WM. H. HARRISON. FOR VICE PRESIDENT; DANIEL WEESTER.

The Pricies of Temperance Theoughout the County, Are informed that by communicating with some one of the Executive Committee of the Cumberland County Temperance Society, they may receive assistance in carrying on Temperance meetings in any part of the county, provided they will take upon themselves the trouble of providing a suitable place of meeting, and giving due notice of the same.

Rev. H. Aurand

Executive

1. Editor

B. Elliott Thus, Trimble Committee cide the dispute:

the Senate adjourned.

their heads. Mr. Hanna had learned that, notwithstanding the evidence that had been given before the committee, clearly establishing his right to the seat, by proving before the Senate the principal facts of the

The Secretary of the Commonwealth bedirected the printing of 8000 copies in English and 6000 in German of the report of the

The Senate also ordered the printing of

A joint resolution to adjourn on the 20th

his thanks for the honor conferred upon readers was transacted in the house.

transacting any business.

then adopted by a vote of 15 to 13.

3000 copies in English and 1,000 in Ger-

Canal Commissioners.

commonwealth.

took his seat.

Washington, were appointed a committee, and all will be safe.

COUNTY MEETING.

A meeting of the citizens of Cumberlan county, opposed to MARTIN VAN BU--REN, and in favor of the SUPREMACY OF THE LAWS, will be held at the court from the house, to inform the governor that day evening the 14th of January instant, at ready to proceed to business: early candle light. Carlislo, January 1, 1839.

on Thursday the 3d day, of January inst. at two o'clock in the afternoon, to take measures for the nomination of a candidate to fill the vacancy in the State Senate occasioned by the death of Jacob Cassat, Esq. The following named gentlemen compose Maj. Christopher Au, Jesse Duck, Joseph Whistler, David Coble, Wm. Palm, James M'Elhany, Dan'l Leckey, Francis T. Near, . Sturgeon, John M. Martin. Punctual attendance is requested. -

We wish our patrons and friends a happy New-Year, and hope they may one and all enjoy health and plenty during the present year. While in the enjoyment of the good things of this life, however, we " hope they will not forget the wants of the printer, but "come up to the scratch" manfully, and discharge their various dues.

to issue the Message of Governor Ritner in that as they had prejudged his case against and the Atlantis. The last is a continuaon extra sheet to-day, but have been unable the law and the facts, he would return to his tion of a highly interesting and instructive to accomplish our design. Our subscribers, however, may look for it in a day or two.

in relation to loofers and loungers, had the legally entitled to his seat, and that the deoffect we interced in some measure. We eision of the committee was an outrage. Leve since Leen able to 'breather cre free' Let the facts go forth; for "TRUTH is might and its Reviews and Literary Notices are -to read our exchange papers and concoct ty and will prevail." paragraphs without nuch interruption—to receive money and communications from ing introduced, presented the annual mescur friends without being gazed at by loaf- sage of the governor, which was read by booker, which have rendered it so deserved ers-and our hands are better enabled to do the clerk, and 5000 copies in English and their duties. Still there are a few scatter- 2000 in German were ordered to be print Published by Brooks & Snodgrass, Baling ones, who "cest a longing, lingering ed. lock" towards our premises, and who have . Lad the indelicacy to sneak back to their old quarters again, thinking no doubt that we will overlock their intrusion; but we · are determined to keep our hot shot in motion, until we shall have rooted them out, or their cheeks shall mantle with the blush man of the report of the Auditor General, of shame, if they be not callous to all sensi-

GENERAL ALEXANDER .- The Volunteer of week before last, contains a wanton and uncalled for attack upon the gentleman whose name heads this article. The great cause of complaint appears to be, that Gen. Alexander issued orders upon the requisivolunteers to march to Harrisburg, "withmander of the battalion, his intention." And the whig members appeared and were qua- Last week, however, the editor has entirely licious critics, how few are there whose af- Treasurer cannot take place on the 8th. mander of the battalion, his intention." And the whig members appeared and were qua-why should be intimate to Col. Foulk his lifted—whereupon Mr. Hopkins resigned changed his tune, and harps away on an fections are not twined firmly around self, under the existing act of Assembly. Thus was to protect the legislature in the exer- chair by Mr. Cunningham of Mercer, and the injustice of the state in not so allowing and the more conspicuous a man's station, perfy-and to keep in check a lawless mob a very neat speech, in which he returned ell"

