

CARLISLE

Tuesday Afternoon, October 23, 1838.

The People's Candidate, FOR PRESIDENT,

Subject to the decision of the National Convention.

PAt the request of a number of our deration of the fair sex. constitution, which was adopted by the ci- er interesting articles worth the reading, and a pretty is a "bitter pill" for some of our loco foco merits. friends to swallow now, though they were. The whole magazine is well got up, and we recomgreat sticklers for its adoption before the mend it to the notice of our readers. election.

tattered and torn" appearance, and the length of mation from the Spectator.

The Amendments.

principle, whilst it will prevent the Governor from Come to the point at once. rewarding the brawling and dishonest politicians who have labored so hard in his behalf, will have the effect ouf the State which now exists. With the New Constitution, and a Senate opposed to him, Gov. Porter, but little authority.

New Constitution would carry, we think that there would have been much fewer Porter men. It is really votes either way. Thus, our victory is metancholy to think that some of the POOR FEL complete ... it is brilliant and heart-cheer-LOWS who have been so noisy and active, cannot get ing --- it has secured us eight anti-Van Butheir reward without applying to the people instead of ren members of congress in room of as mathe Governor.

Grog Stopped.

the public houses in this borough was kent onen at the expense of the Porter men, as a place of resort withstanding the late contradictory accounts. heavy sufferers by the late fire,) between for the regular Suckers. Topers and Loafers, well The returns have been received at the Se- Fourth and Fifth steets, fronting on the finddled, were visible at all hours of the day and hight patronising the free establishment with great liberal cretary of State's office at Trenton, from once given, but the dry lumber burnt with lity, considering there was nothing to pay. It was a the election districts embracing Millville, such fury, that before the engines could delightful time for the lads of spirit. A full skin and Deerfield, and Southampton---the vote giv- take effect several frame buildings in the no charge; too good-too much happiness for mor- en in each of which places has been disal- vicinity were on fire, and the flames soon ed -- the free, the virtuous and incorruptible democ- ceedings, which consequently elects the en- The grocery store of Mr. Hutton, on the racy are not needed until the next time, and sad to tire whig ticket by a majority of between corner of Market and Fourth streets, was relate, the grog's stopped.

Betting.

We consider the practice of betting on elections as system, we have but little doubt that Gov. Ritten tions would have been re-elected by a landsome majority, by our loco foco opponents in Berks York Philoon this subject which might have the effect of correct- "laws, unless their commissions shall be su- with advantage. The sacred but ill-fated ing the evil. Let a law be passed disqualifying any "perseded by new appointments, or shall building was then reluctantly given up, and person interested in any bet on the election, from "sooner expire by their own-limitations, or after burning an hour or two presented a and from voting for one year, and upon conviction be- 'death or resignation, and such laws shall dering ruins. fore any magistrate to be fined heavily for the use of "be enacted by the first legislature under Two buildings one frame, the other the informer. Such an enactment would have the de- "the amended constitution."

The General Election law contains the followceived, although remonstrated with upon its-illegatook this illegal method of deterring voters, over theman is the author of the scurrility which The dwelling house of Mr. Simons and whom he might have an influence, from exercising has been published against Mr. Watts and the widow Shannon were burnt. It is re-chief wire-puller. their elective privileges freely and without restraint; other gentlemen of estimable character, ported that Mr. Simons, property, as also This case should be made an example, for the sake of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great principles of perfect freedom in the election of the great perfect freedom in th tive franchise.

The New-Yorker is one of the very best hebdomedals in the world. In many respects it is colipsing of the thinks which no body else ever dis- loss of the church, were fated to witness all cotemporaries - Madisonian.

We concur in the above, and will further say that residence, in Wisconsin Territory, of General George part in the 'martyrdom of the unfortunate Cilley!" and Quintana; in Texas. thus follow Messrs. Hollman & Simons, ded to Harrisburg, # American Museum.

A large Monthly Magazine, published in Baltimental city. The first article is entitled American Authors, in which is given a brief sketch of the life and literary writings of Washington Inving, Esq. We can heartily agree with the writer in his commendations of Knickerbocker's History of New York, one of the most graphic and amusing histories ever we had the opportunity of perusing.

Ancient Monuments in North and South America is the title of an article on that subject, from the pen of C. S. RAFINESQUE, which no doubt would be highly interesting to antiquarians, and all such as desire to pry into the history of those who inhabited this ontinent in by gone days:

The last article we shall notice, as our time is imited, and other duties require our attendance, is a very long one, entitled Atlantic, being an account of the singular discovery of this remarkable Republic in the regions of the southern pole, together with GEN. W. H. HARRISON bome remarkable circumstances connected with some days by gone.

