A VALUABLE FARM — FOR SALE.

IN pursuance of the last will and testament of Mathew Thompson, deceased, will be exposed to public sale on Thursday the 20th Becember next, the following described valuable property, situate in Mifflin township, Cumberland county, about 3 miles west of Newville, and 1½ miles from the Cumberland Valley Rail Road. Streat containing

224 ACRES,

With other Out-Houses,

A BRICK BARN, over 100 feet long, with Wagon Shed, Corn Cribs, &c. &c., two wells of water, one at the door; Also, a

LOG TENANT HOUSE,

and Double Log Barn, with an excellent speing near the house.

This property is admirably stanted in a loop of the Goinedouthnet Creek, by which it is nearly encircled; at the same time the banks are sufficiently high to prevent overflowing. It affords a good situation for a Grist Mill, Forge or machinery of any description, and the neighborhood is such as would justify improvement of the kind. There are immense banks of Iron Ore within 4 miles, and the Blue Mountain about the same distance, would afford obundance of timber. The property is all patented, and an indisputable tille will be given, and possession on the list April 1839.

Ist April, 1839.

Persons desirous of investing their capital in good property, will do well to view this before the day of sale. Those wishing to view the farm will please call on Mr. Matthew Thompson, residing on the premises, or with the undersigned residing in Newville. Teims will be made known and attendance given a consumption.

So happy are they in their knowledge of remedies, and so certain of their effects—when applied in time, that it may be said "a true consumption is a discuss—never—known—or—heard—among—them." The truth of this observation must be corroborated by all who have had the opportunity of becoming acquinted with these people. It may then be asked why they are exempt from these complaints? The reason is obvious; because they immediately seek for relief, and prevent those complaints which insensibly undermine the constitution, and bring on incurable consumptions.

Bills of direction accompany each bottle of the Specific, pointing out in a company cach notice of the Specific, pointing out in a conspicuous manner, all the symptoms in the different stages of these distressing diseases; also particular directions respecting Diet and Regimen, and how patients are to conduct themselves through every stage until health is restored; for vain and useless would be the prescriptions of the ablest phisician, accompanied by the most powerful medicines, if his directions are not faithfully.