We regret to say that Col. Foulk has him. The oath was administered by Mr. that "the government was at an end"is also a member of "the provisional government," and, as such, cannot acknowledge the authority of any other power. PHe has, by his position, declared his opposition to the government, and his approval of the outrages which have occurred at Harrisburg-

Why, then, should he be employed or consulted in the measures taken to suppress treason? Col. Foulk has lost the confi-

The Carliste Werald and Urpositor.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS .- We renew THE SPECIAL ELECTION .- Tuesday the our notice of the proceedings of the legis- 15th day of this month has been fixed upon lature of this state, commencing on Wed- for the holding of an election for a Senator their week's services. 'Master Ephraim,' dividual can and does see himself as others resday last. On that day, a letter was re- to fill the vacancy in the State Senate occaceived from Mr. WAGNER, of the county of sioned by the death of Jacob Cassat, Esq. Philadelphia, resigning his seat in the Se- We hope it is searcely necessary to remind nate. This was owing to the fact, that the the FRIENDS of the supremacy of the laws Senators who composed the majority of the and cosh onden, that much, very much, ommittee appointed to inquire into his depends upon their efforts at this time. Now; right to a seat, had prejudged his case by if ever, is the time for every lover of his says they did. the vote which they gave the day before on country to be up and doing. Now is the Mr Michler's resolution, and also his desire, time for the opponents of mobs and mob to let the people of Philadelphia county de- law in this district, to show to the world at larges that the citizens of the fourteenth sc-Mr. Roogns offered a resolution, fixing natorial district of Pennsylvania are opposthe hour of twelve on the 15th of January, ed to mobs interfering with and compelling as the time for the inauguration of the new our state legislature to pass such laws, and to do such acts as they may direct. Let Messrs. Bell of Chester, and Ewing of but the friends of good order do their duty, in confunction with a similar committee house in the borough of Carlisle, on Mon- the general assembly was organized and number of this valuable periodical is before discovered in his department, and under of life and character, far more excellent and At this stage of the proceedings in the one. The articles are varied, interesting, sible for it. The discoveries are now ac- public opinion solely. "Know thyself" is burgh Republican: Senate, Mr. Penrose called Mr Fullerton and instructive, and admirably sustain the knowledged to have been made, and do not a motto inherited from a wise Greek, and (copy.) Kingston Jan., 7th Dec. 1888. arranged according to the decisions of the to the chair, and announced to the Senate high literary character which it has fairly any longer rest on rumor, as the officers of one which ought to be the secret spring of A meeting of the Standing Committee of that he had that moment received the heart- won for itself. It embraces among its corrective war department openly speak of it at all our actions. No hidn can obey this by Tho Democratic Anti-Masonic Party, will rending intelligence of the sudden-death of respondents a great number of the most ce- Washington. be held at the house of Mr. C. Macfarlane his colleague, Mr. Cassat. The feeling and lebrated writers in England and America, impressive manner in which Mr. Penrose both in prose and poetry, and is edutionally performed this duty, produced a powerful gaining new acquisitions, not only to its paimpression in the Senate chamber. The gus, but to its subscription list also. Then Senate ther, on motion of Mr. Penrose, we have the 'Literary Notices' and the 'Epassed a resolution appointing a committee ditors' Table,' which are mostly brief and to inform the house of the sad event and that highly interesting, and which reflect much he committee, viz: Jacob Lindie, George the Senators wear crape on their arm for 30 credit upon the talents and industry of the L. Line, George Fleming, Wm. M. Por- days. After the appointment of a commit- editors. We are pleased to learn that this ter, James Postlethwait, Wm. S. Runsha, tee to make agrangements for the funeral, magazine will enter upon a new volume has always seemed strange to me, and for good heart will supply the best motives, has been very short that has been allowed. with the new year, with unequalled-liter-On Thursday, Mr. Hanna (as we learn ary prospects, and undiminished determior moral from any incident which may have human action. The "men's courcia siti they may not think of revenging my death. from the Harrisburg Telegraph) took his nation on the part of the editors, not only leave of the Senato in a speech of great pow- to preserve; but to enhance, this reputation capable of application, not only in general, the great fountain of light most strongly up- ine, from what I have seen, that all-three Benjamin Givler, Wm. Mullen, Robert er and eloquence, in which the committee of their work. Published by Clark & Edappointed to investigate his right to a seat son, 161 Broadway, New York, at $5 per-were told some truths that made them hide annum in advance. Tar American Museum. The third No of this maganize has been on our desk for some time; but we have recently found time to peruse it, and we think it improves in mefrauds and perjuries of the deepest die they rif as it increases in age. It contains some had determined to report in favor of Brown, excellent articles, among which are one on the loco-foco claimant; and, as their report. Goology and Revolution by the Rev. Labor Geology and Revelation, by the Rev. John was final, he-took the opportunity of laying G. Morris, a graduate of Dickinson college; one on Bohemian Literature; the Game-We had hoped to have been enabled case, and then bade them farewell, saying ster's Daughter; the Disclosures of Science, constituents, and refer the matter to them. story, which, from the novelty of the scene We trust that he will do so; for no man and the beauty of the composition, cannot can become acquainted with the facts with fail to interest and excite every reader. But The mars we then out in our last out being convinced that Mr. Hanna was the majority of the articles in this magazine are, in our humble opinion, too prolix, and too few in number to render it popular-"few and far between," which renders it rather hamon. In these departments we think it might well imitate the Knickerly popular with the reading community .-On motion of Mr. Strong, the Senate timere, at $5 per annum.

