The Carlinle Merald and Trpositor. Committees had been appointed by both PENN'A LEGISLATURE houses to make arrangements and prescribe ----the manner in which the inauguration should then of the nominations before them made mer usages; designating positions of the FIRE AT RICHMOND-DESTRUC- MORE PLUNDERING-THE MOB TAXES, Loco Focus has commenced take place. On Monday, Mr. Rogers pre-REPORTED FOR THE PENN'A TELEGRAPH. المحمد التي المحمد المراجع المحمد ا not character of the gentlement, he had sufficient committee and was the dovernor as well as the Governor as the Governor as well as the Governor as the Governor as well as the Governor as well as the Governor as the Governor as the Governor as t IN SENATE. not change the relative position of others ; clect. MONDAY, Jan. 14, 1839. The Senate came to order at 11 o'clock maracter of the genticmen, he had state production of the vold say that if it was sent independent of the sentence in the nump rouse of the back to the committee it would not be al-ments. The alarm was given at eleven for SEVEFTY-FIVE of the bullies that indebted. The State Treasurer in his re-back to the committee it would not be aland the Secretary of the Commonwealth being introduced, presented two Messages from the Governor,--one nominating Joseph Mr. BARCLAY said that the last words issuing from a basement tenement, occupied of doors, "Deputy Sergeants at Arms !!" indexed and thinks is a count of the last words issuing from a basement tenement, occupied of doors, "Deputy Sergeants at Arms !!" Mr. F. saying that since he was on the tered. Senger, of Lehigh county, for Associate floor he had changed his mind. He now floor he had changed his mind. He now is the postive it did not. There seems to be plucked from the Treasury of the series and working to reasing it the tit. I and the secret is postive it did not. There seems to be plucked from the Treasury of the secret is postive it did not. There seems to be plucked from the Treasury of the secret is postive it did not. There seems to be plucked from the Treasury of the secret is postive it did not. There seems to be plucked from the Treasury of the secret is postive it did not. There seems to be plucked from the Treasury of the secret is postive it did not. There seems to be plucked from the Treasury of the secret is postive it did not. Judge, in the place of Hon Jacob Stine, resigned; the other nominating Samuel Yohe of Northampton county, for Associate Mr. FRALEY said now is the time to non-former danges of such doubt and be be in the non- in the second for the said not. I here seems to be pricked not give it. I am ready to receive it, let it be easily understood. That if it was the to be little doubt but that the building was Commonwealth. Judge, in the place of Hon. Daniel Cooper, classes. The farmers of Pennsylvania are for Mr. Ewing, of Washington, upon exa-Commonwealth. People of Pennsylvania for Mr. Ewing, of Washington, upon exa-int so ignorant as not to know that a tax, in mining the report, discovered that it was come from even one of the advisers of the intention to cast an insult upon the present fired by an incendiary, Governor elect, (alluding probably to a Executive or his filends, it was known. It The Eagle Hotel, situated on Main street, You are told by the Loco Focos that there whatever shape it may appear, ultimately worded in such a manner as to give Gov: resigned. Mr. MICHLER, moved that the Senate gentleman in the lobby who. was seen to would be but carrying out the mob principlin the centre of the city, is burned entire, has been "no mob" at Harrisburg; that comes off those who perform the labor. Rither a different and less conspicuous poproceed to act upon the nominations of the The baped that all the information that and that Legislature—the principle avowed partially burned and injured by the falling of the militia—that Gov. Ritner and his first to proceed the way by representing the way by repr Governor, agreeably to the provisions of the new constitution. any Senator possessed against the gentle from the head of the General Government walls. The original cost of the Eagle Mr. ROGERS, wished for time for confriends were only operated upon by fear, first to prepare the way by representing the ing, officially as it were, to insult the Govitself, that no respect was to be paid to the building was $120,000; its age and impersideration. man nominated to them would be given. when there was no danger, and no disor-der. The Loco Foco Sheriff of this coun-embarrassed condition, and thus have an ex-Mr. E. discover this contemptible trick, man nominated to them would be given. Itsen, that no respect was to be paid to be building was $120,000; its age and imper- when there was no danger, and no disor-About the propriety of the course pursu-ed by the Governor there could not be a the banner of rebellion reared in a new question. Had he made the appointments form to insult and trainple upon established of about $25,000. Its was owned by Messre. was no rotous assemblages and no neces-He was not prepared