This article contains some wholesome truths, which we especially commend to the notice of the Southern nullifyers, and also some worthy the consisubscribers, we this week publish the new - In add tion to what we have noticed, there are othtizens of this state at the late election. It time to peruse, and therefore can say nothing as to its

We will pay some little attention in Anos, Fast Line.-We yestership received thro, our next to the threats of the big commisthe Post Office the Montrose, Pa. Spectator, dated sioner. We regard him and his threats as April 19, 1838. We know not the precise route the much as we do the idle wind. He has not spectator took in reaching us, that judging from its heard the last about the sburious dickeds, time it has been upon the road, which has just been nor-com he frighten us by his blustering. _ six months, we should think it probable that it came via If he is as valorous as he pretends to be, he Canada or Toxas. Friend Amas will have to give should have marched with Capt, Hendel's his horses the whip, and not let them travel at that company during the last war, and not have small-like pace. We gleaned much valuable inforskilked from the service as he did.

The senior editor of the Volunteer The Amendments to the Constitution are, contrary still, harps about frauds said to have been to the expectations of every one since the election, committed by the friends of Ritner at the rearried. Although we opposed their adoption as far late election in this county, but takes care as our vote went, yet we are willing to derive the comfort, that it will take from the new Governor to make no specific charge. We dare him Porter much of the patroinage which that officer has to do so-we dare him to "come up to the heretofore enjoyed. Almost all the officers under the scrutch? manfully-and we dare him to de-New Constitution are either to be elected by the people or appointed by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. This wholesome commit Fraud at the Inspector's election.

The returns from 91 counties in the of breaking up that perfect party organization through- state of Georgia, which embrace all but one county, show that the lowest candidate on even if his election should not be set aside, will have the whig ticket is 577 votes above the highest candidate on the loco foco ticket. The If it had been known before the election that the other county will not change the result 100 ny loco focos.

It is notorious that, previous to the election, one of that New Jersey is safe for the whigs, nottal always to enjoy.

But the election is over—the votes have been poll—lowed on account of illegality in the probuilding attached to the Eutheran church. 300 and 400.

The new constitution will go into effect on the first of January, and the term was within a few feet of the church, and We consider the practice of betting on elections as of Gov. Ritner will not expire until the 3d burnt furiously, threw volumes of flame to of the Legislature!! For this glorious victent to which it was carried during the canvass just Tuesday in January. For the benefit of a considerable height, and covered the hopassed, exercised the most injurious influence upon some of our loco foro friends, we subjoin ly edifice with fire. The cornice was in a J. Ingersoll and his tools in the Northern and that the great frauds which have been combilited ..... The appointing power shall remain as gines. Every effort that could be made in delphia county and elsewhere, would have been 'ment of the executive department shall save the church-butin vain. The whole ing away the whole vote of Lancaster avoided. The election went into the hands of the "continue in the exercise of the duties of roof, from the inside gable to the belfry, gamblers, and they made use of what they calculated "their respective offices, until the legisla- was soon in a blaze—the, flames leaped upon winning from our friends, to corrupt and buy "ture shall pass such laws as may be re- with lightning rapidity up to the spire-the not only votes, but Inspectors and Judges of Elec- "quired by the 8th section of the 6th artifour points, highly combustible, were all to resort to every dishonorable and contemptions. "cke of the amended constitution, and until most instantly enveloped—and the great tible trick that a deprayed heart, united with We would gladly see some additional legislation "appointments shall be made under such elevation prevented any water reaching it considerable talent, can suggest, did not serving as Judge, inspector or Clerk of an election, "the said offices shall become vacant by woful spectacle of scathed walls and smoul-

the assertion made by the Volunteer, that site side of Fourth streat were also suc-"If any Judge of the election, Inspecton, or other person, before the polling of the tickets be closed, shall unfold, open, or pry into any such ticket with design to discover, the names of the candidates therein, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars."

"If any Judge of the election, Inspecton, or other he is the author of some strictures upon the canal, a square distant, in the direction in which the wind blew, were in much danger from the sparks, which flew like sum of fifty dollars."

"If any Judge of the election, Inspecton, or other he is the author of some strictures upon the canal, a square distant, in the direction in which the wind blew, were in much danger from the sparks, which flew like sum of fifty dollars." article for this paper, nor was he ever con- flakes of snow, and fell fast and thick upon There was one Inspected at least in the Carlisle sulted on the subject of what was publishthe roofs, but were promptly quenched.