hall will be seen by reference to anon Thursday next. The object of the meeting is to appoint conferees to meet others from the counties of Adams and Franklin. containing the statement of the banks of the We would suggest Saturday next as the ing. What say our friends of Adams and is our conduct viewed by those around us? The Secretary of the Commonwealth at of enslaved Canada's being benefitted by it was buried yesterday, his body being folof this month until the 12th of January, was Franklin to this?

On Saturday, the house met at half past son, who can thus Tiber them. one in the morning, and adjourned without to oppose the measures of the mob. leader of the abolitionists in this country! of the way of smelling powder and ball. thing confusedly in its eddies, than the calm oners,

The Volunteer boldly asserts, that stream bearing noiselessly the waters of ten men received more than your LYING sheet character have we? A man honest and de- in getting out of. The motion to be made

A correspondent wishes us to inquire of Master Ephraim, whether or not it is true, that when the call was made on our volunteers to march to Harrisburg, he hid himself in his father's garret in a flour barrel, and remained there till the troops

France, is a defaulter to the government to heartedness and deceit. THE KNICKERBOCKER.—The December a large amount. A vast deficiency has been

For the Herald & Expositor.

zian Club. NO. 2.

"O wad some power the giftie gie us, To see oursel's as ithers see us."-BURNS. the subject, and calculated, by its observe tapers of his fellows. mee, to produce pleasure or profit. Now. any one who remembers the occasion upon which the above lines were written, will, Iam sure, agree with me in the opinion, that ity of the Commonwealth, to publish the our poet has not effected an important part to nowing statement of facts:

On the 28th instant, the following jont re- To Warren Green, Esq. Salina, of this object. It is not, however, my insolution was faid before the Governor for State of New York, U. S. tention at present, to attempt a formal criti- this apprehation:

ness, as in its general tendency. Sentiments are sometimes ushered into bearing their authors' names as credentials, are admitted without question or examination. Such an one this appears to be. Its subject is man-its object the improvement of his character-and if the method which at seems to carry this to the highest point. The consent to sign the resolution, and prelis prayer is, that we may sac ourselves pared a message stating his objections, and the with the British, I have no inclination to of the multitude. The prisoners were then Some look down upon us with contempt—tended at 12 o'clock on the night of the 28th than was at Prescotts for what can a few lowed to the grave by the military, the fire others look up to us with fear. Some surothers look up to us with fear. Some sur- tatives, to deliver the message to that body, On Friday, the committee in the case of The editor of the Volunteer, in his vey us with the jaundiced eye of envy—in which the resolution originated but there Brown vs. Hanna, reported in favor of the paper of week before last, complained bit. others with the glass of prejudice—and our was not a quorum of members present, and right of the former to a seat in the Senate. terly of the expense the state would be at dark points, like shadows in the moon, be- the House adjourned till the 12th of Janua-Alexander issued orders upon the requisi- right of the former to a seat in the Senate. terry of the expense the state would be at dark points, the state wou burg, inasmuch as the state would be com- indifference-others with hatred-and, a of the Legislature from the present day till In the House, on Thursday, several of pelled to allow them three months' pay, midst the vast crowd of voluntary and ma- the 12th of next month, the election of intention? In the first place, it was not re- his office of Speaker. A new election was other string! For the purpose of creating and whose judgments are unwarped? How the Treasury will be wholly unprotected quired by law; and, in the second place, it then gone into, when it appeared that Mr. dissatisfaction among the men, when he ag- few who imitate the Greator, and judge by the requisite surety for eight days; or would have been an act of folly. The ob- Hopkins had 57 votes, and was declared certained that they had not been paid for rightfeously? Men in community are con- from the 8th to the 16th of January, even ject of the presence of troops at Harrisburg, duly elected. He was conducted to the that length of time, he complains bitterly of tinually injuring each others' reputation, cisa of its duties to guard the public pro- Mr. Smith of Franklin, when he delivered them! "Oh, consistency! thou art a jew- the fairer mark does he become for the arrows of envy. "I is well, therefore, that who resolved, at a public meeting, to seize the members to attend the funeral of Mr. three cheers for Porter. We notice this what is to be gained by viewing ourselves for indictment and trial—some for treason apon the State Arsenal in defiance of the Cassat, which took place at 12. At three notorious falsehood, merely to let the citi- as others view ust. What is the object to against the State, some for murder; some Castle of San Juan, to convince us of the faithful Executive, saw the predicament in public authorities, and who were only pre- o'clock, the house again met, when the Se- zens of this borough, who were at the rail- be accomplished? We need not, however, as accessaries to murder, and some for great proficiency of French Artillerists in which they had placed the State, and with vented from executing their designs by a cretary of the Commonwealth being intro- road depot when the troops started, see speculate long on this point: the poet himvented from executing their designs by a creaty of the Commonwealth being intowhat an infamous and brazen untruth the self tells us in the following lines: "It wad facts which have not yet been published to we must have some other instance than this, sent in as soon as it met this morning toeditor of the Volunteer is capable of coin- frae mony a blunder free us, and foolish no- the world, but not deeming it proper to make before we can believe that the wooden adjourn. But the Loco Foces having On Friday, nothing of interest to our ing and circulating, and to make the mem- tion." In other words, we might be led to them the subject of newspaper comment be sides of ships of war are better calcular heard of what was prepared, and being debers of the battalion acquainted with a per-establish closer guard over ourselves, and fore the trials of the accused, we forbare ted to resist the effects of a cannon ball, sirous also of defeating the bill to provide to observe more carefully the outward proprieties of life: in balancing our conduct, PIt is said by some mischievous folks public opinion would become both the ful- it most probable they will be divided and in our town, that 'Big Ephy' of the Volun- crum and the weight. But the man who, The legislature of Ohio, on Thurs. teer, who is a member of the Artiflery corps, in his conduct, has no other motive than reday week, elected Judge Tappan to the U. declared to his father when he was trying gard for others opinions and who possessdonce of the friends of good order, and S. Senate, in the place of Thomas Morris, to persuade him, to march to Harrisburg es no native independence of character, is would have been as advisable to consult or the present Senator, by a majority of seven like a man, that he "wasn't a going there to to be despised." And were public opinion employ the notorious John J. McCahen, or over the whig candidate, Thomas Ewing. be killed by them ere Philadelphia bullies made the only test of action, what would George W. Barton, or Gen, Diller, or any Judge Tappan is a brother of the celebrated, and butchers, as skeared every body -no human society be? It would more resemof the colemated "committee of safe- Arthur Tappan, of Now York, the great indeed, he would rather stay at home out ble the boiling whirling every the volunteers were only allowed $1 96 for thousand rivulets, But allowing that an inthis is another fulsehood, and had you gone see him: that he turns over his every acto Harrisburg along with the company to tion, and comments upon it as do his neighwhich you belong, and which you would bors; and that he is induced, by considerahave done, had it not been for your cow- tions thence drawn, to lead honest and ardice, you would have found out that the moral life allowing this, what kind of a cent, because it would not benefit him to be to morrow by A. P. Hart, Esq., before the otherwise-whose principles are founded judges, will, it is said, completely expose on the moving sand, and whose morality is a garment to be worn when on the stage; that the judges will give their opinion and thrown off when behind the scenes. against the legality of the whole proceed-Such would seem to me to be the effects It appears that Cov. Cass, formerly self knowledge and happiness, it would in- and a large portion of the men have return-Secretary of War, and now Minister to troduce into the world far more of cold- and to their homes, Governor Mason was