to act upon the nominations. He did not know what was required by the new-constitution, nor the Treasurer has thrown out the suggestion on the passage of the report, which was without presenting them to the Senate for rights, and acknowledged propriety. And Isham Pucket of our eity, and Abner Rob- sity for any aid to protect the Legislature by way of introduction--now it is left for considered, when it-was sent back to the inson of Louisiana. Their joint loss over or preserve the peace -- And yet the Loco Governor Potter to bring the principles in- considered, when it-was sent back to the committee with instructions to make the merits of the gentlemen nominated. He thought it premature haste to ask the Senhave heard the land ring about the corrup- sulted by such a course, felt it his duty to and above insurance is estimated at about Foco Committee of the House of Represenate to act precipitably upon nominations .--ion of the Executive, Mr. EWING was astonished to find that Senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if that Senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if that Senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if that Senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if that Senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if that Senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appointing things indeed, if the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appoint of the appoint of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appoint of the appoint of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appoint of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appoint of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the appoint of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senate could not in-the senators to whom a part of the senators to be a part of the senators to be a part of the senators to be a part of the s to practice .- Harrisburg Chronicle. And he could not vote for them, unless he necessary alterations. Having been foiled had time to examine for himself. 1 in this petty, niggardly pecadillo, and being The Van Buren men of Berks county-Mr. STROHM wished to proceed a resolved upon insulting Gov. Ritner, the once with the matter. He thought that Senpower was given were so much at a loss to struct its committee in any matter-and lost $9,000 worth of bonds, the most of DER employed and necessary, to preserve OR- have established a Vigilance Committe of only way left for them was to do it by hal-500 to proceed to Harrisburg, and passed a lowing and shouting in his presence for Portors generally must be sufficiently acquaintvote on such a question-that they were more particularly in a matter where it was which it is hoped he will be able to get not prepared to vote upon it—and that the intended to ourage the follings of ONE paid. doctrine should be advanced that the offices HUNDRED AND TWENTY THREE. The flames spread with such rapidity. If there was "no mob" and no riot, what resolution offering to place 3000 minute ter.-Harrisburg Chronicle. ed with the requisitions of the new constitution on this subject to act without delay was the necessity of this armed body of men, subject to the order of the Committee of Judges were to remain vacant until a THOUSAND FREEMEN : design were that nothing was saved; and Mr. M. had inen added to the official force of the House And yet the whole loco foco army; that tardy Legislature should see fit to class to be submitted to, then indepiete we fall havely time to rescue his family—his wife of Representatives, to protect that body ? collected at Harrisburgh from Berks and The flames spread with such rapidity, men ? Why were SEVENTY-FIVE at a moment's warning-Madisonian. ---- and if delay were granted, the object of, A letter bearing date Dec. '7th, has been the nominations must be defeated. tandy Legislature should see fit to class to be submitted to, then independent we dul-them. He believed that it was not the qualifications of the candidate, or the Con-structions for the source from which the nomination pro-the source from which the nomination pro-the source from which the nomination pro-the the total before the Senate the Hotel, 40-of whom came in on Satur-the total before the Senate the Hotel, 40-of whom came in on Satur-the total before the Senate the Hotel, 40-of whom came in on Satur-the total before the Senate the Hotel, 40-of the Hotel for the Senate the Hotel for the Senate the Hotel for the Hotel for the Hotel for the Hotel for the Senate the Hotel for t transmitted by Gov. Ritner to the President Mr. CARPENTER, urged the reasons advanced by Mr. Rogers ; he was not prepared to act, and had not paid that attention to the new constitution to know how he should act in this matter. If the nomina reeded that it arose. The opposition came a communication from the Secretary of the day evening. They ill escaped unburt; ing seventy five deputy Sergeants at Arms focos at Harrisburg to admiration. It was that his Excellency's letter "has