District whom we understand was in the habit of ed. Can the Volunteer say so much of the grave-yard attached to the church inopening and prying into the tickets which he received, although remonstrated with upon its illegaWilliam S. Ramsey and its columns? We tervened, and happily so, for had there been buildings on that ground, they must lity. This man had bets upon his own district and think not! It has not denied that this gen-inevitably have been destroyed. William S. Ramsey for his "talents," his was not, and of course, the loss falls heavy "merits," his "honesty," and a thousand on the congregation, who, in addition to the covered are the productions of William their burial ground necessarily thrown open, Never was praise more merited.—Baltimore Chro- himself. The community will think no and the tombs defaced by falling timbers nicle. hetter of Mr. Ramsey, because he praises The church was built during the late war, P. S. Since writing the above, we have it is the very best periodical which we receive at this himself and villifies the best citizens of and cost, as we understand, about $15,000. Tearned that we were in error in stating

W. Jones, the individual who acted so distinguished a ber partially inundated the towns of Velaco not a little singular that calamities should so, certified to them, and had them forwar-

Pennsylvania Election.

Below we give as full a return of the structive scene of July. more, by Brooks & Snodgrass, the first number of which has just reached us. We have not had time for a careful perusal, but from a hasty sketch of some of to collect up to this time, and also the mathe leading articles, we are prepared to hail it as a jorities given for and against the amendvaluable addition to the light literature of the monu- ments. They will not vary much from the 3310 1535

Adams,

	Adams,	0010	1090	` :· .	-514
	Allegheny,	1533	:		58
	Armstrong,	·		1648
i	Beaver,	2457	1932	``813 <sub>`</sub>	٠
	Bedford,	2386	2478		164
	Berks,	3215	7101
	Bradford,	2219	2420	3928
í	Bucks,	4147	4553	733	٠.
	Butler,	1700	1653	1671	.*
	Cambria,	•	78		32
	Centre,		1046	517	,
-	Chester.	4971	4527		120
	Columbia,	1088	2616	50	ţ
	Clearfield,	474	792	789	٠
ĺ	Crawford,	1957		2927	"
	Cumberland,		2743
	Dauphin,		1944		235
	Delaware,	1731	1263		16
	Erie,	2713		2721
i	Fayette,			1877
	Franklin,	2560	2815	1011	158
ţ	Chache		1768	2000	100
	Greene,		_2761_	2325	74
-	Huntingdon,	_3687_	_2701 <sub></sub>	·
	Indiana,	463	. 204		23
	Jefferson,		124	237	ء نـ
	Juniata,	863			59
	Lancaster,	8558	135		77.0
-	Lebanon,		1533		176
j	Lehigh,	2349	2460		45
ļ	Luzerne		550	2462
1	Lycoming,	2146	2541	407
i	McKean,	· · · · · ·	- 185	299
Į	Mercer, '.	2934	2323	1831	٠.
1	Mifflin,	;*	186		8
	Montgomery,	3748	4558		38
ł		366 ,		1039	٠.
1	Northampton.	2566	3635		193
:	Northumberland	, 1164	2144		127
į	Perry,	883	1916		20
l	Philadelphia city			٠.	347
ĺ	Phila' county,		7982	2921
i	Pike,	117	523		-
ŀ	Potter,		160	:7
٠.	Schuylkill,	1508	2271	_; ?; ?	35
:	Susquehanna,	1116		1673	,
•	Somerset,	2244		1010	150
	Tions		-1448
	Tioga,	2270
	Omon,	4410	1505		271
	Venango,		972	1339
ľ	Warren,	9500	403	0010
	Washington,	3528		2818	1
	Wayne,	538	1062	1253	٠.
ĺ	Westmoreland,	2315	4561	1881
	York,	3257	4197		426
	·				-

109,078 115,798 42,220 39,669

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

We copy the following particulars of an awful fire which occurred in Harrisburg on Sunday last, from an Extra of the Pennsylvania Intelligencer of yesterday: the Youngwomanstown district."

similarly sad task.

in the meantime emptied, and the building torn down to save those adjoining.

The roof of the lecture building which passed, exercised the most injurious influence upon some of our loco force friends, we subjoin by connection. Had it not been for this the following section of the new constitutions, we have but little doubt that Gov. Ritten by our friends in every part of the county. full stream of water from one of the en-"herete foro, and all officers in the appoint- the awful hour, was put in requisition to brick-between the church and Market street, were saved by extraordinary exer-In justice to Mr. Watts, we deny tions. The row of buildings on the oppo-office.—En, Hen, & Expos.