But there is a rule for the improvement this reason: A poet, in drawing a reflection and a good conscience the best means of me. given rise to his effusions, usually makes it reti" is a sirror which reflects light from Let no further blood be shed; and believe rence;

TERM STATES THE ALLEY.

cism upon Burns, nor to consider this sen - Fits heal by the Smale and House of timent, so much in its particular apposite- Representatives of the Commonwealth of William Johnston, addressed to the editor Fennsylvania: That the election of State of the Albany Evening Journal will be read the world, which seem to derive most of next, and shat the Tresent Treasurer be their weight from their paternity, and which, continued in office until the day aforesaid.

WM. HOPKINS, . CHARLES B. PENROSE, Speaker of the Sengte.

On consultation with the Attorney Gen.

To assert that we should pay no regard. The Treasurer when elected gives bond munitions of war, and experienced officers: arrested and placed in confinement. to the opinions of others, would be no less with surches in $80,060. But the bond There was but one military man, and he a 1889, and after that day the sureties will be every man of them. as others see as: here is no qualification, calling on the Legislature to take the neces- see the lives of my innocent countrymen remanded to jail. no condition. But in what different lights sary measures to protect the public funds. | sacrificed when there is no better prospect

though the resolution should be adopted

previous to the last named day, which doubtful,-Penn Telegraph. the shield of truth is impervious, and that from the Western Star, of Nov. 20, that manding the troops in the city of Vera nia, that may "take legs" at any time be-The same veracious paper of the some are always found ready to lift up its the examining trial for the Mormons, be- Cruz. It is of a most singular character, tween the 8th and the 16th of January and We regret to say that Col. Foulk has him. The oath was administered by Mr. same date says, that when the volunteers broad disk for the protection of innocence. Smith of Franklin, and the house then adsays, "Some twenty-five or thirty were distributed by the Mexican Government and This is one of the first acts of Loco Foco Smith of Franklin, and the house then adjourned till three o'clock, so as to enable journed till three o'clock, so as to enable three cheers for Porter. We notice this what is to be gained by viewing ourselves for indictment and trial—some for treason We needed not the distruction of the rule. Gov. Ritner, the ever watchful and arson, burglary, robbery and larceny. We the exercise of that particular branch of his usual independence and alacrity, preparare informed the testimony discloses many military science to which they belong, but ed a message, vetoing the resolution, to be the safe custody of the prisoners, but think by French Artillerists, we guess the result several of the leaders placed themselves sent to the jails of the most convenient counties having jails. They are at present under the guard of a part of Capt. Bogard's company of militia, Gen. Clark having disbanded all his troops by order of the Gover-

CANADIAN AFFIARS. The correspondent of the New Commercial Advertiser at Montreal, dated the 10th instant, makes the following remarks in relation to trials by court martial in Lower Canada: "It is pretty certain that the government lias got itself into a dilemma with regard to the trial of Cardinal and others, by court martial, which it will have some difficulty

General Scott arrived at Detroit on the naturally resulting from the establishment oth instant. The Detroit Advertiser states of such a rule of conduct as is implied in that the leaders of the Patriot forces have the above lines: instead of increasing man's abandoned their enterprise for the present, legal advisers. There is scarcely a doubt

The execution of the unfortunate Pole, Von Schoultz, at Kingston on the 8th instant, is confirmed. The following affeeting letter, written by him the evening us, and is a most excellent and entertaining such circumstances that he must be responsate than that which bids us regard before his execution appears in the Ogdens-

I have been informed that my executionwill-take place to-morrow. May God for- one in French for admiral Baudin, the othproxy; for no man can examine the recesses give them who brought me to this nating er in Spanish for General Don' Manual of his own heart by means of his neight ly death. I have made up my mind, and Rincon, and after having been read by the bors' eyes. Although our moral structure I forgive them. To-day I have been contracting parties was signed on board was demolished by the entrance of sin, yet promised a lawyer to draw up my will.— His Majesty's frigate Nereide.