received from the quarter where opposition had been Commonwealth, relative to prisons and but we suppose their baggage was much of done, and the money of the Treasury something like this: and probably would continue to be against prison discipline; two thousand copies of it lost. Of the basement tenements, that thrown away? Will the Loco Focos. antions were pushed he should not vote at all. Mr. PEARSON was sorry that there a respectful and earnest consideration." were any Senators who had not read the all the acts and measures the Executive which were ordered to be printed in the occupied by Mr. Alexander Duval, Apothe- swer? Our bugles echo on the air, Our flag is streaming high, We go to free our native land that the "commotion grew out of a contronew constitution. After a postponement ust going out of power. It might be English language, and 500 in the German. cary, was entirely consumed. Mr. Daval The reason of this movement is obvious. versy of a grave and delicate character ; and thought by some that the amendments to Adjourned to meet at 5 o'clock, P. M. saved all his goods except from 5 to $7,000 The bullies were hired at fifteen dollars a they might be in the same predicament .--that, although he, had received, through Or for that land to die. The Senate could not oblige its members he Constitution did not take effect now ; official channels, imformation, viz: from worth; his insurance amounted to $10,- head, and their employers not being able - to read it, and there was no 'certainty, that But what is yonder moving throng 'So gallant bright and gay? Hist! tis the Dutch! Lord what a crowd f. but he believed this not the cause of the pre-At 5 o'clock the Senate met to receive 000. Mr. Penrose, Speaker of the Senate, and or willing to pay them according to agreegentleman who had so long neglected to the report of the joint committee on the - The next tenement was occupied by Mr. ment, a demand has been made upon-the sent opposition to the nomination. from Gov. Ritner-from the first that the Good God ! Let's rnn away ! Low. Journal. Mr. CALDWELL did not like the order of inauguration, agreeably to instruce Chastain Clarke, Lottery Vender, Mr. State Treasury under the privilege of the read an instrument they were sworn to sup-Senate could not assemble, by reason of port; and on-a question too, which had agimob rule-there was "subsequent informaquestion coming up. He believed the per- tions. C's loss is inconsiderable. tated the whole state treating upon matters House, for their payment. sons nominated were proper men. He did A message from the Governor was re-When the loco foco riots first commenc- tion"-"not official," but "sufficiently au-It is a degrading, a humiliating sight for The tenement next was occupied by Mr. that called for daily action, would be any not like the position he was placed in ; but ceived relative to the causes and necessity Samuel Pumey, Boot and Shore Store .--ed at Harrisburg the Keystone, a loco foco thentis to entitle it to credit," which stated, better informed after an adjournment, than the People to see the Legislature mobbed he believed that he would vote for the of calling out the militia at the meeting of Loss from $7,000 to $10,000-insurance organ, said that if the Governor dared to call that on the 8th of December "both branches they were then. Re therefore hoped that out of the Capitol by a hired band of des the Legislature, and informing the Legisla- $5,000. out the militia, "streams of blood should of the legislature" were in session, and nominations. there would be no delay of action upon that The question was then taken on the mo- ture that the State Treasurer had refused peradoes, and then PAID FOR THE "The next was occupied by Mr. Hoyt. run hot and gushing along the streets."- transacted busines there ; and that the Sen-OUTRAGE with the People's money. tion to postpone, and decided in the nega- payment to the soldiers, tive, by the following vote : yeas 11, nays The message was read, and 2,000 copaccount. Well, the militia were called out and the ate received messages from the House of Mr.-BROWN wished to know some-Lottery Vender and Broker-loss about We do not wonder at the spirit of indigpoor loco focos found that their blood ran Representatives on that day." In view of tive, by the following vote : yeas 11, mays thing -- bout the men. He wished, to know, 8500. nation that is abroad, and the determination cold instead of hot .