We are not advised as to the origin of that the ten recreant judges had repented of the fire. Some suppose it to have been the their conduct, and had signed the regular residence, in Wisconsin Territory, of General George

The storm's northerly winds in Septem
The storm's northerly winds in Septe used in the shop for several days. It is the time had expired for the judges to do and that this conflagration should rage immediately across the street from the de-

The Carlisle Werald and Urpositor.

The entire loss is estimated at $25,000

Another Outrage.

We believe the opinion is becoming tronger every day, that such gross and unexampled corruptions charactarized the Majorities. recent elections throughout Pennsylvania. Ritner. Porter. For. Against. 4120 that justice to all the parties, as well as to the Old Constitution be defeated at all, it is defeated by a very small vote, while the reknown to have been perpetrated in Philadelphia, and one or two other counties similarly situated, and in which hundreds of illegal votes are known to have been polled. Under such circumstances, an investigation is inevitable, and will no doubt take place. The conduct of the locofoco Judges of Philadelphia alone, will impose this duty upon the Legislature, to say nothing of similar conduct on the part of similar politicians in other sections of the State. A second flagrant instance of this kind is thus noticed in the Muncy Telegraph: "One of the most arbitrary stretches of a petrated by the majority of the board of Return Judges of this county, on Friday evethat the districts should be call alphabetical-2 Youngwomanstown district was called, a o number of affidavits, letters, &c. were read, and the board arrogated to themselves the them, but to the Legislature, and refusing to hear the return judge by his counsel; did "That there may have been some illegal votes given in this district, we do not pretend to deny; but we do dispute the authority of the board of return judges in the matter, further than to see whether the return was regularly made out. They had no right to Judge of the legality of the votes. That power is clearly vested in the Legislature, and it would be placing the rights of citizens upon a slender foundation, if the return judges possessed the power to throw away several hundred votes because half a dozen or so were polled that were illegal. We have not space to pursue the subject farther at this time, but shall give some extracts from the election law in our next. "The three dissenting judges made out and forwarded a return containing the vote of Three months since it was our painful . In the case of the Philadelphia outrage duty to record the destruction of half a public sentiment was never more decided, square of Harrisburg. In the deepest regret we are again called upon to perform a ering the circumstances of the case. Every where throughout the country, the conduct where throughout the country, the conduct of Mr. Ingersoll is denounced in the strongest terms of reproducion; for abroad as at large parcels of fair, to good brands can be obtained at 88 per bbl. Rye Flour has hat New Jersey is safe for the whigs, not where throughout the country, the conduct of Mr. Ingersoll is denounced in the strongest terms of reproducion; for abroad as at large parcels of fair, to good brands can be obtained at 88 per bbl. Rye Flour has books are in the hands of Gentleman is looked upon as the obtained at 88 per bbl. Rye Flour has sons indebted to the firm will please call and pay prime mover in the whole affair. We shall from time to time copy into our columns such expressions of public obinion as may seem apposite to the case, anxious that the Philadelphia public at least, should see the manner in which this high handed outrage GRAIN-Wheat, owing to the declin upon the rights of our citizens is appreciattatives, the Senate and one member of Con- sales of round yellow at 94 a 93; and 10 gress in the county of Philadelphia, which a 12,000 bushels Southern yellow at 93 to secures to us an ascendancy in that branch tory we are indebted to the infamous Charles

There would be the same justice in throw County because there were illegal votes taken in Columbia! This inciter of mobs, riot and murder, whose ambiton leads him succeed in his violation of all law and decency, though he got ten of the seventeen Judges of the county to second his views by certifying to mis return, declaring himself elected. They however, not wholly lost township, this county. to all shame and every feeling of self-respect, like their prompters, soon discovered the disgrace which they were heaping upon themselves by their illegal proceedings signed the regular returns in season to meet their requirement of the law, which were sent by Express to Harrisburg, and are illness, at the residence of his grandfather. now deposited with the proper officers .- McMurray, John Culin McMurray, We are informed that Ingersoll intends to of his age. contest the seat of Mr. Naylor. But if he has any regard for his character (political) or feelings, if he has any, he had better not trust himself in the hands of Congress.-He will be weighed in the balance and found wanting. We have spoken partidularly of Ingersoll in this outrageous affair, because we believe him to have been the