I s foundations were left, and conscience is foundations were left, and conscience will. I wrote to you in my former letterwas placed as a guard over the rains. And, about my body. If the British government as on one hand, we cannot uproot these permit it, I wish it may be delivered to you foundations, without first destroying the to be buried on your farm. I have no time to write long to you; because I have great That Burns should have placed this sen- guard; so, in the other, we must make use need of communicating with my Creator. timent in the connection in which it occurs, of it, if we would rebuild the structure. A and prepare for his presence. The time

> My last wish to the Americans is, that think on her as my mother. God reward you to take care of W. Johnson, so that Whave been requested by the Secreta- my dear friend God bless and protect

S. VON SCHOULTZ.

The following letter from the celebrated Treasurer, be, and the same is hereby post- with interest. He denies all participation. poned-until the sixteemin day of January in the Prescott expedition against Canada. ALBANX, 14th Dec. 1838.

young men of the State of New York.

troops are supplied with every thing re- almost too powerful to be repressed. quired for an army?

The patriot cause has suffered and is still suffering more from pretended friends in THE TREASURY OF PENNSYLVAthe States than from its open enemies in Canada. It is from the treachery of a pretended patriot that your humble servant is within the walls of this prison.

Yours, respectfully. WM. JOHNSTON.

MEXICO.

We have been favoured with 'a cony-their disclosure. We are not apprized that the sodded or stone walls of a fortress. for refunding a portion of the public debt with certainty what steps will be taken for Had the guns from the Castle been served that becomes due on the let of January, Cour.

TRANSLATION.

The indictments will be preferred in the retain but a garrison of one thousand men, Focos thus effected two objects of great counties of Ray and Daviess, but it is all above that number will leave within two importance to plunderers—opened the thought the venue will be changed from days, and not approach, within ten leagues. Treasury to robbery and bankrupted the those counties at the instances of the pries Gen. Rincon will retain his authority in State. This is but the beginning of the the city, and binds himself in honor, that 'fron reign."-Har. Telegroph.

the garrison will not exceed the limited number, of one thousand men, until the differences between France and Mexico have been completely adjusted.

2nd. As soon as the present treaty is signed by both parties, the port of Vera Cruz will be open to all Flags, and the Blockade will be suspended for eight months, expecting that an amicable arrangement will take place between France and Mexico.

3d. The Commander of the City of Vera Cruz will strictly observe that no difficulty is placed in the way of the French troops occupying the Port of St. Juan de Ulloa. providing themselves with fresh provisions from that city. 4th. Vice Admiral Baudin binds himself to cause the evacuation of the Fort of St. Juan de Ulloa by the French troops, and return it to the Government of the Republic, together with the utensils of war received with their corresponding inventories as soon, as the actual differences with France are settled.

5th. The French citizens-who in conscmence of hostilities had been obliged to leave Vera Cruz, will-have full liberty to return there; their person and property shall be respected, and any damage their property may have sustained during their bsence shall be repaired by a competent indemnification on the part of the population and the Mexican authorities; the indemnities due the French citizens will be -The present treaty is made by duplicate,

C. BAUDIN. M. RINCON.

Vera Cruz Nov 28, 1838.

SERIOUS AFFAIR.