- Lou'. Journal. these circumstances, as likewise the want 15. ies were ordered to be printed, when the where the Senate were to how to a Mr. Booth's Upholstery was next. Mr. of freemen to re-assert their rights. The The Sanate then approved of the nomi--About-20 of the Harrisburgh-locos have of certainty of the inadequaey of the milita-Senate adjourned. B. lost every thing except his Books. Ilis reflection that a band of hired rebels who blinger dunission of the Governor, or to act nation by the following vote, viz : yeas 18, published an address to the people. They ry of the State, it was not judged proper loss $5,000, insured to the amount of $2,- | deserve THE HALTER, should be paid apendent body. He wished to know say, that "the offence of the Federalists is by the President to grant the Governor's navs 3. HOUSE OF-REPRESENTATIVES. he was waing for or against. He knew 000; for trampling upon the Constitution and the wh On motion of Mr. MILLER, the Senate rank and smells to heaven." They need request. In a letter of the 14th of Decemnorling viewet the gentlement and asked Lomax Smith's barber shop, adjoined Mr. Jaws, is enough to make the blood of every Monday, JANUARY 14, 1839. not trouble themselves about diat. They ber the Governor protests against the course pursued by the President in reference to then proceeded to act upon the nomination B's. He lost his fixtures, and $103 in patriot "boil in his veins." This is but for information. have shown, that they can bear any smell of Mr. Yohe the beginning of the "iron- reign." A large number of petitions were present-Mr. MICHLIER was sorry to, find that money, Mr. ROGERS said that Mr. Yohe was excep that of 'Dupont's best,'-- Low, Journ. the statements and request contained in the d on various subjects. There were but two tenements below Gen'l Miller, of Gettysburg, recently Messages were received from the Cor, the Eagle completeing the square. The elected Senator in the place of Mr. Cassatt, there were any Senators unacquainted with ed on various subjects. very far from being an amiable man, or letter of the 7th, and denies that the insur-the provisions of the constitution, and Harrisburg, Jan. 16, 1839. free from guilt and crime. He, had once. rectionary movements grew out of a 'politiwould gially give them an opportunity to ernor vetoing the resolution extending the corner one was occupied by T. H. Drew and who presided at the first meeting held MR. POULSON-The administration that cal contest,' as the Secretary had supposed. attacked a Mr. Mobather, put out his eye, learn it, provided the circumstances of the time of the present State Treasurer without as a grocery and liquor store. Mr. D's in the Court House in this place, for the and so wounded him that he lingered a long in the Court House in this, place, for the organization of the Provisional Govern-ment," is one of the 75.—Harrisburg, Telegraph. The new Secretary of State, Mr. Shunk, is a gentleman of the suaviter in Shunk, is a gentleman of the suaviter in The Secretary again rejoins, in a letter of ease would permit it. bonds-and also, the resolution to prevent loss is perhaps more than covered by his while and died-and that he would now As to the qualifications of the gentlemen insurance, which was $15,000. the sale of the Nicholson lands. be in a Penitentiary if justice had overtanamed, "he could say that they were The other-was-occupied by Mr. F. On-motion_of Mr. HILL, the House pro ken him. He had also at the last election Regnault, upholsterer and paper-hanger,overy-way-worthy . and -capable-well modo-but he' took possession of the Se- surance that the state troops "proved suffceeded to act upon these vetoes, when the bet largely, and staked the money in New known to all, and esteemed by their fellow-He rescued his stock on hand, but it is so REFUSAL TO PRINT. cretary's office as though he had expected cient to suppress the domestic violence Jersey, which he had since refused to give same were postponed. citizens of all parties. -Better or worthier much damaged that his loss is from $1500 resistance, and like a bandit. He went complained of." We could not, for the For the information of our readers, we up, and was now concerned in suits for it. Mr. MIOHLER said, the entire state-A message was also received from the there with some half dozen of men, headed life of us, forbear laughing, on seeing how man, he believed, could-not be named. to $2000. No insurance. give below the vote in the House of Rep-Governor, relative to the necessity of call-The fire was the most destructive which Mr. ROGERS wished to know whether the meeting of the Legislature, which was be most destructive which to print 3000 copies of the Message of the fell swoop swept out every clerk, without mess Martin bowed out His Excellence. ment made by the gentleman from . Bucks,] the resignations were handed to the Govthe meeting of the Legislature, which was Penitentiary. The moonlight was very Governor, relative to the mob disturbance exception? This is reform! I will never The Little Fox very well knew who com-Mr. Rogers,] is FALSE. He was at ernor some time ago, or latterly. read, and the usual member, one for each brilliant; but the rays were reflected from at the meeting of the Legislature, for distriome during the temporary adjournment; Mr. MICHLER said that one was handthe burning to a great distance, and present-bution amongst their constituents. We cd one of the grandest scenes we ever be-give the names that the people may know ed in several weeks since, to take effect on knew him well--was intimate with him. the 1st of January 1839, and the other and had never heard a word about what the