The loco-focos may learn a lesson in this The loco-locos may reach a treasure of the sounty transaction, and the righteous punishment which they have received, and which we are earnestly requested to send delegates to this meetings and the finds of education and public generalized to attend. hope they will profit by, that "honesty is the best policy." We believe that they are no less deserving in some other parts of the State, and that strict justice will be dealt

MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, October 20, 1838.

prevailing wagon price was $7,75. Since J. Moore, et al then, however, prices have receded a lit- M. Weise, for use tle, and sales from stores have been made. John Gray, including parcels yesterday, at $7,87½. James Clark, Some dealers continue to ask $3. The R. R. Church, character of the State and the nation, requires that an investigation should take place. Indeed the probabilities are that if sult, even upon this important instrument, thought that to effect sales of large parcels may be seriously affected by the frauds something less would have to be submitted to. The wagon price to-day is $7,62\frac{1}{2} a M. Ege's Ex'rs. 7.75, although some dealers are unwilling to give over $7,50. Rye Flour .- A few loads have reached the market, and have been taken from wagons at $5,25. Sales in small parcels from stores at $5,50.

GRAIN.-Wheat .- At the time of making up our last Weekly Report, we left the market in an unsettled state, occasioned by the English advices by the Royal William, and the consequent advance of bread stuffs in the New York market. On that day sales of good to prime Virginia reds were made at $1,70 a 1,75, and parcels of power that we have lately lieard of was per- the same descriptions were also sold at the same prices on Saturday and Monday last turn Judges of this county, on Friday or the bulk of purchases being on accounty of eastern houses, and our own millers fearing defeat by the laborers on the canal buying but very sparingly, if at all. On Tuesday prine Virginia reds would not sons to the Youngwomanstown district to bring over $1,70, and since then prices spy out something by which a cloak could have declined still further. Within a day be had for their concerted and unlawful pur-or two past the supplies have been quite pose of throwing that district entirely out limited, but the market nevertheless has of the return. Accordingly, when the been dull, and but little disposition on the judges met, arrangements were made so part of millers to nurchase: Without any part of millers to purchase: Without any actual sales to day on which to found quoly and not as they are numbered, which tations, we have notwithstanding so clear a would throw the district of which we view of the state of the market, derived are speaking, to the last. When the from both buyers and sellers, that we quote good to prime Virginia reds to-day at $1,60 a 1,65-being a decline of ten cents a bushcl since this day week. A sale of 2000 power which the law does not delegate to bushels white Maryland was made early in the week at $1,80.

Corn.-The prices early in the week were for white 90 a 91 cents, and for yellow 96 cents. Sales of white yesterday at 90 cents, and of yellow to-day at 94 cents, Plain and Striped London Cassimers; and we quote accordingly.

"Rye.-We continue to quote at 90 a 95 cents. Oats. Sales early in the week at 43 cents-more recently at 41 a 42 cents, with a fair supply.

WHISKEY.—Sales of linds. early in he week at 441 cents, and more recently the week at 44½ cents, and more recently at 44 a 44½ cents. Sales of bbls. from stores yesterday at 46 cents. The wagon price of bbls. is 40 cents exclusive of the barrel. The inspections of the week comprise 29 lhds. and 814 bbls; of which 136 bbls. were received from Philadelphia.—Baltimore American.

Beaverteens; Flannels, Blankets, Merino and Lambs wool Hose; French and London, Chiutz; Silk Velvet Vestings; Stocks, Shirt-Collars, Suspenders, Gloves, &c. &c. Also, a general assortment of Fresh Groceries, all of which will be sold on accommodating terms and unusually low for eash. Purchasers are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves, at the old stand four doors east of the market house, and directly opposite S. Elliott's Drug Store.

CHAS. OGILBY.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20, 1838. FLOUR AND MEAL. A further decline has taken place in the price of Flour. Sales early in the week at $8,50; later at $8,25 for export. Some sale also for exsales at $5,25 per bbl. Corn meal, no sales reported. Last sales were at $4 in bbls. 1000 bbls. old stock sour Flour have been exported to Liverpool this week. in flour, is rather lower. Sales of 5,000 bushels at $1,75 for good Delaware and ed abroad. The following is from the last bushels at $1,75 for good Delaware and number of the Columbia (Pa.) Courant: $1,85 to 1,80 for good red Pennsylvania, "We have the teal gratification of an and very prime white $1,90 a 1,85 per "We have the teal gratification of amounting to our readers the cheerful and wholly unexpected intelligence that we have our wholly unexpected intelligence that we have our whole ticket for the House of Representation of the demand fair—considerable large and the demand fair—considerable la 87 cents for prime to inferior quality-some common mixed at a lower price. Oats are scarce; sales at 40 a 41 cents per bushel. WHISKEY-in bbls has sold at 43, hhds. at 411 a 41, occasionally 40 cents, being a decline since last week, '

MARRIED.