Louisville, Dec. 17 A fearful rencontre occured at the Galt House, in this city, on Saturday night. Vaious conflicting rumors in regard to it are afloat, and, to avoid errors, we shall only make a general statement of the occur-

On Suturday evening, a difficulty took place between Judge Wilkerson, Dr. Wilerson, and Mr. Murdo, all of Missisa general principle springing naturally from look for direction, not to the climatering Give my-love to your sister and tell her. I sippi, and Mr. Redding, merchant tailor of this city, in regard to some coats which her for all her kindness. I further bee had been made by the latter for some of the first named individuals. Redding aphe may find an honorable friend. Farewell, pears to have been roughly used, and he went to the Calt House after night to get redress, accempanied by three or four of his friends. In the bar room, he met Judge: Wilkerson, and some words passed between them. The Judge retired, and in a short time returned with Dr. Wilkerson and Mr. Murdo, all armed with Bowie knives. A general fight almost immediately ensued. Mr. Meck, a bar-keeper in the Wall street House, was struck dead by a Bowie knife. A similar knife was passed through the lungs of Mr. John Rothwell, a batter in this city, who died last evening. Mr. Holms. Sir I understand that stories have been a steamboat pilot of engineer, was also bad busily and industriously circulated that I ly cut. In a short time a crowd had col-Speaker of the House of Representatives, am one of the persons who planned the lected around the combatants, and the Mis-Prescott expedition, which has resulted so sissippians retired up the steps of the lisastrously to so many of the gallant, Hotel, and, in going up the steps, one of oung men of the State of New York, them received a wound in his shoulder I had no hand in getting up that affair, from a pistol that had been dropped in the it implies for accomplishing that object be east who happened to be in town, the Gov- but on the contrary used my best endea- contest. He returned the fire without efthe correct one, none would be more ready the resolution if approved, would deprive me upon the subject, that it was an friends were unarmed—at least, they disthan myself to accord it due praise: if it be the State Treasury of that protection which undertaking that could not be carried played no arms during the conflict. Judgo

December 18 .- Judge Wilkerson. Dr. abourd than to maintain, that we should expressly, by its terms, only binds the prin- foreigner. The men were all undiscip- Wilkerson, and Mr. Murdo who took part cipal and sureties till the second Tuesday hard. I frequently told all who conversed in the bloody affray at the Galt House on make them our sole criterion in passing of January aiter its execution. The bond with me, that if they were taken in Canada Saturday evening, were taken from jail. judgment upon our conduct. No man, per- in the case of the present Treasurer, will ex- with arms, their lives would be forfeited, vesterday morning amidst a very large haps, ever doubted the necessity of paying pice on the second Tuesday in January, and I verily believed they would be hung concourse of people and carried before the Examining Court. The examination, some deference to others" opinions; but 1829, and after that day the sureties will be every man of them.

Examining Courts I be examination, some deference to others opinions; but released. The resolution prolongs the term. It is true I have suffered much from however, at the solicitation of the prisoners, other article in this paper, that the Standing there have been a vest variety of theories as of treasurer without providing that he shall British tyranny. My property has been was deferred till to-morrow. Judge Wilto the 'quantum' and the 'quale.' The po- give surety for De increased time. Under confiscated and my family beggared; but kerson spoke for a a considerable time in These circumstances the Governor could I thank God we are not yet their slaves .- behalf of himself and his fellow-prisoners,

Mr. Rothwell, who fell in the affray, ble officers, military stores and provisions, citizens. There was evidently a powerful in an enemy's country, were, the regular excitement amid the assembled throng-

NIA OPENED TO PLUNDER.

The resolution of the Legislature, extending the time of service of the State Treasurer, has put the entire funds of the Commonwealth into the hands of Daniel Sturgeon without the security of a single dollar. It has opened the Treasury to the mercy of the Loco Focos, who are greedily looking for means to carry out their "Provisionia which we annex-of the treaty concluded Government." It has placed, without the hetween the French Admiral, command- least limit or control, into the power of an ing the squadron which bombarded and irresponsible individual, the entire resources took possession of the Castle of San Juan of the State, and effectually made a "Sub-THE MORMON PRESONERS. We learn de Ulloa, and the Mexican officer com- Treasury" of the Treasury of Pennsylva-would have been very different .- N. Y. the roundo and at the door, to prevent a quorum of members from going in, so that no business could be done. In conse-Treaty between his Excellency Vice quence of this, when the House met, al-Admiral Chas. Baudin, and his Excellency though there were more than a quorum of General Don Manuel Rincon. members in the capitol, yet only 27 appear-Article 1st. The City of Vera Cruz will ed in their seats, and adjourned. The Loco