within a few days.

Senator had dwelt upon. As to the case of Mr. Mobather, he knew tol most conspicuous, and we have never The motion to print 3000 copies was and twenty-one, have been discovered in

. The Army in Ireland .- The total rank and transportation across the short isthmus

onel is arranging for steamers on the Nile.

Instantaneous Ginger, Beer .--- A London paper gives the following recipe for pretle with pure cold water, then have a cork ter,) and a teaspoonful of good powdered parcof an ounce of supercarbonate of soda ;

No other business of importance was do ne of the grandest scenes we ever bé-transacted in the House, when it adjourned. Among the chjects stood the Capi-tol most conspicuous, and we have, never the monte of print 2000 copies was the indigent circumstances. One tol most conspicuous, and we have, never the monte of print 2000 copies was the provide the monte of the grandest scenes we ever the monte of the grandest scenes we ever bé-tol most conspicuous, and we have, never the monte of the print 2000 copies was the provide the monte of the grandest scenes we ever the monte of the grandest scenes we ever be-tol most conspicuous, and we have, never the monte of the provide the monte of the grandest scenes of the provide the names that the people may know the course pursued by their representatives. The motion to print 2000 copies was the provide the motion to print 2000 copies was the provide t

Mr. CARPENTER wished to know how many nominations they had to act upon before they, proceeded further. He it was purely in self defence. The man that Mr. Yohe acted in self defence. That said it was a very uncommon thing for a man in Pennsylvania to resign the office of Judge. He wanted a postponement to obwas even indicted for the matter, so clear Pedro will not likely become extinct. The tain all information necessary. The yeas and nays were called. was public opinion on the subject. He young King has purchased the Pena Con-did not wish to speak of the dead-but he vent, near Cintra. As the names were being called, Mr. would say that Mr. M. did not die of any Bonuparte Papers .- A large mass of BELL of Chester, whose "clapper" is alinjury that he had received in assaulting letters and other documents, written by most constantly vibrating, arose and in-Mr. Yohe, He lived for several years af- Napoleon when between the age of fifteen flicted a speech of considerable length in ter. the Senate; informing them that he had been

These allegations, said Mr. M. emanate Corsica, containing much curious matter, a member of the Convention that fromed from the bitterest malevolence-the bitter- and are preparing for publication. the constitution, and knew its intent and est animosity—the most rankling enmity meaning better than any one clse. He said the vitest untruth. It was a disgrace to the that these resignations were a violation of Senate to make-it an arena to shock the the spirit of the constitution, which conmoral sense of the community. templated that none should resign-and Mr. ROGERS said that he Irad known probably that none should die. There was of Mr. Yohe's borrowing $100 at the Bank to be a classification to be made by the Legislature, and these resignations and appointments interfered with that duty.