On the 10th instant, by the Rev William T Sprole Mr William Kiddoo, of Allegheny county, to Miss Keziah, youngest daughter of the late Nathan Woods, Esq. of Dickinson township, Cumberland county, By the Rev D P Rosenmiller, on the 16th instant, Mr Samuel Leppert, to Miss Barbara Menzer, both of Frankford township, this county.

On the 18th instant, by the same, Mr Jacob Waler, to Miss Catharine Hizer, both of Frankford. On the 27th ult by Rev Henry Aurand, Mr John Stoke, to Miss Adessa Wyre, both of Westpennsboro'

On Tuesday last, by the same, Mr Jacob Filer, for-merly of Lancaster, to Miss Eve Furst, both of Frankford township.

DIED.

On Wednesday morning last, after a protracted Mr. Thos. ifth year

General Lyceum Meeting. The Cumberland county Lyceum will hold a quar terly meeting of the association at Newville, on Satur terly meeting of the association at rewards, the 27th inst:

At 2, P. M., the following question will be discussed:—"In what branches should instruction be given in our Common Schools." After which reports will be received from the various sectional Lyceums; and minerals, specimens of art, &c., exhibited. At 7 o'clock, P. M., an address will be delivered by Professor Emory on "The improvements of the ingt and the Iriquus of cralling are invited to attend, ROBT. CAMERON,

ROBT. CAMERON, Secretary of Cumb'd. Co. Lyceur October 16, 1858.

OUSLINE De Laines and Challees, new style just received and for sale very chean at the store of C. OGILBY.

TRIAL LIST.

List of Causes for Trial, at November Term 1838. First week commencing or the 12th day of November.

FLOUR.—In the early part of the week, T. Duncan, esq. f. u. vs J. Moore's Adm'r. sales from stores were made at $8, and the Wm. Crawford, vs S. M'Laughlin, vs T. Weakley, et al vs J. Cronister's Ac vs James Wilson. vs Jacob Weise. vs George Cart, ve T. C. Lane's Ad. Joseph Pond. vs Same, vs W. Moore, et al Rob't McGregor, G. Harlan, et al

2d week, commencing on the 19th Nov.

J. W. Eby, et al vs S. Boyd, et al vs. G. Himes, et al Charles Barnitz, vs D. McClure, Ad. George Himes, vs Jacob Keller, John Beatty. vs Samuel Beatty, Jacob Fetter, vs Sam'l Alexander vs J. Rodgers' Ex'r. Jane Rodgers Heirs of W.M.Sharp vs C.V.R.R.Comp'y Pèzer Tritt, vs G.&W. McClure R. R. Church. vs M. Dunlap, David Lamb. Simon Ovster. vs John Black. Daniel Kutz. vs Martin Cornman Commonwealth. vs Peter Livinger, E. Bulluck, vs Wm. Martin, et al vs B. W. Waples, vs G. Houk, et al B. Lyon, V.R.R.Company vs M. Meiley, vs H. Bitzer. M. Boyle, V.R.R.Company vs John Moore, lane Dysert, vs Jas. Dysert's Ad. Ab'm Hursh, vs George Smith, M'Cormick's A's. vs J. Longnecker, e l S.Redett's Ad. for u. vs John Moore, vs J. D. Mahon, &c Griffith Evans. G. R. Leeper, vs F. Herron, esq, e I

NEW GOODS. CHEAPER THAN EVER.

Elizabeth Martin, vs James Wilson, C. B. Hall & Co. vs James Givin.

vs J. Hennon, et al

John J. Bennett.

HE subscriber has just received a large and hand-FALL AND WINTER GOODS, which he is selling cheaper than ever sold in this town or county. His stock consists in part of Super Black, Blue, Polish Green, Citron, Olive, and Oxford mixed Clothe; Sattinets of all colors and qualities. Super French, German and English Merinoes; light colored Silks; figured ditto. new styles Black and blue black rept Silks; 4 black Italian Mantua; 4 1-4 do do, super black Silk Velvet; handsome colored Silk Velvets and figured silk for bonnets; Merino and brocha Shawls.

