr. Porter to show so much zeal and anxiety in reference to his brother's election.

Our only salvation is the abolition hobby, and my only hope of success is in imposing upon the ignorant Dutch. They, you know, can be made to believe almost anything.

Thousands of dollars are sent into this county, which are distributed about among the poorer sort of our men, who bet it. This has the effect of stirring them up to industry.

General, I will not detain you longer. Your native State; by the unanimous vote of her representatives, presents you this weapon, blazoned with your honorable fields, in acknowledgment of your services.

GEN. BRADY'S REPLY. This valuable testimonial awarded to my military services by my native State, accompanied as it is by your kind and complimentary address, excites emotions in my breast...

GOV. RITNER'S ADDRESS. On presenting the Sword to Gen. Brady. GENERAL—It affords me true pleasure to present to you this mark of the approbation of your native State.

The services thus intended to be commemorated are those rendered to the country during the last war with Great Britain. In that contest it was the pride of Pennsylvania to behold you and her other heroes, standing among the foremost in the rank of duty and of glory...

But, General, your claims were not earned in one battle, in one campaign, or in one war. From the moment when you joined the gallant Wayne, an Ensign in 1792, your country has beheld your course with pride.

There is a proposition on foot here started by the Riter men, to send a committee, consisting of an equal number of each party to Huntingdon, to examine the records in relation to Gen. Porter's insolventy.

There is a proposition on foot here started by the Riter men, to send a committee, consisting of an equal number of each party to Huntingdon, to examine the records in relation to Gen. Porter's insolventy.