Mr. BROWN again spoke against the motion at some length,

Mr. BARCLAY considered the evidence and the following vote : yess 14, nays 5. tion of Mr. Yohe, which was approved by from Caro to Suez, on the Red Sea, are the following vote : yeas 14, mays 5. being rapidly organized, and an English nominated to the Senate as altogether am-Mr. ROGERS from the joint committee ple and sufficient. It was better than any other testimonials, as it came, from a gen- of the two Houses, made a report upon the After the reading of the report, Mr. EW- paring this pleasant beveraget. Fill a botteman whom all the Senate knew and be- order of inauguration to-morrow. lieved, and who was acting under an oath. Te wished the question acted upon, and ING rose and said, that in that report he the nominations either approved or rejected. thought he observed something more than ready to fit ait, also a string or wire to tie it the nominations either approved or rejected. thought ne observed something more than down with, and a muler to arrive the cork, it was a matter of too small importance to directly met the eye. If he was not mista-so-that no-time may bellost; now put into-coupy the time of the Senate long "when ken there was in the order of the ceremony the bottle sugar to your taste, (syrip is betother business claimed their prompt atten, a direct insult intended towards the present -tion. Executive and the Speaker of the Senate. tion. Executive and the Speaker of the Senate, ginger, shake all well, then add the sixth-Mr. FULLERTON was at a loss to He wished to know whether he saw the ginger, shake all well, then add the sixth-. know how to vote in this case. He wished it matter in its right light-whether it recur-- put off until he could see and determine red to him as it did to other Senators. He cork rapidly and tie down-shake the bother be and be well out the to him as it did to other Senators.

upon the subject. The vote was then taken on the motion believed it was done with a view to insult to-proceed to act upon the nominations, and the present Executive of the Commonesulted as follows: yeas 14 nays 12 wealth, and his friends 1 If this was inten- clipied with an important cause, in which The nomination of Mr. Trexler was then ded, he, as the friend of Goy, Ritner and the Bonaparte family are interested. The resulted as follows: yeas 14 nays 12 taken up, on motion of Mr. Michler. not vote upon the nomination.

these nominations.

were classified.

the party that placed him in power, desir- case is thus stated in the Paris papers. Mr. ROGERS gave notice that he would do know it, that they might act accor- On the 20th March, 1815, eight million you as Collector of Mobile.

The SPEAKER called him to order.

The vote was then taken on the nominaof francs were due to the Emperor Napo Mr. BROWN, also could not vote for He said that he was made one of the leon, for his civil list, and four more for his committee of order, and the report which family. The wants of the army being pres-

Friste went beyond their province in act- cession and ceremony to the Governor elect, ers left the specie in the Exchequer, and tle well-cut the string-the cork will fly saw a departure from former usages, and--then drink ginger beer. The Council of State of France was oc-of francs were due to the Emperor Napo-

Mr. CARPENTER believed that the was particular to assign a place in the pro-sing at the time, Napoleon and his brothing upon nominations until the Judges assigned no place to the present Governor. took checks to the amount, which were to House of Representatives ordered the print- Money may be quoted as worth about 12 be expected in Pennsylvania.

Mr. FRALEY, of the City, was surpris- his friends, he wished to know it—if not, the woods of the State. Subsequently to Governor Porter's address, and refused to led plenty at that rate. The importations of seen it look so majestic. The cellar of Mr. amended by a motion to print the usual it was purely in self defence. The man ARRIVALS.—Denna Maria, of Portugal, was of oil, turpentine; white lead and other in-injured had only himself to blame. No delivered of another royal prince, ou the flammable stuff which could not be gotten YEAS.—Messrs. Anderson, Andrews, out. When the fire communicated to them Barstow Brittain, Brodhead, Biuner, Buta succession of innumerable spirit flames lier, Carpenter, Chandler, Coolbaugh, was produced, which towered to an incon-Chrispin, Darc, Douglass, Evans, Fegely, ceivable height, producing the most bril- Field, Fleuniken, Foster, Gorgas, Hamlin, Hegins, Helffenstein, Heston, Hill of

liant and admirable coruscations.