Super Velvet Cords,

CHAS. OGILBY.

Carlisle, October 23, 1838.
P. S. A very large and general assortment of Hais, Caps, Boots and Shoes, just received and now opening in the room adjoining the store, sold wholesale or retail very cheap for cash.

C. O.

Dissolution of Partnership.

their accounts immediately, as the books will be put JAMES A. GALLAHER,

GEORGE HENDEL, Jr. Carlisle, October 1, 1838. The subscriber, thankful for past favors, informs #### his friends and the public generally, that he Livery Stable.

on that he wanted the mildle patronage. GEO, HENDEL, Jr.

October 23, 1838.

TUR Caps, Collars, Tippets, &c. Just received a new stock of Fur caps—and also a lot of Hair, Seal and Cloth Caps, for sale by C. OGILBY. BLANKETS.

ROSE, Mackinaw and striped Blankets, now c. ogning at the store of c. ogni.BY.

INSTRUCTION

N Writing, Book-keening, English Grammar Arithmetic, Algebra, &c. will be given by the subscriber in an EVENING SCHOOL, to com mence as soon as a class can be formed. For further particulars, terms, &c. annly immediately to ROBERT CAMERON.

Carlisle, Oct. 23, 1838.

FRESH GROCERIES.

JUST received a lot of Loaf and Brown Sugar Coffee, Rice, Molasses, Nutmegs, Cloves, and very fine Tea—sold low for each. C. OGILBY.

CARPET-CHAIN, white and colored, for sale by C. OGILBY.

MEN'S superior Lambs-wool Drawers and Shirts for sale by C. OGILBY.

Notice to contractors.

SEALED proposals will be received at the Canal Office, (Halifax) until sun-set, on Monday the 20th inst for constructing Sections No. 1 and 9, Aqueduct No. 1, and any other work that may be abandoned on the Wiconisco Canal.

J. P. RUTHERFORD. Superintendent.

Halifax, Oct. 17, 1838;

Carlisle Artillery! TAKE notice that the annual Court of Appeal for this common will be held at Macfarlanc's Hotel this company will be held at Macfarlane's Hoton Monday the 3th day of November next, betwee the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock, P. M. By order of E. M. BIDDLE, Captain. Carlisle, Oct. 23, 1838.

CASSIMERES. A N assortment of London Cassimeres, plain and striped, just received and selling at a small advance, at the store of ... OGILBY.

20 cases of Shoes, just received at the Hat and C. OGILBY.

TO MY CREDITORS.

Take notice that we have applied to the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland county, for WOOL dyed black Cloths. Also, Blue Pollsh Green, Invisible Greed and Citron Olive Cloths, new lot, selling at reduced prices to sail the times.

C. OGILBY.

To the rear of the Hotel of Common Pleas of Cumberland county, for the hearing of us and our creditors at the Court House, in Carlisle, where you may attendallyou thias proper.

PATER-proof Boots and Over-Shoes can be had very good and chesp at the store of the had very good and chesp at the store of the carlisle, Oct. 10, 1838.

Carlisle, Oct. 10, 1838.

Carlisle, Oct. 10, 1838.

Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland county, for that he has removed his

Livery Stable

To the rear of the Hotel of Col. George Ferree, where you may attendallyou thias proper.

PETER EGE,

SAMUEL C. HOLANDER

Carlisle, Oct. 10, 1838.

Carlisle, Oct. 17, 1858.—5v.

Magnificent Lottery. CAPITAL PRIZE.

100,000.

The most Brilliant Scheme ever drawn in the United States.

ALEXANDRIA LOTTERY. CLASS A, for 1838.

sitively drawn at Alexandria, D. C. Satur-day the 17th November, 1838. 75 Number Lottery-12 Drawn Ballots.

1 GRAND PRIZE OF $100.000 30.000 do. 20.000 10.000 8.000 7.500 6.000 5.000 4.000 3.740 Prizes of 2.500 2.000 1.000 800 500 zes of $250-200-150-100-80

40-and lowest prize $20
Tickets only $20-Halves $10-Quarters $5-Tickets only $20—Haives $10—Qua Eighth $2.50. Ceit's of packages of 25 Whole Tickets Do do 25 Half do Do do 25 Quarter do Do do 25 Eighth do of Packages in the above Unrivalled Schemes, will receive the most prompt attention; and an official account of each drawing sent immediately after it is D. S. GREGORY & Co. Managers, Washington City, D. C.