LACONIC CORRESPONDENCE.

Jones, Kerr, Laverty, Longaker, Love, Every body, almost, has heard of or seen Ley, M'Elwce, M'Kinstrey, Mortimer, Silas Dinsmore. Dinsmore was a brave Nesbitt, Park, Pray, Reynolds, Ritter, man and a wit withal. We have heard it Roberts, Schwner, Smith of Franklin, said that when he was Collector of the Snowden, Strohecker, Walborn, Wilcox, and file of the army in Ireland for Novem- port of Mobile, something not unlike the Woodburn, Work .- 51. ber is as follows, viz., artillory 812, cavalfollowing correspondence took place be- NAYS .- Messrs. Barnard, Beaty, Carothfollowing correspondence took place be-tween him and the then Secretary of the Treasury. We vouch not for its truth, Ehrman, Fisher, Funk, Gratz, B. G. Herr, We vouch not for its truth, I then Hutching Keing Kendig Kintzle ry 1750, infantry 13,247. Total 15,818. Egypt-the Route to India.-The viceof Daylestown, to make a bet there-last roy has received Col, Campbell, connected however. We only relate it as it was told J. Herr, Hutchins, Keim, Keindig, Kintzle, summer, when poor men, mechanics, &c. with this British project, in a friendly man-could not get accommodations from it. with this British project, us a menaly man-ner, and sent a beautiful sarcophagi to the Treasury Department, }

Washington, Jan. 15th, 1822. Sir: This Department is desirous of Hopkins, Sp'r .--- 37.___ knowing how far the Tombighee river runs hous is to be crected half way. The Col-one is arranging for steamers on the Nile. formation.

Respectfully, W. H. CRAWFORD. S. Dinsmore, Esq. Collector, Mobile.

Mobile, Feb. 7, 1822.

and of informing you in reply, that the a satisf ctory report of my disburse Tombigbee does not run up at all. *Tombigbee does not run up at all. Tombigbee does not run up at all. Towe it to myself to say that the statement is utterly faller. I have ac- the statement of public money Government—and the Pennsylvania leech-*Hon. W. H. Crawford, Secretary 'Treasury.

-Treasury Department, 2 Washington, March 1, 1822. Sir : I have the honor to inform you that this Department has no further service for Respectfully, W. H. CRAWFORD. S. Dinsmore, Esq., Mobile.

Montelius, Morton, Morrison, Penniman, haul it in specie. He resigned his life es-Ramsey, Sheriff, G. R. Shith, Spackman, tate in the clerkship, and the house passed Sprott, Sturdevant, Watts, Wey, Zeilin, Gen. Jessup .---- The Louisville Journal contains the annexed letter from Gen. Jossup, which we copy with sincere pleasure: To the editors of the Louisville Journal:

Berks, Hill of Westd., Hoge, James,

Louisville, Dec. 20, 1838. Sirs-I have this moment been informed that a story is going the rounds of the newspapers, on the authority of a corres-Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge pondent of the N. York American, that the receipt of your letter of the 15th ult. "I am not exactly in a position to make > that ever came into my hands, as my ac- es are yet to satisfy. counts at the treasury will show.

this article. sweat. THOS. S. JESSUP. Mai, Gen. and Qr. Master Gen. of the Government for the present year, are $40,-

Army. THE MONEY MARKET, --- The pressure on the Money Market has in some degree aba- 000,000. Since it got into the hands of

ted. The rates are not quite so high as the Loco Foco or plunder party, it has Loco Foco FAIRNESS .- The Loco Foco | they have been, nor is the demand so great. | more than trebled. Such a result may as it gets older.

tion.