October 17, 1838.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

THE subscribers will sell by public outery on the premises, on Saturday the 17th day of November next, (sale commencing at 16 o'clock, A. M.) the farm late the estate of Jacob Crim, sen, deceased, situate in Dickinson township, Cumberland county, nine miles southwest of Carlisle, containing # 165 ACRES.

About 100 acres are cleared, and in a good state of cultivation. There is a good two story

LOG DWELLING

HOUSE,

Log Barn, and several out houses on the premises. The above land lies on both sides of the Yellow Breeches Creek; about half a mile west of Spring Mills. Terms will be made known on the day of JACOB CRIM, ABRAHAM CRIM, Executors of Jacob Crim, dec'd. Dickinson township. 248.

October 17, 1838. 548.
The Lancaster Herald, Harrisburg Intelligencer, York Republican and Gettysburg Stor, will publish the above till sale, mark price and charge this office.

SIX CENTS REWARD.

Ranaway from the subscriber, residing in Dickinson township, on Thursday the 4th inst.; an indented apprentice to the Farming Business, named DAVID GOODLINK. Said boy is about 19 years of age, of small size, notorious for telling lies, and very fond of liquor. He took with him a light suit of summer clothes. The above reward will be given, but no charges paid to any person who will deliver said boy to the subscriber; and all persons are hereby cautioned against harboring him at their peril.

JOHN-WEAKLEY.

Dickinson tp., Oct. 9, 1838.

NOTICE.

TETTERS of Administration on the estate of Joseph Spangler, fate of North Middleton township, deceased, Laving issued to the subscriber residing in North Middleton township, all persons inlebted to said estate will make payment immediate-ly, and those having claims will present them for set-

JACOB HERSHEY, Adm'r. October 16, 1838.—6w

To the Creditors of Jacob Switzer late of the Bor-ough of Mechanicaburg. NOTICE is hereby given that the subscriber, who is the auditor appointed by the Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland sounty, to make a final Common Pleas of Cumberland county, to make a final settlement of the trust account of Jacob Rupp and Michael Hoover, assigned of Jacob Switzer, aforesaid, and to make distribution of the effects in their hands according to law, and the terms of the trust aforesaid, to and among the creditors of the said Jacob Switzer, will meet for that purpose on Saturday the 10th day of November next, at the house of John Hogver, Innkeeper, in the horough of Mechanicsburg, at 10 o'clock in the morning, when and where all parties interested are notified to attend.

LEVI MERKEL, Juditor.

LEVI MERKEL, Auditor. October 17, 1838 .-- 4w

ASSIGNEE ACCOUNT

TOTICE is hereby given, that the account of S. Dunlan Atlair, Bug. Assignee of HENRY. RINGWALT, has been presented to the Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland county, for confirmation and allowance, and said court have appointed the first day of November Court, (being the 12th day of said month) for its consideration, and Rule on all concerned to shew cause, why it shall not be confirmed and allowed.

— GEO. FLEMING, Prothonotary.

Prothonotary's Offica, Carlisle, ? October 5. 1858 - Aw VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE. A first rate Limestone Farm, situate about 6 miles west of Carlisle, containing 278 Acres, about 200 Acres clear and in a high state of cultivation; the balance is well timbered, and there is a large quantity of Locust on the place.

The improvements are a new Two Story BRICK HOUSE & KITCHEN.

AND LARGE BANK BARN, with a Tenant House, Stabling, and two Apple Orcliards. There is a well of water, and several very large springs near the House. The tormlike Road from Harrisburg to Chambersburg passes through the furm, and the Rail Road passes nearly in sight.
This property is well calculated for two farms.
The above property is worthy the attention of capitalists, as it will be sold low. The fittle is indisputaqle—Euquire of

E. HOSSERMAN.

E. HOSSERMAN. ROBERT IRVINE.

Carlisle, October 16, 1838.—4w The Lebanon Courier, Lancaster Herald and Examiner, and Lancaster Volksfreund will publish the above 4 weeks, mark price, send papers, and charge this office.

To my Creditors.

Take notice that I have applied to the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, of Mifflin county, for the benefit of the Insolvent laws of this Commonwealth, and said Court has appointed the first Monday of November next, for heaving me and my creditors at the Court-House, in the horough of Lewistown, in said county, when and where you may attend if you think maner. think proper. GEORGE SEEBROOKS.

Lewistown, October 16, 1838 .- St.

LIVERY STABLE. THE Subscriber, thankful for past favors, respectfully informa his friends and the public generally, that he has removed his