PUBLIC PLUNDERING ON THE

LOCO FOCO SYSTEM.

Mark PR JALEY, of the Clip, was surprised to know in-jet not, the voode of the State. "Subsequently to its series our sequences on message of the construction of the construction of the construction of the construction. Which have come out to proceed of the desistence out to proceed of the clipser of the construction. The sequences of the construction of the construction of the construction. The sequences of the construction of the construction of the construction. Which have come out to proceed of the clipser of the construction. The sequences of the construction of the construction of the construction. The sequences of the construction of the construction of the construction of the construction. The sequences of the construction of the construction. The sequences of the construction of the construction of the construction of the construction of the construction. The sequences of the construction of the construc

Pa. Telegraph.

There is in this correspondence, a novel of them at least knows not how he shall ARRIVALS. -Donna Maria, of Portugal, was delivered of onother word prime and the secretary. They prefer a reliance upthis. - Mr. Burrowcs did not behave in this the Secretary. They prefer a reliance upmanner, but kept in all the cleeks until the on UNOFFCIAL communication. The Govspring of the year, and one of them (the ernor informs them, OFFICIALLY, and in chief clerk) he kept in until he could make plain terms, of the difficulties with which husiness arrangements to support his fami- the Commonwealth is beset; and asks their ly. But I fear the world is not getting better aid. They do not choose to believe the Governor's declaration, but prefer those Gov. Porter kept his lodgings most of the through a partizan channel. It may be all ly, at this time, canvassing, not the qualifi- men ; but it strikes us as somewhat strange, that an official communication should be cations of office applicants, but the party in-fluence they may have. Mr. Shunk, the threst aside, and one of a private-characterpreferred. We say the doctrine is new. new Secretary, has been clerk of the house and of very-doubtful-authority. - It would for more than twenty years, and secretary require some time, and very good reason to familiarize our mind with it. It may be good doctrine for REYNARD, but rather dancoffers various amounts, which, if added gerous to be often practised. up, would require a strong locomotive to

We wish it understood that, alhough we place at the head of our columns a vote of thanks for his faithful discharge of the name of Gen. Harrison for President, his duties. Mr. Seiler, a subordinate clerk, we are for any man who shall be the Whig. was then elected to fill his place, he having candidate in opposition to Martin Van Bureceived 63, votes, A. Ramsey 12, and S. ren. But we abominate the doctrine that Shoch 11. There was a long debate on nothing is to be said about preferences in printing a message from Gov. Ritner on this matter until the National Convention the subject of troops called out, but no ac- shall tell the people for whom they must vote. We wish the Delegates to that Convention to go there and obey the known wishes of the Whigs of the Union ; we wish them to go there and express public opinion, not manufacture it. It is hoped Within the last three years it has been that the friends of all the candidates now named by the Whigs, or of those who may be hereafter named, will frankly and in good faith to the ultimate decision of the Whig party, advance the reasons why their respective favorites should be nominated. The Loco Focos are about to obtain rule Editors who have published the state in Pennsylvania, when the pockets of the Let there be an open and frank canvass nent referred to, are requested to insert farmers and mechanics may be expected to before the meeting of the National Convenment referred to, are requested to insert farmers and mechanics may be expected to tion, and then let the friends of each strive The estimated expenses of the General with others to see who will do the most to secure the election of the candidate who shall be the choice of the Convention. In 427,318 08! Under the "profligate and New Hampshire, Gen. HARRISON's friends extravagant" Administration of Mr. John are very numerous, and they are daily in-Quincy Adams it never amounted to $13,creasing. Whatever may be the result of the coming contest, and we have never seen the Whigs in better spirits than they now are,—certain it is that if Gen. Har-rison shall be the. Whig candidate for President in 1840, Hampshire will give him at least a rity of 5000. The